

DEVELOPMENTS AT DAIRY

STORK VISITS CALLAHAN'S AND HALL'S

Voters Are Slow in Registering—The Land in Klamath County Can't Be Beat in Iowa

Little Jimmy Viera continues to slowly improve. Mr. Goss, the Bonanza Hivery man, has been buying grain in Yonna Valley lately.

People complain that everything is on the rise. Why, even the dust goes up in clouds.

Haying at the Dave Shook ranch was completed last Wednesday. About 700 tons were put up—all in fine condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron W. Hall of Swan Lake are rejoicing in the recent addition of another girl to their series—and thus things are evened up.

The grain harvest is now in full blast, and farmers are finding the quantity and quality better than they expected. But such is nearly always the case.

Hans Stroehler went to Klamath Falls last Saturday to prove up on his homestead, near Dairy, taking Messrs. Mike Reuck and Tom Michael with him as witnesses.

Dempster Anderson's apple orchard at the Lost River gap is so loaded down with fruit this year that many limbs are hanging to the ground, and some have broken off with the weight.

J. B. Smith of the state of Oklahoma, arrived Friday last for a visit with his brother, George Smith of Mt. View ranch. His coming was an entire surprise to George and his family.

Mrs. Miller, mother of Mrs. C. H. McCumber, and her daughter, Mrs. Emma Corb, have taken up a homestead near the (Shook) Rattlesnake ranch, and mean to improve it and live there.

To keep the pages of history straight it should be recorded that J. P. Callahan and wife became the parents of another boy baby on the 9th inst. Pat has been troating himself to cigars ever since.

Road overseers have discovered that the rapid driving of automobiles across the wooden bridges is having the effect of loosening all the nails in the bridge planks. Some new method of fastening the planks will have to be invented or the autos will have to go slower—a thing not to be thought of by the drivers.

Mr. Sedge, who is registering the voters of the precinct, reports that only about thirty have registered thus far—and this is August 22—out of a possible 110 voters. It seems very strange that less than one-third of them have taken the preliminary step necessary to enable them to vote this fall. What does this mean?

This from a Central Iowa correspondent to the county newspaper: "Threshing is on in this neighborhood. Spring wheat is of good quality, and averages from 16 to 20 bushels per acre. Oats and barley are yielding from 20 to 26 bushels." Why, dry farming in Klamath county, in this year of grace, when this season we haven't had a rain for five months, averages up as good as that or better. Land in Iowa is worth $100 or more an acre. Land here can be had at $15 to $25 for the best. Why should not Iowa farmers come to the state of Klamath, where they can get cheap land?

One of the autos which carries passengers between the Falls and Lakeview had a mishap a few days ago in this valley which the managers have succeeded in keeping out of print. On the middle road of the valley, near the Uhrmann residence, is a hill, and at the foot of this hill is a small bridge over the Wight ditch, on a curve. The machine driver came running down that hill at such a lively pace that he could not make that curve, and as a result the machine ran off into the ditch, dumping the occupants out. Fortunately no one was so badly hurt as to require the services of a surgeon.

The ravages of birds and "varmints" are unaccountably large this year. A few weeks ago Dave Shook and Sheriff Barnes took a look over Dave's young orchard, and the two men estimated the crop of apples at five wagon loads. The people at the house have picked a few since then for cooking and eating, but Dave was greatly surprised in going over the orchard recently to find that the apples were gone—not more than a peck was left on the trees. The squirrels, chipmunks and birds had taken the whole crop in less than three weeks! Now wasn't that awful? It's a cinch that Mr. Shook will put a guard over his orchard next summer about ripening time.

A good story is told of one of the multimillionaires of Chicago by parties coming from Lakeview not many weeks ago in an auto. The wealthy man's name is Lilly, or something like that. In coming through the reservation, near Whisky creek, the auto broke down. It was in the evening, and the machine could not be repaired until the next morning. This necessitated the party's making the best of the night at the home of an Indian who lives close by. Whether the wrecked party got any supper I do not know, but the next morning they were all very hungry, and wanted a breakfast. The dusky ladies of the household (a mother and daughter) said they would get the best breakfast for them that they could. So they were invited to go ahead. Ham and eggs and potatoes were fried, coffee was made and biscuits were baked, and the party sat to devour the repast with a vigor borne of excellent appetites. Unfortunately for Mr. Lilly, when he broke his first biscuit he discovered a long hair in it of the exact color of the Indian maiden's who had mixed the dough, and the right of it turned the gorge of the man of many dollars, and he ran outside and disgorged—not only what he had eaten for breakfast, but his supper and dinner of the previous day. In fact, he seemed to turn himself nearly inside out, to the amusement of the other members of the party, who kept on eating as if nothing unusual had occurred and some of them began laughing at his weak stomach. But there was no more breakfast for him; and every time reference was made to hairs in biscuits he would run to the door and attempt to unload another previous meal. He couldn't appreciate the jokes that were passed at his expense, and finally he said to the chauffeur: "How soon can you get me to the railroad? If you'll get me there before the train leaves today I'll give you a hundred dollars! I don't want to be gayed by every man in Klamath Falls for a whole day." It is safe to say that millionaire will shy clear of Indian breakfasts hereafter.

CANDIDATES FILE CUTS AND ARGUMENTS

Monday Was the Last Day on Which to Get Names on Official Pamphlet Sent to Voters

SALEM, August 23.—So far twenty candidates for nomination in the primaries of September 24 next have filed cuts and arguments for the candidates' pamphlet that will be mailed to all registered voters before the primaries. Each candidate has the privilege of one page, including a cut, for a filing fee of $25.

Those who filed cuts at this time have been Republicans altogether. No democrat has as yet filed, and therefore there will be no democratic pamphlet. Among those who have filed are Judge George H. Burnett, candidate for supreme justice, Wallace McCamant filed an argument in favor of his own candidacy, but no cut.

Jay Bowerman, assembly candidate for governor, and Willis Hawley, assembly candidate for congress to succeed himself from the First district, will both avail themselves of space in the state's campaign literature. A. W. Lafferty, candidate for congress in the Second district, will go into the pamphlet.

Objections to the candidacy of Wallace McCamant and George Burnett for the supreme bench will be included in the pamphlet. They were filed by the assembly of attorneys who nominated the present incumbents, Will R. King and Woodson T. Slater.

SEEKS NEW ROUTE FROM ASHLAND HERE

Highway by Way of Buck Lake and Round Lake Talked of—Old Stage Road Is Favored

An automobile road from Ashland to this place is being talked of both in Ashland and Klamath Falls, but it is not meeting with much favor in this city. The road is to come by way of the Dead Indian road, and then by way of Buck lake and Round lake to this city. At least, that is the route which the Ashland people favor. They claim that it will furnish the shortest route to this city from their town, and at the same time give a more direct route to Pelican bay and Fort Klamath.

The objection that is made to the proposed route by the citizens of Klamath Falls is that the road will be impassable four months in the year on account of the heavy snows that fall in the country through which the road runs.

The route that is most favored here is the old stage road running through Shake. There are only about two miles of that road that needs improving, and when that work has been done it will make a highway that is open all the year, and one which does not have any steep grades.

It is believed here that the best route between the two cities is the last one mentioned, and if any work is done on a highway between Klamath Falls and Ashland it will in all probability be done on the old stage road.

To prevent explosions of coal dust in mines experiments are under way in Germany in which water is pumped into borings under pressure.

ALL TIRED OUT

Hundreds More in Klamath Falls in the Same Flight

Tired all the time; Weary and worn out night and day;

Back aches, side aches, All on account of the kidneys. Must help them at their work. Let one who knows tell you how.

Mrs. A. Lempke, F street, Grants Pass, Ore., says: "For some time I suffered severely from rheumatic pains throughout my body and was so stiff and lame that I could scarcely get around. My rest was greatly broken and as a consequence I arose in the morning feeling so tired that it was hard for me to perform my household work. I tried many remedies and liniments without receiving the slightest relief and hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended for such troubles I procured a box. I was helped from the first and before long I was free from pain. I have told others how much benefit I have received from Doan's Kidney Pills and I would not be without them in the house."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50¢. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Last Boy

The inspector was examining Standard I. and all the class had been specially told beforehand by their master, says the Dundee Advertiser. "Don't answer unless you are almost certain your answer is correct."

History was the subject.

"Now, tell me," said the inspector, "who was the mother of our great Scottish hero, Robert Bruce?"

He pointed to the top boy, then round the class. There was no answer. Then at last the heart of the teacher of that class leaped with joy. The boy who was standing at the very foot had held up his hand.

"Well, my boy," said the inspector, encouragingly, "who was she?"

"Please, sir, Mrs. Bruce."

Beware the Dog!

A family moved from the city to a suburban locality and were told that they should get a watch dog to guard the premises at night. So they bought the largest dog that was for sale in the kennels of a neighboring dog fancier, who was a German. Shortly afterward the house was entered by burglars, who made a good haul, while the big dog slept. The man went to the dog fancier and told him about it.

"Well, vat you need now," said the dog merchant, "is a teedie dog to vake up the big dog."—Everybody's.

Even the Children

Ex-Gov. Pennypacker, condemning in his witty way the American divorce evil, told at a Philadelphia luncheon an appropriate story.

"Even our children," he said "are becoming infected. A Kensington school teacher, examining a little girl in grammar, said:

"What is the future of 'I love'?" "I divorce," the child answered promptly."

Nyal's Vegetable Prescription is indicated in all ordinary diseases of women. This remedy never disappoints, its good effects being perceptible from the very first. It is composed of the purest and the most reliable drugs; mercury and other harmful drugs being excluded. The many disconcerting influences to which women are constantly subjected render her liable to many functional disorders that not only tend to destroy her comfort and happiness, but which gradually merge into chronic and serious diseases.

Nyal's Vegetable Prescription is without a peer for the successful treatment of female weakness, painful and disordered menstruation, hysteria, cramps, "bearing down pains," inflammation and falling of the womb. This is a remedy of sterling worth.
