Ed Campbell is Possessed of Suicidal Mania—Both Leave for Salem This Morning

G. K. Harrington and W. Hockaday, attendants at the insane asylum at Salem, left for there Wednesday morning and took with them two men, Jacob Erickson and Ed Campbell.

Erickson was arrested Saturday by Officer C. C. Low on account of his queer actions and locked up in the county jail. Sunday morning he suddenly became violent, and raged with maniacal fury. At first he thought that God was going to kill him and begged that everyone else be slain but that he be saved. His hallucination then took a different course, and he then imagined that he was God. He stamped up and down the cell in the jail and shrieked: "I am God. I will kill everybody. Roosevelt is a great man, but I am greater, I am greater, I am God." He kept his ravings up continuously and became so violent that finally Deputy Sheriff John Schallcock, George Welch and J. McMullen put the shackles on him to prevent him from doing any harm.

He kept up a continual howling and raving until he left. He imagined at times that he owned large mines and would work like a Trojan digging and shoveling ore, going through the motions as though he were actually at work.

It was necessary to put straps on him when taken to the train, to keep him from injuring anyone. Before this was done, however, he struck the guard in the face.

Erickson is about 45 years old, and formerly lived at Reno, Nev. He had a wife and three children, but his wife left him for some reason, taking the children with her. This is thought to have been partially the cause of his insanity. His father is dead, but he has a mother living in Norway.

Ed Campbell was released from the asylum in Washington state in July and came to Fort Klamath for his health. He is a lawyer and is possessed of a suicidal mania. He realized that his trouble was coming back to him, and he came here and delivered himself to the authorities and was taken to the asylum with Erickson.

WORK WILL START NEXT WEEK

FIRST STEP IN PAVING TO BEGIN IN A FEW DAYS

Warren Construction Company Expect to Commence the Curbing and Grading Very Soon

As soon as the contract has been signed, the Warren Construction company of Portland, whose bid for the paving of Main and Sixth streets has been accepted, will begin the work of improving the principal thoroughfares of this city and making them as up-to-date as those of any place of this size in the state.

The first thing to be done will be the construction of the curbing. While this is going on the streets will be graded. It is expected that the work on the curbing and grading will begin the latter part of next week and that as soon thereafter as possible the laying of the pavement will be begun.

The plant of the company which is to be brought here will lay about 1,000 yards of bitulithic paving a day, and as there are 50,000 yards of paving to be laid the work will take about sixty days, allowing for hindrances. It is expected that the paving will be completed in about ninety days from the time the work starts.

When that is done Main street from the bridge to the depot and Sixth street from Main street to Kinlock avenue will be covered with a smooth paving that will be a credit to the city.
