

CITY BRIEFS.

Arthur Hamaker was in from Bly Friday.

L. S. Parker was here from Odell Friday.

G. W. Giboney was here from Medford Saturday.

Bert Doan of Bonanza had business here Saturday.

Henry Walters had business here from Merrill Friday.

A. B. Evans had business here from Dorris Saturday.

J. P. Kelsey was in from Bonanza Saturday with a lot of sheep.

J. B. Marvin of Portland went to za postmaster, was here on business Saturday.

J. C. Mitchell and wife of Gazelle, Calif., were at the Lakeside Friday.

Ed Casebeer of Bly was here on business Saturday.

Alex Patterson had business here from Merrill Saturday.

Charles R. Thompson of Roseland was registered at the Lakeside Saturday.

A. A. Davis, a Summer Lake cattle man, was in the city on business Saturday.

M. F. Murphy was down from Crescent this week.

G. J. McCarthy was here from the Shorts ranch Tuesday.

C. L. Cool and wife of Topsy, Ore., were at the Lakeside this week.

S. W. Reese and family went to Bonanza last Thursday, where they will reside.

Nan McCallen left for her home in Portland Friday morning, after a short stay here.

H. A. Traxel and wife, who have been here for several days, left their home in Talent, Ore., Tuesday.

N. D. Ginsbach had business here from the Klamath Agency Thursday night, and returned next morning.

H. Crumney of the Ransome-Crummey Paving company of Oakland was in the city on business last week.

Miss Stickile of Plush, stopped here last week, on her way to Medford, where she will attend school.

Margaret Aldrich arrived here from Wauseon, Ohio, Saturday, and will begin work here as a teacher in the graded schools.

G. W. Sorrels, the Keno mail contractor, was in the city Friday, looking after some business with Uncle Sam and other matters.

Dr. W. M. Martin returned from a six weeks' vacation Friday night. He had the finest kind of a time, and was sorry that he had to return.

J. P. Churchill and H. L. Walth, ranchers near Yreka, Calif., came up in an auto Friday night.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church is preparing for a bazaar, which will be given later this fall.

Did you know that Goodrich's Cash Store was closing out its entire stock? That you can save from 20 to 35 per cent?

Wm. Waechter, the cattleman, who ships fine beef stock to Alaska, is here after some more of the fine cattle that are raised in this county.

Mrs. A. H. Vincent and daughter, Lillie, who have been here for a week visiting Mrs. M. Hoagland, returned to their home in Langell Valley Friday.

Miss Anna O'Keefe arrived here from San Diego, Calif., Friday night, and left for Keno next morning, where she will teach the school at that place.

C. E. Mulkey returned from his vacation Friday, and went up to Fort Klamath next morning, where he will resume his duties as teacher in the school there.

Richard and Floyd Bass arrived from Janesville, Cal., Friday night to visit their aunt, Mrs. O. L. Carter. They drove over in a spring wagon, and will remain about two weeks.

Edna Miller came down from the Agency on Sunday and left for Roseburg next morning to visit her uncle, Horace G. Wilson, who was formerly connected with the Klamath Agency.

John Flennery and C. S. Casaday, cattle men of Portland, returned from Fort Klamath Thursday, where they had been looking after live stock, from Mt. Hebron during the past week.

M. P. Michler was down from the Fort Thursday to visit his father-in-law, John Ellis, whose jaw was broken several days ago while he was putting up hay. Mr. Ellis is getting along nicely.

Erle R. White, the typewriter man of San Jose, who has been visiting his father, S. A. White, on the Royston ranch for several days, was in the city and remained for a day or two before returning home.

Miss Bessie Hammond, who has for the past two months been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Hammond, left on Friday for Portland, where she will resume her duties as teacher in one of the public schools of that city.

Mr. Harmon, one of the prominent citizens of Tacoma, arrived here Thursday on a brief visit with his daughter, Miss Harmon, the third grade teacher in the East Side school. Mr. Harmon is on a pleasure trip, and is taking in the principal points of interest along the coast.

C. J. Sweet of Crescent is here on business.

T. F. Hanna is here on business from Crescent.

D. McGee of San Francisco is a guest of the Livermore.

J. E. Moffett of Bray, Calif., had business here Wednesday.

Charles Stindt of Bonanza had business here Wednesday.

J. M. Holman was down from the Klamath Agency Wednesday.

Robert Malone had business here from Langell Valley Wednesday.

Earl Jackson was down from Fort Klamath on business Wednesday.

H. O. Cox, one of the prominent ranchers of the Merrill country, had business here Wednesday.

W. O. Smith came up from his sand and gravel pit near Mount Shasta Saturday night, and returned there Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller came down from the Agency Sunday, and went down to their ranch near Merrill next morning.

Dr. V. D. Guitard came down from the Klamath Agency Tuesday night, and left Wednesday morning for an extended vacation in the East.

W. J. Smith left Wednesday to take up his work as inspector for the Western Union telegraph offices in California, Idaho and Nevada.

Mrs. W. C. Neff returned from a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Welch, at Medford. She left for her home in Odessa Wednesday.

Clothing, furnishing goods, ladies' coats, skirts, sweaters, shoes and groceries—everything goes at big discount at Goodrich's Cash Store.

W. I. Clarke returned from San Francisco Tuesday, where he had been for nearly two weeks on matters connected with his extensive lumbering interests in this part of the state.

R. Vance Hutchins is still confined to his home with fever. He is able to be around the house, but is not strong enough to come down town yet.

C. P. Frundell of Portland went to Crater lake Wednesday. He has been here several days looking over the country, and will return this way in a short time.

Helen Walters and Ethel McMahon of Portland came over from Lakeview, where they have been visiting relatives, and left for their homes Monday morning.

Henry Rabbes and William Wagner went down to Midland yesterday and came back with four fine fat geese, which they killed in the grain fields in that place.

R. M. Whittaker, manager of the Portland house of the Union Meat company, and C. J. Eastman, who has charge of the Medford branch, are here in the interests of their company.

Mrs. J. P. Brown and daughter of Grand Junction, Colo., arrived here Sunday night to visit her father, J. M. Bertholf of Bonanza, and her sister, Mrs. J. W. Hawhurst of this city.

L. N. Griswold was here from Whitelake Tuesday after an engine for the new gasoline launch which he has just constructed for John Cotman, which is to be used on White lake and Lower Klamath lake.

Edson L. Fulke, a prominent cattle man of Gazelle, Calif., and wife, Mrs. L. M. Fulke and Albert Roll of Gazelle, and Miss Davis of San Francisco came up in Mr. Fulke's automobile Tuesday, and after a good rest at the Lakeside Inn they left for a business trip through the county.

Mrs. G. W. Garrison of Oklahoma City is a guest at the Livermore. Mrs. Garrison was one of those who filed on a claim at the Lakeview land office a few days ago. She has been visiting various cities in the Northwest since she was here last.

Al Strickland came down from Whitelake Tuesday to meet his step-sister, Mrs. John Rader, and Mrs. Joe Rader of Medford, who will visit Mr. Strickland's family at their home near Whitelake. Al has promised them a treat in the shape of two 19-pound watermelons, which were raised on his dry ranch, and are waiting in the cellar for the visitors.

W. B. Innes went to Merrill and the Malin country Sunday in his auto. Mrs. E. B. Hall, Miss Hazel Livermore and Mrs. W. I. Clarke went with him. He brought back with him a magnificent specimen of table beet and a sugar beet that is a wonder. They were grown on Nathan Merrill's ranch. Mr. Merrill says he has had the best crop in ten years. The hill road is all right for autos, said Mr. Innes, but the valley road is fierce, there being so much water overflowed from the irrigation ditches.

H. G. Bussey returned to his home at Lorella Sunday evening from the Wampus district, about twenty miles west of here on the Ashland road, where he had taken his daughter, Zella, who is to teach school there this season. When asked about the condition of crops in his neighborhood Mr. Bussey said that while the grain was light, had it been any other place than Klamath county under the same condition there would have been no crop at all. He also said that in twenty-five years in this county he had seen but one year that could be compared with this one.

D. Davenport had business here from Merrill Monday.

Herb Baldwin returned from Sacramento Saturday, where he had been for the past ten days on business.

Tassey Stewart went out to his Poe Valley ranch Monday morning, where he is installing a large pumping plant.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Helleman left for Eastern Nebraska and Iowa Sunday morning, where they will visit friends and relatives.

Dr. Pickle of Medford arrived here Sunday evening, coming for the purpose of paying a flying visit to his old friend, Postmaster R. A. Emmitt, who is confined to his home with an attack of typhoid fever. Dr. Pickle came in his automobile, returning home Monday. He said before his departure that Mr. Emmitt was in splendid hands, and there was no reason for apprehension. His fever will have to run its course, but owing to the splendid constitution of the patient there was every reason to believe that he would not have a serious time. This will be welcome news to his host of friends throughout the county, all of whom await anxiously reports from the bedside of this old warhorse.

Anton, George and Anna Urban are registered at the Lakeside Inn from Medford.

H. G. Shidier came here and proved up on his homestead, eight miles southeast of Bonanza, Saturday afternoon. He went to Wampus Sunday, where he will work on the Southern Pacific power plant. His family will go down there the last of the week.

(Paid Advertisement)

Settle It Now Settle It Right

For constitutional amendment giving to cities and towns exclusive power to license, regulate, control, suppress, or prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors within the municipality.

328 X Yes

ENDORSED BY 40,000 OREGON CITIZENS

Greater Oregon Home Rule Association, 618 Electric Building, Portland, Oregon.

BERT E. WITHROW, Secretary

DON J. ZUMWALT, C. E. President

E. M. BUBB, Vice President and Treasurer

Abstracting
Maps, Plans, Blue Prints, Etc.

Klamath County Abstract Co., Inc
Surveying and Irrigation Engineering
KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

W. S. Wiley, law examiner for the reclamation service here, and his wife left for Washington, D. C., and New York Sunday morning. They were accompanied by Mrs. Sharpless, Mrs. Wiley's mother, who has been visiting here for some time, and who resides in Washington, D. C.

Sanford Zeron left for San Francisco on Sunday morning. "San," as he is familiarly known, has been chef at the Klamath restaurant, and many a boarder at that popular place will be sorry to see him leave. He will be accompanied by Ed Caldwell, whose home is also in San Francisco.

New Blacksmith Shop
On Klamath Avenue near O. K. Feed Barn
GENERAL BLACKSMITHING
Horseshoeing a Specialty
F. T. ALLEN AND E. H. PATTERSON
O. T. McKendree of Merrill had business here Sunday.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

YOU'LL find here in our store "the greatest show on earth" of good clothes; more first prize winners than anywhere else; all the high-class, thoroughbred styles; and you can just as well take a first premium as not. Hart Schaffner & Marx new styles, new colorings, new all-wool fabrics, perfect tailoring; let us show you how well we can fit you. Suits, $20 to $50. Overcoats, $18 to $40

PORTLAND STORE

This store is the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes