OBJECT TO SURVEILLANCE

DELEGATES TO LOS ANGELES LABOR MEETING ANGRY

Resent the Patrolling of Their Headquarters by the Police—Men Told to Move On

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 4.—The delegates to the California State Federation of Labor were angered at today's session as the result of what they declare to be an unwarrantable surveillance by the police at the labor temple and the convention headquarters. Thirty officers were detailed last night to keep the union men on the move around both places. The police refused to say who gave the orders.
As a result of the surveillance an effort was made to have the convention moved to San Francisco. This failed because of expense involved. The National Labor Organizer said: "The police supervision to which the delegates have been subjected is the last insult that Los Angeles can give us. Of course it is not expected that we will be received as the American Bankers' association delegates are, but there wasn't a single Los Angeles official present to welcome us to Los Angeles when we convened. Instead of that the city treats us as though we were suspicious characters. The police headquarters refuse to say why the officers were sent to spy on us last night."

MUCH PLEASED WITH THIS PART OF THE STATE

Visitors From Arkansas Delighted With the Klamath Basin, and May Return Here

Mrs. Johanna Ross of Crawford county, Arkansas, who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. H. H. Roberts, at Olene for the past three months, and Rev. J. W. Hughes and wife of Rogers, Ark., who have also been visiting with the Roberts for the past month, left for their homes Tuesday morning. They are more than pleased with what they saw of this part of Oregon, and will probably return to this county next spring.
It has been thirty years since the Roberts last saw their friends, and they enjoyed the visit with them very much indeed. When they come back next spring they will probably settle near the Roberts' place.

GEORGE CHAFFEY DIES AT 8:15 THIS MORNING

Succumbed to an Attack of Tuberculosis—Interment Took Place on Tuesday

George Chaffey, who was taken sick Thursday night, died at 8:15 Monday morning of a hemorrhage resulting from an attack of tuberculosis. His remains were buried Tuesday.
Mr. Chaffey was well known here, having been in this vicinity for the past six years. For the last two months he has been the chief at Volmer's Elite cafe on Main street, where he was employed at the time he was taken sick. Before that time he was the chef at Eagle Ridge tavern. He was about 50 years of age, and has no known relatives.

ROOF OVER THE IRIS THEATER IS NOW RAISED

Carpenters Busy Building a Modern Rooming House—Will Contain 28 Rooms

The roof over the Iris theater is now raised, and a force of carpenters under the superintendency of L. J. Reinhart, is at work building a modern rooming house above the two rooms of that building.
The new rooming house will contain twenty-eight rooms, and each one will be supplied with hot and cold water and have a radiator in each. There are to be two bath rooms, and the building will be heated by steam. It will be two months before the work is finished.

Captain of What Ship?

A man who had evidently been a sailor was going down the street the other day, and he was just able to navigate. A. E. Elder was standing on the walk and Captain O. C. Applegate passed him at the same time the intoxicated man did.
"How are you, Captain?" said Mr. Elder.
"Very well, thank you," said Captain Applegate.
The intoxicated man heard the remarks, and turning slowly and carefully around he gazed at the tall, erect form of the captain. Then slowly turning to Mr. Elder he said: "Is that man a captain?"
"He is," replied Mr. Elder.
"Of what ship?" asked the bibulous navigator.
R. F. Ryan of Marysville was here on business today.

BARBECUE AT MALIN WAS GREAT SUCCESS

The Beef and Mutton Was Delicious, and Everyone Enjoyed Himself Immensely

The barbecue at Malin Saturday was a success in every respect. Bill Dalton, the chef, and his assistants had cooked the beef and mutton until it was so tender it would almost melt in one's mouth, and everything else prepared for the hungry crowd was equally as good.
Judge H. L. Benson, W. S. Worden and J. P. Lee were among the speakers. A number of speeches were made in both Bohemian and English.
The board of army engineers were with the guests at the barbecue, and Sheriff Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeLap were also there from Klamath Falls.
Everyone was surprised at the showing made by the colonists in the way of grasses and vegetables.

DETECTIVE BURNS WILL HELP SEEK PERPETRATORS

He Does Not Believe That Union Labor Had Anything to Do With the Times Disaster

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—Detective Burns and Earl Rogers, a member of the special citizens committee investigating the Times disaster, arrived from Los Angeles. Mr. Rogers admitted that he came to investigate the reported sale of dynamite to three men, who it is believed sent it to Los Angeles, and a part of it was that found at the Zeehandelaar house. He admitted that Burns was to help investigate. He said he had intended to keep their efforts very secret.
Burns was seen later, and said that he did not come with Rogers. He had not intended to help, but had merely come to see his son at Palo Alto, where he is a student. Burns said it seems certain the perpetrators would be caught, and that it was unjust to lay the catastrophe at the door of unionism.

Delinquent Tax List

Deputy Sheriff R. E. Guthridge is busy ascertaining the delinquent taxes on the various pieces of property in the county and computing the penalty of 10 per cent as well as the interest that is to be added from last April at the rate of 1 per cent per month. Many have paid their taxes during the past few days, and thus avoided the penalty, but the number of delinquents is still large enough to give Mr. Guthridge plenty of work to do.

A GOOD POSITION can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "wireless" or railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Ore., operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details. 9-22-12-15
