THE ATTRACTIONS OF LIFE IN THE CITY COME HIGH

Meal in a Restaurant in the Mertop-Is Sets Farmer Visitor to Calculating

Not long since I lunched in a New York Restaurant, says "The Middleman" in Metropolitan Magazine. It was not the most expensive place, but rather above the average in price. The menu card interested me as a new schedule of rates would hold a railroad president. As a farmer I produced food similar to that offered for sale, and I knew what I was paid for it. A man likes to see what is tacked on to the thing which leaves his hand. Strawberries and cream were offered at 25 cents. I figured that a quart of our berries would make about four dishes. Two eggs served in various ways cost 30 cents. You paid 80 cents for a half spring chicken. Now my big family would feel poorly used if we served less than four quarts of berries. We could hardly keep good natured on four whole chickens. For berries and chickens alone, therefore, at these restaurant prices, we spend $10.40 at a single meal. If we charged the prices printed on this card for salads and vegetables and other things which would make our meal, we should have a cost of $15, or over $20 a day. Of course my family is a large one, and all are blessed with good appetites. I can buy food cheaper at other city places, but if I take the prices paid by at least 150,000 people in New York the "daily bread" for our family represents $30 or more.

LONG LAKE LUMBER COMPANY AGAIN IN CHARGE

Took Control of Mill Tuesday Morning—North Star Bringing Down Large Log Raft

The Long Lake Lumber company has again taken charge of the mill at Shippington, assuming control this morning. Mr. McGowan has had a lease on the mill for a year, and the Long Lake company will operate it from now on.
The steamer North Star is on her way from Crystal Creek with a log raft containing 400,000 feet of timber. It will probably be here Thursday.
The steamer Mazama took up fifty tons of freight last Saturday to the Wood River and Fort Klamath country.
There were forty-three visitors at St. Cloud Sunday.

BELIEVES NEXT CONGRESS WILL BE REPUBLICAN

Secretary Wilson Says the Middle West is Strongly for the Grand Old Party

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Secretary Wilson, who is campaigning for Governor Stimson, arrived here today. Speaking of the political situation he said:
"I do not see how the next congress can be democratic, simply because the republicans lost in the East. I have been in the Middle West, and that section is Republican. Kansas and Minnesota are solid, and Iowa is strong. President Taft will get a second term. The West appreciates him as one of our greatest presidents."

MRS MARTIN ON TRIAL A SECOND TIME

Attempts to Conduct Her Own Case and the Court Assigned Her Counsel

OAKLAND, Nov. 1.—The second trial of Mrs. Isabelle Martin was begun today. The woman conducted her own defense, and challenged Elisha Lanktree, charging that he, Sheriff Barnett and Jailer White's wife were conspiring against her. She challenged one juror on the grounds that he did not understand English. The court arbitrarily appointed counsel in her defense.

THE STORE OF QUALITY

A Fine Gun
Barney Chambers has one of the finest guns in the state at his store on Main street. It is a 25-35 Winchester, and the stock and fore-end are the fanciest that have ever been seen here. On the stock are burned a butterfly, a beetle and a skull, while the fore-end is inlaid with ivory, which has been delicately carved by the patient hands of Chinese workers. The carving on the ivory represents Chinese scenes, and although it is very delicately done, the details are wonderfully clear and perfect. It is a rifle which would attract attention anywhere, and Barney would not part with it for any price.

Farewell Party
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Harlow were surprised Tuesday night by about a dozen of their friends, who formed a farewell party before their departure from this city. They left Wednesday morning for Fresno, Calif., where they will remain for the winter. Mr. Harlow is one of the foremost builders in the city, having erected as many substantial structures as any contractor in town. He will return here next summer and make as good or better record for next year.

Progressive Dinner
A progressive dinner was given last Monday by the C. I. of S. I. at the homes of Miss Goldie Barnes, Miss Roxie Shive, Miss Fannie Virgil, Miss Agnes Marple and Miss Faye Hogue being visited by the young ladies. They declared that they had nothing to do with the many Halloween pranks that were played along the route, though they had a most pleasant evening.

Lost an Eye
While working in the quarry on Link River Sunday night Walter McGee, better known among the boxing fraternity as "Kid" Richards, had the misfortune to have a piece of rock strike him in the eye, and the injury is so severe that he will probably lose the member. He left for his home in San Francisco this morning to receive treatment.

An Enjoyable Ride
A jolly party consisting of Walter Ennis, Mrs. A. B. Libermore, Miss Hazel Livermore and Miss Myrta Carter, went down to the falls at Keno in Mr. Ennis' automobile on Sunday afternoon. They had a most enjoyable ride, and the falls were beautiful.

Birthday Party
A masquerade birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue last Saturday in honor of their daughter, Miss Hortense. A most delightful time was enjoyed by the large number of young friends who had the pleasure to attend.

Temperance Rally at Midland
A temperance rally will be held at Midland Thursday evening of this week. Rev. G. H. Feese and others will address the citizens of that thriving community. All are invited to attend.

New Suit
A suit for the recovery of money was filed today by Fred Mills, attorney for J. A. and J. L. Martin, against J. L. Yaden.

Hearing on Insanity Charge
A man who goes by the names of Frank Chartier and Orville Carter was tried before County Judge Griffith and Dr. C. V. Fisher Tuesday on a charge of insanity, and he is now locked up in the county jail.
The man has been working for the Meadow Lake Lumber company as a swamper, and for the past few days has been acting queerly, imagining that several men in a balloon were trying to destroy him with X-ray machines. He is a cocaine user, and the "dope" is what evidently causes the hallucinations.

First Unit Completed
The first unit of the city's sewer sewer system has been completed and is ready to be turned over to the city. All that remains now is the adjusting of some of the bills, and then the unit will be formally accepted.

Spreading the Paving
The bituminous coating is being spread on Main street near Tenth, and the work is attracting a large crowd. By the last of the week considerable amount of the paving will be done.

Suit to Recover Money
E. L. Elliott, attorney for E. R. Smith, filed suit Monday afternoon against Cale T. Oliver and Mrs. C. T. Oliver for the recovery of money.
