BERNARD KUHLE GETS INDETERMINATE SENTENCE

Jury is Probably Now Determining the Fate of "French Louis," Who Killed Jack Barry

District Attorney D. V. Kuykendall returned from Lakoview Sunday evening, where he had been attending the Lake county term of the circuit court. While there he argued the case against Bernard Kuhl, who was charged with horse stealing. Kuhl was found guilty and given an indeterminate sentence.

The case of Louis Veysadde, known as "French Louis," was argued by him and Judge Benson, and probably the jury has the fate of that man in their hands. Veysadde killed Jack Barry, a bartender in Mike Hart's saloon, some weeks ago during a quarrel.

MILITIA COMPANY ASKS TO BE MUSTERED OUT

Conviction of a Soldier for Sticking Bayonet in a Man Is Cause of the Trouble

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 7.—As a result of the conviction of Sergeant Manley for bayonetting a man during President Taft's visit here four officers of the national guard have resigned. Captain Kinnard of the Dallas company has asked the adjutant general to muster out his entire company, saying that he cannot order the men on guard duty when they are subject to the civil authorities for conviction for obeying military orders.

TRY TO DRIVE OUT SETTLERS

NEBRASKA MEN INDICTED BY THE GOVERNMENT

Attempted to Frighten Homesteaders From Their Claims and Sent One Man to the Insane Asylum

OMAHA, Nov. 4.—Perry S. Yeast and his son Frank, Leslie Ballinger, M. C. Hubbell, Emil Anderson, Henry Sutton, C. Emerson, B. Thorne and Dr. Harry Huff have been indicted on a charge of defrauding homesteaders on Western Nebraska land.

It is asserted they subjected the homesteaders to a series of persecutions ending in an armed raid.

It is also charged that the conspirators "railroaded" C. J. Davasher, a homesteader, to the insane asylum. It is likewise alleged that last spring thirty ranchmen raided the homesteaders' places, cut their harness, trampled the crops and destroyed the machinery and threatened them with death and injury if they did not leave their claims.

Davasher secured his release from the asylum by means of a writ of habeas corpus. He then wrote to President Taft, and an investigation resulted. The cattlemen say in defense that the land is theirs, and that the homesteaders are usurpers.

R. C. SPINK DANGEROUSLY ILL

Life Was Despaired of Last Night, and He Has Slight Chance of Recovery

The many friends of R. C. Spink will be surprised to learn that he lies at his home at the point of death, with but a slight chance for his recovery. His illness began Sunday, when he was forced to go to bed with an attack of pleuritic pneumonia. This was followed by a severe attack of kidney trouble, and he has grown gradually worse until Thursday, when it was thought that he would hardly live through the night. He had been slightly indisposed for a couple of weeks before he finally retired to his bed, but at no time was his condition considered serious until Tuesday.

Mr. Spink is one of the best known business men in the county. For several years he operated stores in the Indian reservation, and throughout the county. He is a genial, whole-souled individual, and his illness will fill with regret his many friends in the county.

WIND, SNOW AND SLEET IN EAST CAUSE TROUBLE

Houses in Which Aeroplanes Are Kept Are Blown Down and Machines Badly Damaged

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—Owing to the damage by wind, snow and sleet last night there were no aeroplane flights at Halethorp today. The foreign hanger was blown down, burying DeLesseps', Radley's and Latham's machines. The American hanger collapsed at midnight, damaging the aeroplanes belonging to Willard, Ely, Drexel and McArdle. The damage to the machines will total over $50,000.

GIRL IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

THROWN AGAINST POST WHEN HORSE SHIES

Miss Graham Hurt in Races at Bonanza on Candidates' Day—Breaks Pelvic Bone

A serious accident marred the races held on last Friday (candidates' day) at Bonanza, when Miss Graham, the 16-year-old adopted daughter of Mrs. Al Marks, was thrown against a telephone pole and one of her pelvic bones broken.

She was riding her own pony, and at the finish of the race the animal shied and threw the girl against the telephone pole, injuring her.

Dr. Johnson of Bonanza is seriously ill, and was unable to attend her, and Dr. John Patterson was summoned from Merrill. He arrived about 11 o'clock and placed the broken bone in a cast.

At the dance that night the generous residents of the Bonanza country made up a purse amounting to $40 for the girl, who is not believed to be dangerously injured. The young lady was also awarded the purse hung up for the race in which the accident occurred.

Looking Backward

is a great deal easier than looking forward. It is easy to see the mistakes of the past, and they may be used as guideposts all along the future way. Instead of wasting your opportunities, why not turn over a new leaf and make the best of them in the future? It will pay you to carefully investigate the opportunities for investment right here in the Klamath country. If you are a stranger in the city you owe it to yourself to see the surrounding country before going. You should not take the word of any man when you are near enough to see for yourself.

Chilcote is willing to show you all kinds of city and country property. Call at 622 Main street or phone 861.

Earl Johnson was here from Fort Klamath on business last Thursday.
