

INTERESTING SCHOOL WORK

INSTITUTE AT HILDEBRAND WAS WELL ATTENDED

New School Houses Are Comfortable, Attractive Structures—Institute at Midland

The local institute and educational rally held at the Hildebrand school on November 18th was well attended by both teachers and parents, and the day was very profitably and happily spent in the discussion of school topics. The people of the neighborhood prepared one of the good, bounteous country dinners and served it to the teachers, patrons and children at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Vieracla.

One of the principal features of the day was some demonstration work of the progress made in the Hildebrand school. Mr. J. O. Wight, the teacher, was asked to bear classes in first, second and third grade reading, using the methods ordinarily used in these recitations. Some criticism of methods followed, but all agreed that the results obtained by Mr. Wight were extraordinary. After reading the class was asked to spell the words studied in connection with their reading, and the criticism of critics who say that modern children cannot spell were flooded by that exhibition. The entire class stood the test admirably, and two refused to be spelled down.

After lunch Chas. A. Howard, who has been acting principal of the Klamath County High school, gave what he termed a report to the people of the work and equipment of the county school. This was followed by an interesting lecture of a "Student's Life in Germany," by Miss A. E. Cornwall of Klamath County High school. Miss Cornwall presented an interesting picture of life in the Fatherland, which was enjoyed by all, and particularly so by the Germans who were present.

Superintendent Swan has spent the last two weeks in the country, visiting schools. His itinerary included the Summers school, Henley, Pine Grove, Olene, Dairy, Hildebrand, Butlin, Malin, Shasta View and Gale. In all of the schools an increased attendance is noticed. Several of the schools are taxed to their full seating capacity. On this round he found three new, thoroughly modern school houses: Henley, Pine Grove and Shasta View. The design of the buildings has broken away from the old boxcar style, and certainly no more beautiful and comfortable rural school buildings are to be found in any section. Special attention has been paid to the heating, ventilating and lighting of the buildings. Cross lighting has been avoided, the windows being placed so that the light will fall over the left shoulders and backs of the pupils. Two of the buildings are equipped with Waterman-Waterbury heaters, which supply a constant current of warm fresh air to the room.

The Shasta View building is a two-room building, and the teachers, Miss Amy Puckett and Miss Hazel McKown are conducting one of the best schools in the county. This school is in the new Bohemian colony, and is largely attended by the Bohemian children. They also fill another school at Malin to its fullest seating capacity. These enterprising people are working wonders with what was a year ago sage and sandhill. Some of the best crops in the county were raised by them on land that this time last year was sage brush.

A teachers' institute will be held at Midland December 10th. A large attendance of teachers is expected, and no doubt the patrons will all be present.

To make it more convenient for the people of the county who have business at the superintendent's office, Superintendent Swan has employed Miss Carleton as deputy. She will be in the office during the regular office hours every day. Mr. Swan makes it a point to be in the office every Saturday unless attending institutes or other important school business.

This arrangement, he believes, will better serve the people, and enable him to spend more time visiting schools.

NEWSY ITEMS FROM DAIRY

Miss Zelma Sedge has been suffering from a severe cold.

Vernie Arant is confined to the house, owing to an ulcerating ear.

E. B. Sedge and wife were recent visitors at the Falls.

C. B. Burgdorf has purchased eighty acres of Vernon Hastings, lying north of J. R. Welch's place. He intends improving it at once.

Fifteen inches of snow fell last week. As a consequence Mr. Sedge sold out his line of felt and rubbers. Old-timers are looking for a hard winter, and most stockmen are now picking up their strays, preparatory to feeding. Should the snow stay on until spring it will work a hardship upon a few ranchers.

The reservoir recently constructed by H. L. Arant in Pine Flat failed to hold water. Seepage so threatened to wash an opening that the headgate was opened. The weather permitting Mr. Arant will strengthen the dam to insure a sufficient storage for next summer.

Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Oden and family were guests of Prof. and Mrs. B. M. Hall Thanksgiving.

W. E. Lemmon is taking the school census this week.

The many friends of Mrs. Wm. Norbridge will be pleased to learn that she sustained a successful operation for appendicitis at Ashland on November 19th.

Willie Jonas is out for contracts to saw wood. He will saw and pick it in the timber or deliver same. Parties wishing to lay in their winter's supply before another storm comes on may leave orders for same at Sedge's, Jonas, though young, will deliver the goods.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather and the slushy roads, school suspended for one week at Dairy and two days at Hildebrand.

J. G. Wright of Upper Yonna, passed through Dairy Sunday, traveling from Swan Lake. The Schmore boys, of the Connor ranch, are wintering his bunch of cattle and horses.

Harry Mills will erect a 22x24 bungalow on his homestead in Upper Yonna. Frank Cutler will do the work.

Mrs. Chas. McCumber went to the Falls Wednesday.

Mr. Bluebaker of Klamath Falls passed through here today with a band of fine horses.

Miss Faye West is out of school on account of sickness.

Archie Colson and wife went to the Falls this week.

MONEY FROM TIMBER SALES EXPENSE BILLS ARE HEAVY, TESTED AND PROVEN

OREGON GETS NEARLY FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS

Part of the Revenue From Government Forests Is Used for Roads and Schools

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 28.—For the fiscal year ended June 30th last, the United States Department of Agriculture announces the 25 percent of national forest revenue which will go to the states for roads and school purposes amounted to $506,194.84. This was $67,492.03 more than last year, or an increase of a little over 15 per cent. The payments are an offset to the loss of income from taxable property sustained through withdrawal of the forest land from entry under the public land laws.

The amounts which will go to the various states are as follows:

Arizona	$51,229.38
California	60,752.91
Colorado	50,306.19
Florida	706.38
Idaho	66,074.55
Kansas	1,094.67
Minnesota	457.37
Montana	83,678.38
Nebraska	2,820.25
Nevada	16,314.33
New Mexico	28,529.53
North Dakota	63.64
Oklahoma	626.10
Oregon	39,635.87
South Dakota	9,808.93
Utah	32,905.49
Washington	23,671.89
Wyoming	34,704.54

Noteworthy is the especially heavy increase over the amounts last year in certain states. In California the amount rose by over 25 per cent in Idaho by over 35 per cent, and in Oregon by nearly 50 per cent. The increases are the result of increased activity in national forest timber sales in these states, and are an earnest of what will happen as the timber supply which the government is caring for comes into full demand. Since the cut of timber will always be limited to what the forests will keep on growing, the income to the states will be permanent, not transitory, as would have been the case if hasty and improvident exploitation had been permitted. According to the calculations of the department of agriculture officials the states will eventually receive many times what the forests are now yielding them, for there is as yet on the whole only a very restricted demand for government timber.

SEVERAL POLES ARE BROKEN DOWN

WIRES DOWN IN ALL PARTS OF THE CITY

Weight of Snow Causes Several Trees to Split—No Communication With Country Districts

The heavy snow storm which visited this section last week raised havoc with the telephone and telegraph systems in this part of the state, and the service leading to and in this city is badly demoralized. Five poles were broken down between Ninth and Eleventh streets and on Klamath avenue and two more went down on Pine street. Falling trees and branches also broke many of the telephone wires, until it was almost impossible to communicate with any portion of the city.

There was no communication with the outlying districts except Merrill, and that line was clear only because it does not run where there are trees. All other outside lines were out of commission.

The heavy fall of snow also ruined a number of handsome shade trees in various parts of the city, breaking the branches and splitting the trunks.

One of the large shade trees in W. T. Shive's yard split in two from the weight of the snow.

FIVE MEN LOSE THEIR LIVES IN AN ACCIDENT

Explosion in Oklahoma Mine Is Fatal to Many—Cause of Disaster Is Not Known

McALESTER, Okla., Nov. 28.—Five miners were killed last night by an explosion in the Jumbo Asphalt mine of the Choctaw Asphalt company, near Antler, according to a message to R. W. Church, state mine inspector. The cause is unknown. The Jumbo is the largest mine in this section of the state. All of the victims are Americans.

Later reports showed that five are known to be dead and nine more are entombed in the mine. Three hundred rescuers are working to save the lives of the entombed men.

COSTS MONEY TO TRAVEL IN SOUTH AMERICA

Men Doing Business There Are Compelled to Pay Dearly for What They Get

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 29.—American employers need not be surprised to receive lousy expense accounts from traveling salesmen sent into Brazil, says Commercial Agent Turner in a report to the government. In Pernambuco, a city of 150,000 population he asked an American salesman traveling with three trunks, having a total weight of not over 500 pounds, as to his expenses. This was the result:

"It cost me $9 to bring the trunks from the steamer to the shore and $1.50 to haul them to an empty room for exhibit. This store room was up one flight of stairs, over a shop. The salesman hired a man for 26 cents to sweep down the stairs and make them presentable. He had to buy six boards at 36 cents each for benches on which to spread his goods. He employed a carpenter to make him four simple horses on which to lay his tables. The cost of the lumber and horse was $3.60. A man charged 36 cents for carrying the outfit to the hired room. The salesman then bought 36 cents worth of wrapping paper to cover his benches, and proceeded to unpack his wares for inspection. He had to pay a month's rent for the room, although he expected to be there only two weeks. The room rented for $18 a month. It cost that salesman $33 before he had shown his goods to a person.

"Another salesman from Europe told me it always cost him twice what I had enumerated to get started, because he had eight trunks of European goods, and he required a larger room."

"The steamships do not land their passengers, who must get ashore the best way they can. Each passenger is compelled to hire a rowboat, usually after considerable dicker. The boatman lowers the baggage over the ship's side into his boat. The passenger descends a long flight of stairs, and upon reaching the bottom takes his chances when the stairway and small boat meet and steps aboard. The journey to shore is accomplished, and the baggage deposited on land, when the boatman's fees are payable. The dicker with the land man to haul the luggage to destination then begins. This, when arranged, ends in having the lot deposited in a room, always at a cost out of proportion to the value of the service."

UP-TO-DATE STOCKS ARE SELECTED

MANY WILL CHANGE LOCATIONS SOON

Fixtures Will Be Latest Design and the Most Approved That Can Be Secured

That Klamath Falls merchants are up-to-date is evidenced by the preparations that are being made by those who are to occupy new quarters within the next few weeks. Splendid stocks are being purchased, and the fixtures for the new locations are to be the most modern that can be procured.

The first ones to move were Ward & Obenchain, who occupied their former location in the Willits' building last Monday. The East End Kandy Kitchen will move into the other room in the Willits' building adjoining Ward & Obenchain about December 1st. The name of the business will be changed to "Hoxey's."

Of the three rooms in the Odd Fellows' temple, the corner one will be occupied by the K. K. K. Store, while the Walkover Shoe company will have the adjoining one. The third room is being fitted up by J. V. Houston for a moving picture show, and he is now in San Francisco selecting the most up-to-date outfit that money can procure. The K. K. K. Store will be in their new quarters about December 10th, while Houston's picture house will be opened about the 15th.

In the basement of the Odd Fellows' temple Frank Sargeant will open one of the finest bowling alleys and pool rooms in the state, and he expects to have it ready about the 1st of January.

As soon as the new Bristol building on Main street, between the Boston Store and the Portland store, is completed, O. M. Heeter will occupy the east room with a complete stock of dry goods and ladies' wearing apparel. It is expected that he will be in his new quarters by the 15th. He will also retain the store he occupies at present, using the two rooms for his rapidly increasing business.

The other building which Mr. Bristol is having erected on Main street,

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation

For months Klamath Falls readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced has such convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. Zula Herzog, 711 Oregon street, Yreka, Calif., says: "I was afflicted with kidney trouble for some time, my back being lame and painful. I tried first one remedy and then another, but could not get relief. My strength and energy left me, I became thin and was hardly able to do my housework. I did not know for certain that my kidneys caused my suffering, but I finally decided to take Doan's Kidney Pills. They brought prompt relief, and in about two weeks after I commenced their use I was feeling like a different woman. I am now enjoying the best of health, and I feel that Doan's Kidney Pills deserve the entire credit." (Statement given July 15, 1907.)

Re-Indorsement.

Mrs. Herzog was interviewed on October 22, 1909, and she said: Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney trouble two years ago, and I am pleased to re-indorse them at this time. I have used this remedy off and on since 1907, and have always received the best of results."

between Fifth and Sixth, will be occupied by a moving picture house conducted by Mrs. Lorella B. Sparks. Mrs. Sparks is an experienced conductor of moving picture shows, and will have one of the finest places in this part of the state.

In the next room in the same building J. B. Chambers will have the Gun Store, and in the third room will be the Home Realty company's office and the Bradley Harness shop.

The offices in the Odd Fellows' temple are already being leased, and the following men will occupy a few of the suites: Mr. Shumway will have a suite of two rooms; Dr. Truax two rooms, C. M. O'Neill three rooms, Noland & Chapman three rooms, and R. E. Wattenburg two rooms. The other rooms on this floor will probably be leased before the building is completed.

The east hall on the third floor of the temple will be occupied exclusively by the different lodges of Odd Fellows. The west hall has already been leased to the following orders: The Knights of Pythias, Pythian Sisters, Woodmen of the World and the Women of Woodcraft.

Every building that has been erected has been promptly filled by a desirable class of tenants, and have been paying ventures from the start.

A Natural Curiosity

Little John's grandfather died, and he was taken along to the funeral. A short time after this, being very naughty, I tried to frighten him by saying:

"John, if you don't try to be a good little boy, you will die and then they will put you in a hole like they did grandpa."

"Oh, said Johnny, 'I don't care. I always wanted to see what grandpa was doing down there, anyhow.'"
