

COUNTERFEITER SAYS HE IS GUILTY

MAN CAUGHT HERE PROVES TO BE OLD OFFENDER

DISCHARGED FROM PEN IN AUGUST

Had Been Sent to the Federal Prison
At Fort Leavenworth For a Similar Offense

Identified by Secret Service Agent Connell as George H. Hamilton, a notorious Eastern counterfeiter, the leader of the Klamath Falls duo Sunday confessed to his criminal record and announced his intention of pleading guilty to the charges against him, says the Portland Oregonian. He was arrested by the City Marshal of Klamath Falls and brought to Portland by United States Deputy Marshal Hammersly.

The prisoner was known as Geo. Duffy while making a passing spurious coins in the vicinity of Klamath Falls and was accompanied by Mike Regan, an 18 year-old lad from St. Louis.

Hamilton maintained his innocence until confronted by the Secret Service officer, who halted the prisoner by his right name and asked him when he was let out of Leavenworth Prison.

Hamilton was sent to prison from Peru, Ind., in 1908, after being convicted of making and passing counterfeit money, and was discharged from the prison last August. He immediately came to the Coast, and after attempting to get started again at San Francisco he engaged Regan to help in circulating the coins. They chose Klamath Falls as their field of operations and used their room for preparing molds for both halves and dollars. Their equipment was seized by the officers, together with 38 pieces of bad money.

"It seems to be an impossibility for counterfeiters to refrain from working at the business," said Mr. Connell yesterday. "As soon as they get out of prison they hunt up a field which to their understanding appears to be safe for circulating the money, buy a quarter's worth of plaster of Paris and get to work." We knew that Hamilton had come to the Coast, and I was morally certain he had gone back to work as soon as I heard of the case. The officers of Klamath Falls performed a creditable piece of work in capturing the man."

The man and his youthful accomplice were captured by Chief of Police Townsend and Officers Walker and Hall a few weeks ago at the Masten house where the two had rooms. While Deputy United States Marshal Hammersly, who took the two to Portland, was here he told a Herald reporter that the older man was an old hand at the business, the skill shown in making the mold and perfectness of the coins manufactured proving that. The confession of the crook has proven that Marshal Hammersly knew what he was talking about and that he is a shrewd judge of men and their work.

WANT LANE KEPT ON INTERSTATE BOARD

Shippers Protest Against the Advance of the Californian to the Commerce Court

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Protests have arisen against the suggested elevation of Interstate Commissioner Franklin K. Lane to the Circuit bench as a Commerce Court appointee. The demand is that he shall remain where he is. In other words his distinguished work as Commissioner is proving a barrier to promotion.

Lane's attitude against the railroads in their efforts to increase rates is the immediate cause of the protest. The Commission, is generally regarded as about evenly divided as to the raising of freight schedules. Knapp, Harlan and Cockrell are credited with strong inclinations toward the railroad view, while Clements, Prouty and Lane are opposed. Clark remains to turn the balance.

It has been reported that both Prouty and Lane were to become members of the Commerce Court and those interested in the fight against the railroads' claims are objecting to such a weakening of the Commission as regards their side of the fight.
