WILL CELEBRATE CENTENARY ELECT NEW CONGRESSMAN

MEMORY OF JESSE APPLIGATE TO BE OBSERVED

Department of History at State University Preparing Work on the Great Pioneer

EUGENE, Feb. 2.—It may not be generally known that the year 1911 is the one hundredth anniversary of one of Oregon's noblest pioneers, Jesse Applegate. The Department of History at the university is preparing to take proper notice of the anniversary.

Mr. Applegate came to Oregon from Missouri, in company with his two older brothers, Charles and Lindsey, in 1843, settling in what was then Yamhill county, but now Polk county. He died at Yoncalla, in Douglas county, where he had resided most of the time since 1849, in the year 1888. He is noteworthy as one of the ablest men Oregon has ever had, and as a disinterested, public spirited citizen, whose influence upon public affairs was frequently very great.

Recent researches in the manuscript archives at Salem have shown that Applegate was the real founder of the reorganized provisional government adopted in 1845, that he drew most of the important laws passed by the legislative committee of that year, as well as the memorial to the United States congress, and that he was instrumental in persuading the Hudson Bay company to take shelter under the provisional government. Some of the documents revealing his agency in these significant matters have recently been unearthed in the Public Record office of Great Britain, at London, by a professor of the university.

The contemplated publication will contain first, a unique portrait of the pioneer statesman; second, a biographical sketch of his life and services; third, Applegate's "Views of Oregon History," an extended commentary on affairs in the early days of Oregon, written by Mr. Applegate late in life, for the benefit of those who should write the history of Oregon.

EBERLEIN WILL ARRIVE SHORTLY

DIKE WALL TO SERVE FOR A DOUBLE PURPOSE

Work on Enterprise Tracts Will Commence as Soon as Weather Permits Activities

Charles W. Eberlein, one of the principal owners of the Enterprise tract near this city, writes from New York city under date of January 30th that he expects to return to Klamath Falls during the fore part of this month. He and his associates will then prepare for their building operations, which will begin as soon as the weather permits.

It is the intention of the owners of the Enterprise tracts to build a wall along the bank of Lake Ewauna, and by using drainage ditches, to drain off an area of marshy land, which will be divided into tracts. The wall, which will be constructed of concrete, stone, etc., will follow the east shore of Lake Ewauna the full distance of the Enterprise tracts.

The top of the wall will be of sufficient width for use as a driveway, and when completed will afford one of the beautiful drives to be found in this section, as the lake will be in full view all the time. There is a possibility that a driveway may be built nearly the full length of the east shore of the lake, but nothing definite will be done about this until Mr. Eberlein and his associates more fully outline their plans.

RACE WAR IN THE UTAH COAL MINING DISTRICT

Police on Way to Quell the Disturbance Which Has Caused Several Deaths

SALT LAKE, Feb. 7.—A few men were killed at Kennidorth coal mining camp, seventy miles south of here, in a race riot between Americans and Greeks, Austrians and other foreigners. Forty police officers, heavily armed, have left for the scene of the trouble, where the fighting is said to be still going on.

CENSUS INCREASE GIVES STATE MORE REPRESENTATION

Until Legislature Can Define New District State at Large Will Vote for First Term

PORTLAND, Feb. 7.—From present indications Oregon's third congressman will be elected by the state at large for the first term, as it is very unlikely that the legislature, at its present session, will take any steps toward creating a new congressional district.

There has been some talk of whether it would be advisable to hold a special session in order to take up this subject, but Governor West does not see any such necessity. He declares that Oregon can get along very well by choosing a congressman from the state as a whole until the next session of the legislature is held.

Should there be necessity for a special session for any other purpose, however, this is one of the matters which would be taken up.

Oregon would receive a third congressman under any of the plans proposed in Washington. The reapportionment bill presented by Campbell of Kansas, provides for one congressman for every 237,000 persons and a major fraction thereof. Oregon was given 672,7675 under the recent census, and comes well within the Campbell provisions. This bill leaves the number of congressmen as it is at present, 391, and was indorsed in the republican caucus held in Washington on Thursday. The working out of the details of the scheme was left to the census committee.

There has been considerable discussion as to whether Oregon should be able to take advantage of the allotment of a third congressman unless action was taken by the legislature at this session or at special session to be held prior to the next congressional election. F. W. Mulkey, former United States senator, declares that congress will probably take action which will permit the state to choose its third congressman at large until the legislature can agree upon the re-districting of the state.

Action by the lawmakers of the state, however, is impossible. The desks are now piled high with work and most of the solons believe that they have all and more than they need to occupy their attention, and that it will be necessary to use altogether too much haste in handling the bills now on hand or to be presented without adding more work.

Multnomah county will probably have a congressional district within its limits when the action is taken. It is also proposed to give Eastern Oregon a congressman and Western Oregon, outside of Multnomah county, another. There has been also a proposal to include Clatsop and Columbia counties with Eastern Oregon, in order to make the division more equitable.

FURNITURE COMPANY WILL OPEN UNDERTAKING PARLOR

A new departure is being made by the Willis Furniture company, and in a short time the company will own one of the most complete and up-to-date undertaking establishments in the state, outside of Portland. An order has been placed for everything necessary, and the equipment and stock, it is expected, will be here within ten days. The order includes a hearse and ambulance, these two items alone costing $2,600.

An undertaker fully instructed and capable in all of the latest methods, will be in charge of the establishment, and he will be assisted by E. R. Willis, who has practiced this profession extensively.

Since coming to this city less than a year ago, the company has tried to please all of their customers all of the time, and this fact has increased their business to a great extent and gained them new friends.

PANTORIUM AND PAINT STORE CHANGE LOCATIONS

The Pantorium has moved to a permanent home in the Jensen building, opposite the Baldwin Hotel. F. C. Bamber, who conducted a paint store in this location, has moved to the quarters opposite the courthouse just vacated by the Bradley Harness company.

Klamath Falls, Like Every City and Town in the Union, Receives It.

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies to-day that relieve but do not cure. Here is evidence to prove that Doan's Kidney Pills cure, and the cure is lasting.

Mrs. C. H. Hoxie, Fir St., Medford, Ore., says: "I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills in 1907, after they had benefited me and now I am pleased to speak in their favor again. I had kidney trouble for several years and the backache grew worse as time passed. If I attempted to stoop or move quickly sharp twinges darted through my loins and hips and sometimes I was lame for days. The kidney secretions passed far too frequently and I also noticed sediment in them when they were allowed to stand. My health ran down and I was feeling miserable at the time I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills. They helped me from the first although other remedies had proven useless and as I continued taking them, I steadily grew better until not one symptom of my old trouble remained."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

BOX FACTORY AT MT. HEBRON

CAPITALISTS LOOKING FOR INDUCEMENTS

P. C. Lavey & Co., the Real Estate Firm, Agrees to Give a Suitable Site Free

Another industry is to be added at Mount Hebron, in all probabilities, for negotiations are being made toward the starting of a box factory there. Already those interested in the move are working to secure a possible site in a good location, and the real estate firm of P. C. Lavey & Co. has offered to give them, free of charge, a fine piece of property adjacent to the railroad.

The work of ascertaining what inducements in the way of lumber the sawmills in the vicinity of Mount Hebron would be willing to give the new concern has not been taken up as yet, and the question of deciding upon Mount Hebron as a location will depend to a certain extent upon their action.
