

DELEGATES HOME FROM G. A. R. MEET

VETERANS AND RELIEF CORPS MEMBERS REPORT A SPLENDID TIME AT THE STATE ENCAMPMENT AT ASHLAND

Post Commander Andrew Kerschner and E. B. Ramsay of Sprague Post G. A. R., and Mrs. E. B. Ramsay and Mrs. Edith Bogardus of Sprague Chapter, Women's Relief Corps, returned to this city by automobile Saturday night from Ashland, where they attended the State Grand Army encampment as delegates from the local branches. O. A. Stearns, the other delegate, is making the trip on horseback.

All of the delegates report a royal time, and are loud in their praises of the treatment accorded them by the people of Ashland. There were 206 veterans in attendance, and just as many members of the Relief Corps, and all were in a most jovial mood. Many were the meetings of friends who had not seen each other for a number of years, and reminiscences of encounters and engagements during the four years of strife also added much interest to the gathering.

Mr. Kerschner of this city was honored by being elected an alternate to the national encampment of the Grand Army, which will be held next month in Rochester, N. Y. Martin Ramsby, E. B.'s grandson, was at Ashland with his grandparents, and enjoyed the encampment immensely.

COLONIZATION AGENT ARRIVES

The Union Pacific's Bohemian Colonization agent for Oregon and California, L. W. Dongres, was in this city for the purpose of making efforts to bring more people to this section. At present he is looking into the advisability of organizing the Southern Oregon Colonization company, consisting of locators and real estate agents in Klamath and Lake counties in Oregon and Modoc and Siskiyou counties in California.

The object of this organization is to list all lands in the territory embraced, so that prospective settlers will be able to ascertain without loss of time just where the kind of land they want is located and so they can proceed to that locality upon their arrival. Mr. Dongres states that he has been instructed by his company to thoroughly investigate the lands along the route of the new Modoc Northern Railway, which travels through a fertile stretch of territory between Alturas and Merrill.

Dongres expects to complete this investigation by July 15th at the latest, and upon his return to Klamath Falls will open an office here, which will be the headquarters of the Southern Oregon Colonization company, and from here will be sent out literature printed in both English and foreign languages. In this way they hope not only to reach the Bohemians, but farmers of other nationalities as well as American farmers from the Middle West.

There are now a number of Bohemians in this section, and their settlement at Malin, near Merrill, is a most prosperous community. The people are thrifty and intelligent, and are farmers of the most desirable type.

FIRST EXCURSION TO KLAMATH FALLS ON 15TH

An excursion to Klamath Falls from Chiloquin is announced for July 15th. This will be the first excursion on the new road, and a very low rate is being made. Mr. Ferguson, one of the men in charge of the big benefit vaudeville performance in Klamath Falls on this night, believes that $1 will pay the fare to this city and return, as well as admit one to the big show.

Ferguson writes from Chiloquin that 300 tickets are already guaranteed, and that if the enthusiasm holds out at least 500 people will visit Klamath Falls on that evening. Arrangements are being made with the Silver Lake Commercial Club, and a large delegation is expected from that quarter, as well as from Yainax on the Sprague River and all parts of the Indian Reservation.

The steamer Winema has been chartered to carry passengers from the Port and Agency, while the steamer Klamath will carry a load from Rocky Point and other lake ports.

ASIATIC CHOLERA SCARE IN ALBANY

ALBANY, N. Y., July 1.—Asiatic cholera has appeared here. Tomaso Birardi, an Italian immigrant, who arrived here three weeks ago, died this morning at a lodging house from cholera. He was taken ill yesterday. The police immediately surrounded the house and the state health board has been advised. Birardi's effects have been burned and the sixteen inmates of the house exposed to the disease have been quarantined.

ARLICH RECEIVED HIS INDETERMINATE SENTENCE

Otto Arlich, who was convicted of robbing Pelican Lodge, the summer residence of E. H. Harriman on Upper Klamath Lake last May, was Saturday given an indeterminate sentence of from two to five years in the penitentiary. On account of a new law, which went into effect recently, all prisoners sent to the penitentiary are given indeterminate sentences, and the governor of the state pardons them whenever he thinks they deserve it, or allows them to remain the full length of their sentence.
