Your Industrial Letter to Republican Will Greatly Assist the County's Development.

(C. Peebles Blanton)

We have written personal letters to many of our representative citizens requesting them to write something upon the many interesting resources of which Klamath Falls and the county are so generously possessed, and when the letters are published in the Industrial pages of the Republican, and read by many who are contemplating moving to a new home "out West" they will be greatly interested in learning what our "home folks" think of this town and county, and what they can accomplish here.

We urge the citizens to respond promptly, and get up these letters. It requires but a few moments to do so and there is nothing along the line of publicity which does so much good and costs so little. We are starting our industrial department this week, and from now on continually each week the Republican will be reaching more people who are eager to learn all about the Klamath country, and as these people become acquainted with our county they will begin to take an interest in the many good things they will find in Klamath county, just through reading them in the Republican, and very soon new people will begin to come here.

No one is charged anything for publishing these industrial letters. It is a fine plan to engender community interest, so send along the letters and we will start publishing them in the next issue of the Republican, which is now being mailed to many "home and farm seekers" throughout the East.

Let's all get together and help each other to bring these people to Klamath county, these people who want to come "West somewhere."

Ship Me Somewhere
L'Estrange

Ship me somewhere west of Kansas, where the earth's not crowded so. Where they have about four people to each square mile or so; Where the atmosphere's been washed and dried and ironed so smooth and fine. That it seems a happy foretaste of some elixir divine.

For I'm sick of all these people, swarming, sweltering to and fro, Sick of twenty storied scrapers, and the stony streets below; About this time each year it comes, that longing back to me For those spaces west of Kansas, where they stretch out wide and free.

Oh, I love the locomotive, when her head is pointed West, And her wheels are swift revolving, It is then I love her best; Past the lake front at Chicago, corn-fields rich of old "Mizzoo," Past the bluffs at Kansas City, westward portals rolling through.

When my long day's work is over, and I toil and mull no more, Don't plant me in the sodden earth upon this foggy shore; Ship me somewhere west of Kansas, where the great plains onward sweep— 'Neath the shadows of the Rockies it is still, and I shall sleep.

Miles Standish, a prominent lumberman of San Francisco, and his son A. M. Standish and Griffin Bungers returned Sunday from an outing at Spring Creek, on their way home.

CHILOQUIN TRIP ENJOYED BY MANY

FIRST EXCURSION GIVEN BY THE ESPEE DRAWS OUT A LARGE CROWD, AND ALL REPORT A FINE TIME

The first excursion given by the Southern Pacific to Chiloquin Sunday was a decided success. About 125 passengers left here on the special train at 8:30 and spent a most delightful day fishing tramping and enjoying the shade of timber near the new terminus of the railroad. Quite a number of the excursionists formed parties and took along their dinner. Picnic parties could be seen scattered all over the grounds, while many spent the day in fishing in Williamson and Sprague Rivers, which meet at this point.

The country around Chiloquin is ideal for picnics, and as the trip by train is made in about an hour, plenty of time remains to enjoy a good rest in the shade or fishing in the rivers. The hotel is running, and accommodated all those who did not take along their own lunches.

FAIR OFFICIALS THANK EBERLEIN

WITH THE ATTRACTIVE PREMIUM OFFERS HE MAKES AS AN INCENTIVE, FARMERS SHOULD GET BUSY

Editor Herald—

Through your columns allow me to express, in behalf of the Klamath County Agricultural Association, the sincere thanks of that body to Mr. Charles W. Eberlein for his generous donation toward the agricultural and horticultural departments of our fair. His gift of $100 for prizes for fruits and vegetables will be a great inducement to the farmers of the county, and we take great pleasure in accepting it.

Through Mr. Eberlein's kindness, our premium list now looks better than ever to the farmers, and we sincerely hope that they will not be slow in sending in displays of the finest they have grown. Not only are the prizes well worth competing for, but the farmers of the county are given an opportunity to show to the world just what the county will do. The fame of Klamath county has spread all over the United States, and with the government system well under way people are beginning to look for the county to make a showing. Why not do it now?

The agricultural department of the fair this year will be in the efficient hands of C. T. Oliver, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Like the members of the fair association, Mr. Oliver is working might and main for a successful fair, and any communications or inquiries regarding the agricultural show sent to him will be promptly answered.

Again thanking Mr. Eberlein, I remain, respectfully yours,
B. ST. GEO. BISHOP,
President Klamath County Agricultural Society.

MODOC NORTHERN REPORT CURRENT

HAY BUYERS IN THE KLAMATH BASIN MAKE MANY THINK THE ROAD IS COMING—THIS HAS NOT BEEN VERIFIED

The report has been generally circulated on the streets that parties have been through the Klamath Basin between Klamath Falls and Merrill, buying up a considerable quantity of hay. It was the belief that hay was being secured for use by contractors on the Modoc Northern railroad, and that work on this road was to commence early in September.

After a careful investigation this report cannot be verified, and many of the heavy hay growers of the Valley stated today that they did not believe there was anything in the report. Some contracts for hay have been made already, but most of it is for cattle feeding.

The Opportunities Offered At Home Are Usually Safest

For young people starting out in life because you are dealing with facts and people you know. Of course, these opportunities don't come to you with the blare of trumpets, because such procedure wouldn't deceive you in things you know about, but the opportunities are here just the same. One of the safest and biggest profit saving investments any young couple could make today would be a home. Money spent that way in fixed values can always be realized, and the comfort and happiness derived therefrom can not be measured in dollars and cents.

Better decide today to anchor here and join the ranks of the homebuilders and tomorrow your chest will measure six inches larger—the possession of a home works wonders—try it. Our stock of lumber is complete and we want to talk it over with you.
