♦ MRS. JONAS NORIN, LAKEVIEW	165,515 ♦
♦ MISS ANNA A. POMPHIL	157,585 ♦
♦ MRS. E. M. LEWIS	127,330 ♦
♦ MRS. JOHN HESSIG, PORT KLAMATH	121,735 ♦
♦ MISS GLADYS HORN, BONANZA	64,220 ♦

Following are the rules that all candidates must strictly adhere to for the closing of this contest:

These rules are advertised one week ahead in order that all the candidates and their friends may study them. If there is anything that is not perfectly plain the candidates and their friends are requested to notify the contest editor at once, in order that it may be made clear.

After the ballots are counted by the contest editor on Thursday afternoon, September 21st, at 5 o'clock, the lock on the ballot box will be broken and sealed and the keys of the box will be turned over to the judges at that time in the Herald office, and the box will not be opened again until the judges open it for the final count. This assures every candidate in the race that the votes she casts after 5 p. m. on Thursday evening will be polled with absolute secrecy to herself.

The box will remain in the office of the Herald until Saturday evening, September 23d, at 10 o'clock. Any subscriptions that the candidates may have to turn into the contest department on the last night must be put in a sealed envelope accompanied by the correct amount of money and handed to the contest editor before 10 p. m. Immediately after 10 p. m. Saturday night the contest editor will open the envelopes and make out the ballots for the amount of subscriptions contained in each candidate's envelope, and present these ballots to the respective candidates. The candidates will then be obliged to poll all the ballots they may have, and the judges will then seal the slot of the ballot box.

Under no consideration will any subscriptions be received after 10 p. m. Saturday night. This assures the candidate that the amount of subscriptions which they turn in on the last night will be unknown even to the contest editor until after the contest is over at 10 p. m. sharp.

Out-of-Town Candidates
Out-of-town candidates will be given the same length of time to get their subscriptions into the postoffice as Klamath Falls candidates are given to get theirs into the hands of the contest editor.

Therefore, all out-of-town candidates must get their subscriptions in sealed envelopes into their respective postoffices before 10 p. m. Saturday night, and the postmark on the envelope must bear witness that the same was placed in the mail before 10 p. m. Saturday night.

Mail from the furthestmost districts which boundaries in the rules of the contest have been mentioned, viz.: Klamath, Lake and Siskiyou counties, should arrive here not later than 7:30 p. m. on Monday night, September 25th. This mail will then be opened in the presence of the judges and the ballots made out for whatever subscriptions the envelopes contain. As soon as these ballots are made out the judges will be handed these ballots to poll. They will then tear off the seal and deposit the ballots.

The count will then commence to decide the winner. The first count that will be made will be that to determine the winners of the special ballots that are being offered to the candidates who turn in the greatest number of yearly subscriptions as explained in the opposite columns. These ballots will be marked "special," and any such ballots given to you must not be polled in the ballot box until after 5 p. m. Thursday evening.

The judges will then be ready to make the final count. One of the judges will call the amount of the ballots, two of the judges will verify the amount he has called, and the other two judges will tally. The ballots will then be recounted on the adding machine, and before any decision is made all three tallies will have to be identically the same.

Each candidate in the contest will have the privilege of selecting a representative to look after her interests while the count is going on. The counting of the ballots is a public affair, and the candidates are requested to have all their friends witness the final count.

The judges who will decide the winner of the greatest popular voting contest ever carried on in this section of the state were carefully selected, and a glance at the following names, we are sure, will meet the approval of all:

MAYOR E. P. SANDERSON,
JUDGE H. L. BENSON,
ALEX MARTIN, JR.,
F. L. HOUSTON,
E. W. VANNICE.

After all the ballots have been counted and everything has been approved to the satisfaction of the representatives and the judges, the name of the winner will be announced and the big $1,560 Buick car will be placed in the hands of the candidate who has polled the largest number of votes during the Herald-Republican's merry campaign.

GOOD ROADS COMMISSION PUTS SEVERAL TENTATIVE PROPOSITIONS UP TO GOVERNOR WHO APPOINTED IT

Special to The Herald
PORTLAND, Sept. 19.—A special session of the legislature to enact good roads bills was recommended by Governor West's commission, named some time ago to outline needed laws on this subject.

Four bills were recommended by the commission for passage into law. One is an act establishing a state highway department and appointing a state highway commissioner. This official must be a skilled road engineer, and will be named by the governor. All roads built by state aid will be under his supervision.

Another bill provides for the establishment of a state highway fund, making provision for an annual levy for the purpose, which will be supplemented by a portion of license taxes.

A third proposed measure would provide for construction of state-aid roads out of the state highway fund. Whether the maintenance was debated.

The fourth bill would enable counties under state constitutional provision to issue bonds for prosecution of road work, upon a special election being called by the county court upon petition of 10 per cent of the voters of the county.

He says the sheep are not lost, but he don't know about the herders.

COLLEGE BOYS ARE IN DEMAND

O. A. C. GRADUATES RECEIVE FINE APPOINTMENTS AT HOME AND ABROAD THIS YEAR—SOME INSTANCES.

Special to The Herald
CORVALLIS, Sept. 20.—The big demand for college graduates in all sorts of positions is well indicated by the number of O. A. C. men who have been called to important positions since leaving college.

Max Adams of Seio, '10, who has been teaching agriculture and manual training in a high school at Davenport, Wash., has been made assistant in astronomy at his alma mater, succeeding Henry A. Hoyt of Garrettford, Pa., who goes to the University of Arizona for similar work.

DEMAND ACCESS TO LAW COURTS

THE PUBLIC LANDS CONVENTION
SEEK IT FOR SETTLEMENT OF
ALL QUESTIONS ON DEPARTMENT REGULATION

It is generally believed that suit cannot be brought against the government. Nevertheless it is provided that in matters pertaining to the patent office and also in customs duties, appeals can be taken to the courts.

The public lands convention will bring up the question of "The Demand for Access to the Courts Upon All Questions Arising From Department Regulations Pertaining to the Public Domain." The subject will be presented to E. A. Lane of San Francisco.

In these times, when the Washington bureaus are engaging in so many government pursuits and prescribing rules, regulations, etc., governing the affairs of our Western people, this topic will undoubtedly develop some interesting features.

The right of appeal to the courts is quite an Americanism, and that a decision by a government agent must be final is not altogether satisfying.

MRS. NAPIER, SUED FOR DIVORCE, ASKS ALIMONY

Another step in the divorce case of Attorney L. M. Napier against Mrs. Napier was taken in the circuit court Wednesday before Judge Benson, when Attorney George Noland appeared with the defendant and her two little girls and asked the court to order the payment of $2,000 to the defendant as alimony and expenses.

The question was raised as to whether Napier has been a resident of the state of Oregon for a year past, which would enable him to bring and carry through a divorce action.

If he has not been a resident of the state for this length of time—and Mrs. Napier claims that he has not—then he is not entitled to bring a suit for divorce in this state, as the law requires residence of one year by anyone wanting to sue for such a legal separation.

But Judge Noland stated to the court that owing to the fact that Napier, in his bill of complaint, alleged that he had been a resident of the state for a year prior to the commencement of the action, the point was not demurrable at this time, and could only be brought up in the case when it comes to trial.

Judge Benson took the papers in the case and ordered that files of the matter previous to the recent development be placed in his hands so that he might consider the matter thoroughly. He will give a decision later.

COURTNEY'S CONTEMPT SENTENCE SUSPENDED

Samuel L. Courtney, adjudged in contempt of the circuit court for disobeying an order not to take his son, Clarence Vernon Courtney, aged 8 years, out of Klamath county, pending the divorce suit brought against the father by his wife Mrs. Pearl M. Courtney, appeared in court Tuesday morning with the lad.

On Tuesday last Courtney had appeared in answer to contempt proceedings instituted by Attorney C. C. Brower, who represented the wife in the divorce issue.

Judge Henry L. Benson, finding that Courtney had taken the child to its uncle's home at Spring brook, four miles from Newburg, Ore., ordered that the child be brought into court this morning by the father, and he would then announce the court's decision.

Courtney went to Springbrook, got the boy and brought him back to Klamath Falls, appearing in court with him this morning, as ordered by the court.

Judge Benson suspended sentence in the matter during Courtney's good behavior.

A new sidewalk is being put along Main street in front of the Central Grammar school.
