

Klamath Farms Pay; R. C. Short Proves It

Linsy Sisemore Sells 100 Acres Of Land Near City For $90 Per Acre. Crops Brings Good Returns.

A real estate deal was consummated Tuesday which illustrates the value of farm lands in the Klamath country. It was the sale of 100 acres of land near the Wilson bridge, and about eight miles from this city, by Linsy Sisemore to R. C. Short for $90 an acre.

Mr. Short had rented the property, formerly a part of the old Melhase ranch, and it was after careful consideration of his profits that he made the purchase. After paying $385 for water rent, $50 for taxes, and allowing $750 for interest on the investment, Mr. Short found that his crop netted him $1,563, selling oats at $1.39 per hundred weight.

DUGAN TELLS OF ACTS OF UNION HIGH OFFICERS

PURPOSE OF CHANGE OF NAMES IS DIVULGED

McNamara Told a Story of Having Been Sued by the Erectors Association, According to Witness—District Attorney Jerome of New York Took Part in Dynamite Investigations in Past

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 20.—Patrick Dugan, a former member of the local ironworkers union, resumed the stand this morning at the trial of the labor leaders who are charged with the illegal transportation of dynamite.

He testified that John McNamara had told that the erectors association had sued him. President Ryan ordered him to deposit the union's money under the name of G. W. Clark to hide his identity. The witness identified a bankbook which the government produced.

The witness testified that in May, 1907, John McNamara had declared that District Attorney Jerome had summoned Ryan regarding dynamite outrages in the East. He swore that in 1908 he heard Hockin at union headquarters discuss the Detroit dynamite outrages.

PRACTICE GAME IS ENCOURAGING

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM WILL BE IN GOOD SHAPE FOR THE FORTH- COMING GAME WITH TEAM OF TOWN BOYS

A hard football practice was held this afternoon by the high school team. The boys are rounding into shape nicely, and they claim they will make it interesting for the town team.

The practice this afternoon was devoted largely to formations and signals, and both worked smoothly. The practice was by far the best held yet.

and this was possible on account of a stirring little talk that Mr. McCall, the coach, made to the boys this morning.

Meanwhile the town boys are practicing regularly, and are learning many of the fine points of the game. The matched game will take place on Thanksgiving Day, and is scheduled to start at 2:30.

Those who are looking for a berth on the high school team are Edwin Cox, Forrest Peil, Robert Riggs, Ernest Nall, Louis McClure, Hardin Carter, Leon Boilier, Theo. Case, Joe Skelton, Roy Orem, Leland Haines, Henry Stanley and Harold Fees.

Spanish Grafters Appeal to Man Dead About a Year

Letter Offering Opportunity to Make a Fortune is Sent Here Addressed to M. W. Espy. The Form of the Letter is Sterotyped and Presents Appearance

Spanish grafters don't keep well posted on the vital statistics of their intended victims. This was demonstrated by the receipt here of a letter addressed to M. W. Espy, who died here about a year ago. The letter is of the stereotyped form used by the men who have for years been flooding the United States with the appeals for help, holding out the bait of a fortune.

The letter follows:

"M. W. Espy, Esq., Soda Water Manufacturer, Klamath Falls, Ore.:

"Dear Sir—I know you only from good reference of your honesty. My sad situation compels me to reveal to you an important affair in which you can procure a modest fortune, saving at the same time that of my darling daughter. Before being imprisoned here I was established as a banker in Russia, as you will see by the enclosed article about me of many English newspapers which have published my arrest in London.

"I beseech you to help me to obtain a sum of $80,000 dollars—to come here to raise the seizure of my baggage, paying to the registrar of the court the expenses of my trial and recover my portmanteau, indispensable to recover the said sum. As a reward I will give up to you the third part, viz.: 160,000 dollars.

"I cannot receive your answer in the prison but you must send a cablegram to a person of my confidence, who will deliver it to me.

"Awaiting your cable to instruct you in secret, I am sir, yours truly,

"First of all answer by cable, not by letter as follows:

"Senor Lueipo,
"Mendez Alvaro 29,
"Madrid, Spain."

The newspaper clipping follows:
ARREST OF A ST. PETERSBURG BANKER
CHARGED WITH FRAUD IN RUSSIA AND MANSLAUGHTER IN SPAIN
INTERVIEW OF THE TWO AMBASSADORS

Some months ago, as our readers may remember, we referred in these columns to the great scandal caused in St. Petersburg, and in Russia generally, by a noted banker, who absconded, leaving a deficit of over five million rubles.

Yesterday, however, a Spanish Inspector accompanied by two officers from Scotland Yard, and acting under instructions of the Spanish Ambassador, who had previously interviewed the home secretary arrested him on his way from the hotel where he was staying, to the steamship office. It seems that it was his evident intention to take passage for New York. From information received by the ambassador, he had been in hiding in Spain, where he lived with a woman and with his daughter. A few days before arriving in London he had quarreled with another Russian, who was mortally wounded by a revolver shot during the scuffle, and who only lived long enough to denounce his assailant.

In an interview with the Russian ambassador, it seems that the name he had been using in Spain, and which he gave on being arrested was not his real one, Manasseina being simply an alibi, but after comparing the prisoner with photographs in his possession, the Russian ambassador recognized him as Alexis Ivanomitch, the criminal banker who eloped with five millions of rubles; he is a native of St. Petersburg, a widower, 43 years old, with an only daughter, that he left in Spain on escaping from that country.

On being arrested two of Manasseina's or Alexis Ivanovitch portmanteaus were seized, but although strictly searched nothing but personal effects were found in them, in spite of which the Russian ambassador declares that the prisoner ought to have several million rubles somewhere.

The Russian and Spanish ambassadors conferred yesterday evening as to whether the prisoner should be conveyed to Spain or to Russia, and after an interview with the home secretary, and in accordance with the extradition treaty of England, Russia and Spain, it was agreed that the prisoner should be conveyed to Spain to stand his trial for manslaughter, and that only after his trial can the Russian government ask Spain, through diplomatic channels, for his extradition.
