

EUROPEAN WAR IS AVERTED

BULGARIA CLOSING DEFINITE PACT WITH AUSTRIA

Servia to Get Adriatic Seaport and Railroad From Mitrovitz to Salonika, According to Statement Made by President Danoff of the Bulgarian Parliament—Cholera Adds to Horrors of War

LONDON, Nov. 15.—It is authoritatively stated that President Danoff of the Bulgarian parliament has closed a definite agreement with Austria, whereby Servia gets an Adriatic seaport and the railroad from Mitrovitz to Salonika. This practically kills any chance of European war.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Turkey and Bulgaria have definitely agreed to an armistice, according to a Central News Agency message received here from Sofia, via Bucharest. This report cannot be confirmed.

Bulgaria Wants Constantinople

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 15.—The ambassadors of the Powers have told the Porte that they will have to consult the other allies, as Bulgaria alone cannot grant an armistice. This is interpreted as indicating that Bulgaria is determined to occupy Constantinople.

Bulgarians Continue to Advance

BUDAPEST, Nov. 15.—The Bulgarians continue to advance, regardless of the peace negotiations in progress. It is reported that the vanguard has reached Kilios, the Black Sea entrance to the Bosphorus, with the main force within Chatalja, and the lines still advancing. The occupation of Constantinople is believed to be inevitable, as the Ottomans are putting up a very weak defense.

Will Attack Monastir

BELGRADE, Nov. 15.—The Serbian vanguard captured Debramira, five miles from Monastir. As soon as the main body of the army arrives an attack will be made on Monastir.

Ferdinand Would Be Czar

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—It is predicted there will be serious trouble among the allies at Belgrade and Athens, as it is sure that Ferdinand intends to proclaim himself Czar of the Balkans, and it is intimated that they will resist unyieldingly.

Cholera Among Troops

CONSTANZA, Nov. 15.—Reports from Constantinople state that there are 7,000 cases of cholera among the troops defending Chatalja.

SOFIA, Nov. 15.—It is officially stated that the proposed armistice is unsigned, but is ready for the approval of Czar Ferdinand. Until the allies sign the Bulgarians will continue hostilities.

It is reported that the terms include Bulgarian possession of Constantinople and the Serbian occupation of Monastir; the Greek's possession of Janina and the Montenegrin's occupation of Scutari. When peace is concluded the allies propose to insist on the retention of all the territory occupied, the internationalization of Constantinople and Salonika, the opening of the Dardanelles, a big war indemnity and the complete retirement of the sultan from European affairs.

WEST BACKS TEAL FOR POSITION IN CABINET

SALEM, Nov. 16.—Governor West has announced that he will support Joseph N. Teal of Portland for the position of secretary of the interior, and that he will urge President-elect Woodrow Wilson to appoint him.

"I regard him as the best material available in the United States for this office," declared the governor in making the announcement. While it made friends of Teal in this city jubilant, the declaration came as a surprise to many democrats here, who have been booming Will R. King, former justice of the supreme court, for the place, as they had believed the governor would support him.

Incidentally the governor took occasion to state that he would support Senator Chamberlain for re-election, and to declare that he would not be a ate the statement that he will not be candidate for any appointment which Wilson might give him, and to reiterate a candidate for any state office.

"The things that I would like to have under the federal administration I cannot secure," declared the governor, "and the things that I might be able to secure I do not want. And that reminds me that there is another loophole that I might as well plug up now. It has been suggested that, should Chamberlain receive a federal appointment, I would resign as governor and accept appointment as United States senator from Secretary of State Olcott, who would in such event automatically become the governor. Should Chamberlain receive any federal appointment the people will find me continuing to occupy the governor's chair."

USE OF ELECTRICITY INCREASES IN CITY

The Fall Creek line of the Oregon-California Power company was tied Thursday to the Klamath Falls plant, thereby connecting all of the power plants of the company in Oregon and California. Hereafter there will be no possibility of Klamath Falls being without lights or power for a moment on account of any accident to the local plant, as the entire load can immediately be switched to the main power line.

The Fall Creek plant had already been connected with the plants at Prospect and Gold Ray, and a large force of men have been busy the past summer building a high tension transmission line to connect up the Klamath Falls plant.

According to F. B. Bremer, electrical superintendent of the Klamath division, the use of electricity has increased at a very rapid rate during the past year, until now practically the full capacity of the local plant has been reached. The connections with the other plants will give an additional 1,200 horse power. A new 35-horsepower motor has just been installed in the box factory of the Klamath Manufacturing company at Shippington, and it is predicted that the coming year will see a large number of new factories started in Klamath Falls which will use electricity for power.

SEWING MACHINES IN THE HOME OF ORIENTAL RUGS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—How Arabian women in far-off Aden are using the same sewing machines in universal vogue in America is the unique "Arabian Nights" tale recited to the state department by Consul Walter H. Schultz of Aden. He says there are 1,500 sewing machines in use in Aden, the home of Oriental rugs. Many of these are supplied by German manufacturers, and the American make shipped from branch houses of American exporters in Bombay or Egypt.

Extreme poverty of the Arabians generally prevents their purchase of more American machinery, Consul Schultz says, only the very wealthy Arabians being able to afford an American sewing machine.

Unexampled Courage

He was the small son of a bishop, and his mother was teaching him the meaning of courage.

"Supposing," she said, "there were twelve boys in one bedroom, and eleven got into bed at once, while the other knelt down to say his prayers, that boy would show true courage."

"Oh," said the young hopeful, "I know something that would be more courageous than that! Supposing there were twelve bishops in one bedroom, and one got into bed without saying his prayers."—Truth Seeker.

BUD ANDERSON IS HERE FOR MILL

VANCOUVER LAD FEELS GOOD AFTER A HARD BATTLE WITH GEORGE MEMSICK, FAMOUS LOS ANGELES LIGHTWEIGHT

Bud Anderson, without a scratch, in spite of his encounter in Medford Tuesday night with George Memsick, one of the best known lightweights in the country, arrived here Thursday night to prepare for his bout with "Australia" Kelley here next Friday night.

Dick Donald, Anderson's manager, declares that his boy is in great shape and that the mill here next week will be a good one.

"I don't think there is a chance in the world of Bud losing," said Donald this afternoon, "but this Kelley boy must be watched. He knows a lot about the game, and is a comer. We will look out for him."

Anderson will go into training at once, although he is in perfect condition right now. He has agreed to make 133 pounds on the afternoon of the mill.

The Portland Journal had the following to say about the Memsick-Anderson go:

"Hoping to make a rich harvest of easy money, George Memsick of Los Angeles, under the assumed name of Freddie Corbett, and a following, invaded Medford to fight ten rounds with Bud Anderson of Vancouver, Wash. Anderson won in the eighth round on a knockout, after flooring Memsick eight times. After the first two rounds the fight was all Anderson's, Memsick vainly hoping to land a lucky knockout. As the bout turned out, Anderson's claim to recognition with the near topnotchers is strengthened. The loser admitted his identity and warmly praised the Vancouver lad as a comer of the first quality.

"It was the twenty-second scalp Anderson tied to his belt. The pseudo Corbett boxed like a veteran, and floored Anderson in the second round, but the Vancouver boy rose like a flash and from then until the eighth sent his opponent to the mat at least once in every round.

"Considerable money was bet on the match by a number of San Francisco sports, who had expected to make a clean-up. Whether Corbett is really Memsick or not, he is a clever boxer, and displayed generalship that an ordinary pug doesn't have. If he is Memsick, who was cleaned out of the first rate ranks a couple of years ago after a long career as Jimmy Burns, then Anderson has made a long stride forward as a lightweight possibility by his defeat of the Bohemian."

ORDERS FOR MAPS SWAMP OFFICE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—The government printing office is swamped under a flood of orders for maps of Greece, Turkey, Montenegro and Austria-Hungary as a result of the allies' attack upon the Moslems.

Letters from congressmen, senators and the public generally are pouring in with requests for maps of the European war district.

Greeks residing in this country are also asking for maps printed in their native language, but these are not supplied by the government, being compiled or printed under federal supervision.

McMANIGAL STILL ON THE STAND

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 15.—Ortie McManigal, when he resumed the stand today said:

"Jim McNamara said that 'Old Man Tvietmoe' first suggested the Times explosion."

He testified that McNamara declared that after the blowing up of the Pacific Coast Lumber company's plant at Oakland, Tvietmoe, who was "paysmaster of the Pacific coast," was very much pleased, and gave him $500 and suggested that he destroy the Times building.

He swore that Jim McNamara declared that he had placed the dynamite charge at the Ollis home.

Bulgarians Busy

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Bulgarians continue to capture Constantinople forts. Russian messages are not hopeful of a peaceful solution, but British officials are optimistic. It is not believed that Austria or Russia will precipitate a crisis.

It is reported that the Bulgarians have shattered the Chatalja defenses, but this is not confirmed. It is said that the Bulgarians can enter Constantinople whenever they wish.

Report Unconfirmed

PARIS, Nov. 15.—Messages from Constantinople say that Turkey and the allies have signed an armistice at noon, but the terms have not been divulged. Messages from the capitals of the Balkan states do not confirm this.

VALUABLE COWS TO BE EXHIBITED

MILK DEALERS OF SEATTLE TO HAVE A BIG DISPLAY AT THE DAIRY SHOW TO BE HELD IN PORTLAND SOON

Special to The Herald
PORTLAND, Nov. 15.—Milk dealers of Seattle will have a big display at the Pacific International Dairy show to be held in Portland November 18-25. Prof. A. N. Henderson, chief milk inspector of Seattle, is directing the preparation of a very full exhibit of milk and cream, which will include the products of nearly every large milk dealer in the Sound territory. In a telephone conversation with O. M. Plummer, manager of the show, Prof. Henderson indicated that the Seattle milk dealers will make the Portland men in this line of business look to their laurels if they are to compare favorably with the showing of the Puget Sound dairymen.

There will be some very valuable cows entered at this show. Some that will be exhibited have advanced registry records of 25 to 30 pounds of butter per week. Such cows show a net earning power of something like $500 per year, aside from their calves. Many of the cattle to be offered at the combination auction sale are of this high class.

Dutch belted cattle, from the Sunflower Dairy at Astoria, will be put up at this auction sale. The herd is headed by the three-year-old bull, "Gold Nugget," for which the owners paid $1,000 when he was a six-months calf.

There will be great interest in the dairy show in the city of Portland itself, as well as in the surrounding territory. Various civic and business men's clubs, such as the Ad Club, the Rotary Club, East Side Business Men's Club and the Progressive Business Men's Club have all signified their intention of spending at least one day at the show.

DAVIDSON HELD TO GRAND JURY

L. A. Davidson, a farmer residing near Midland, was held to answer to the grand jury by Justice Graves yesterday on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. His bond was fixed at $250, which he furnished.

It developed just before the conclusion of the hearing yesterday that some person had taken a shot at the defendant after he had driven some bunters from his field. Davidson admitted that he had fired three shots from a 32-calibre rifle in order to frighten hunters.

YOUNG MAN ARRESTED, ROBBERY

Attempt to Rob Local Gun Store is Frustrated by Vigilance of Police. Plunder is Secured, and Police is Now Looking for an Alleged Accomplice—Prisoner is Well Known in This City.

Caught in the very act of robbing Chamber's Gun Store last Thursday night, William Carley is a prisoner in the county jail, and the police are now searching for a young man believed to have been his accomplice. Credit for the capture is given to Officer William Hall of the local police force.

Carley says that he is 16 years of age, but he looks older. He has not been subjected to a very close examination by the officers, but it is believed that he will tell about some petty robberies which have been committed in this city during the past two months.

When the youth threw up his hands in response to a demand from Officer Hall he had in his possession about $21 in nickels and dimes, taken from the cash register in the gun store.

About 1 o'clock that night Officer Hall was walking along Sixth street when he was attracted by an unusual noise. At first he supposed that some one in the vicinity was engaged late at night in his place of business, but upon walking around on Main street his suspicions were aroused by a young man who was standing almost in front of the gun store.

The officer advanced rapidly, the young man ran to the front of the gun store, tapped on the window, and then hurried away. Officer Hall ran to the window, looked in and saw some one inside. The officer made an effort to break in, but, seeing that the burglar had taken fright, he hurried around to the back. There he intercepted the escaping burglar.

"Throw up your hands," shouted Officer Hall, drawing his revolver.

The burglar seemed dazed for a second, but collected himself and turned, running away.

Then the officer fired a couple of shots. The burglar stopped, threw up his hands, and offered no resistance when taken to jail.

Soon after the arrest of the burglar, who proved to be William Carley, William Andell was arrested on suspicion of having been the accomplice of Carley. Andell was kept in jail until this morning, when he was released, it being shown that he had no connection with the robbery.

When searched at the city jail Carley had, in addition to the nickels and dimes, a sample case of jack knives and some safety razors in his pockets. In the gun store were found in sacks 26 revolvers, a couple of automatic shotguns and a quantity of ammunition.

Young Carley is a son of a farmer who formerly was employed at the Meadow Lake saw mill, but now resides near Cottage Grove, Ore. The young man was arrested here October 15th with a girl who resides at Picard, near here. There was no publicity given the arrest at the time. The girl was allowed to go to her home and Carley was ordered to leave the city.

WILL NOT PERMIT MOTION PICTURES OF BIG HANGING

Governor Says He Would Think That Permission to Take Pictures Should Meet With General Approval Throughout the State

SALEM, Nov. 15.—Governor West has received a copy of resolutions from Woodlawn Grange No. 350, protesting against the governor's permitting moving picture film companies to take moving pictures of the execution of five men condemned to die December 13th. The resolutions assert that according to newspaper reports the Grangers understand moving picture houses have made application for this permission.

In his reply Governor West says no such requests have been made by moving picture firms. Continuing, he says:

"However, I should think that the granting of such permission to make such pictures should meet with pretty general approval, for it has been contended, and that contention has been indorsed, that hanging deters crime. Such being the case, and it being our sincere aim and desire to lessen and deter crime, wouldn't it be logical to contend that the making of moving pictures and the exhibition of them in such a manner as to bring the execution of this drastic penalty home to every man, woman and child in our state would go far to reduce crime and thus secure to the fullest extent those results so much desired by all?"

"You need not fear, however, that permission will be granted to make moving pictures, for the writer does not believe that hanging deters crime, and thinks it would be just as useless and barbarous to exhibit these pictures as it will be to execute human beings charged with capital offenses."
