At the close of the banquet the evening was devoted to dancing. The White Pelican orchestra furnished excellent music for this occasion.

CITY MAY HAVE A SECOND PARK

If a measure now pending in congress for the giving of a tract of government land on the edge of the city to Klamath Falls for park purposes is passed, this city will have two park locations.

Recent reports from Washington indicate that the measure will pass, as there has as yet developed no opposition to it.

The land which it is proposed to turn over to the city is located on the east side of Lake Ewauna, and is about 160 acres in extent. It is claimed that with very little expense it could be made into a park.

E. W. Gowen, justice of the peace for Linkville district, performed his first marriage ceremony Monday, when he united Warren Shelllock and Mrs. Annie Beal. Both reside on the reservation near Chiloquin.

This is not the first marriage ceremony performed by Judge Gowen. He was justice of the peace in Wisconsin before coming to Oregon, but that was over forty years ago.

GRAND ARMY AND W. R. C. INSTALL

One of the most enjoyable fraternal exercises held in Klamath Falls was the installation ceremonies of F. B. Sprague Post No. 46, Grand Army of the Republic, and Sprague Chapter Women's Relief Corps. The exercises were held in I. O. O. F. hall, and upwards of 100 were in attendance.

Andrew Kirschner as past commander installed O. A. Stearns, the new Post Commander, and the new officer installed the following: Adjutant, Andrew Kirschner; Senior Vice Commander, E. R. Seitz; Officer of the Day, E. B. Ramsby.

The following Relief Corps officers were installed by Mr. Stearns: Senior Vice, Henrietta Brookfield; Junior Vice, Luella Stearns; Chaplain, Minnie L. Sargent; Treasurer, Elizabeth Johnson; Musician, Marian Smith; Press Correspondent, Della Arnold; Secretary, Cecelia Bogardus.

At the close of the installation ceremonies, a highly interesting program was rendered, including selections by the G. A. R. fife and drum corps, the Tindal orchestra, a short address by W. J. Shaver and solos by Myrtle Ramsby and Marian Smith.

Following the program the assemblage gathered round the tables in the dining room, where a sumptuous banquet was served by the Relief Corps.

THREE KAYS LOSE SERIES TO I. O. O. F.

Despite the shattering of previous records by Kieth Ambrose, who rolled a score of 245 in the last game, the K. K. K. team were unable to keep up with the I. O. O. F. bowlers last night, and lost three games in the City League contest. Ambrose bowled good all evening, making 171 in each of the other games, but in the final ten frames he "went wild," and a collection of crosses decorated his score sheet.

MCCORMICK HAS RIGHT TO BOAT

It took ten minutes Monday for the jury empaneled in the case of McCormick against Ball to find for the plaintiff, Thomas McCormick, had a right to take possession of the steamer Canby, which he rented to Ball, without giving thirty days' notice. This verdict ended Ball's demand for damages for thirty days at the rate of $50 a day.

For two years Captain Ball had been operating the Canby on a rental basis, and McCormick held that it was understood that he could take over the boat on demand. During the summer of 1912 McCormick leased the boat to the Big Basin Lumber company, but Ball refused to surrender the craft to Captain Hansbury, who was selected as skipper by the lumber concern, holding that he was entitled to thirty days' notice.

Attorney Fred H. Mills represented McCormick.

A verdict for $57, the amount sued for, was given the O. K. Transfer company by a jury in the circuit court on Tuesday. The defendant is the Hauschildt Music company of San Francisco, and the amount in dispute was the balance for hauling pianos and the rent of a team.

T. Summers, Frank Downing, F. P. Corpening, Archie Henline, Albert John, M. F. Orr, Frank L. Applegate, Alex Cheyne Jr., E. W. Wilkerson.

GRAVES IS PRESIDENT OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Frank Ira White has resigned as president of the Klamath Chamber of Commerce, and Judge Charles Graves has been elected in his stead. White's resignation was received at the initial meeting of the new directors of the organization, held late Monday afternoon.

Mr. White's business will keep him away from Klamath Falls a large part of the time, and for this reason, he tendered his resignation.

Judge Graves election was unanimous.

E. B. Hall, who was elected as vice president, has also resigned, owing to pressure of business matters.

R. A. Johnson of the board of directors was chosen in his stead, but Mr. Johnson declines to accept, saying he is willing to serve as a director, but cannot devote sufficient time to the office of vice president.

Another meeting of the directors will be held Thursday afternoon. At this time a secretary will be chosen.

CRIME TO BUY BEAVER PELTS FROM INDIANS

Persons purchasing beaver hides from Indians are guilty of violating the state game laws, according to State Game Warden William L. Finley. In a letter to Deputy District Game Warden John J. Furber, he states that parties having beaver pelts in their possession, are held to be breaking the law as much as if they had trapped or killed the beaver.

The letter follows:

"Replying to your favor relative to persons buying beaver hides, I desire to call your attention to Sec. 2275 of the Fish and Game Laws, which states that 'It shall be unlawful within the state of Oregon prior to January 1, 1920, to sell, offer for sale, barter or exchange, any beaver, etc.'

"There is no exception in the law whereby persons are permitted to have beaver hides in possession, whether purchased from Indians or otherwise, therefore, parties having such hides in possession should be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor as provided in the section above mentioned."

ACCOUNTANTS WILL BE GIVEN STATE LICENSES

In order to guarantee the accuracy of the work of expert accountants in Oregon, a bill will be introduced in the state legislature providing for the licensing of men in that line of endeavor.

The proposed measure is fathered by the Oregon Association of Public Accountants.

The salient features of the bill are: 1—Establishment of a state board of accountancy for examination of applicants.

2—Granting of certified public accountant certificates to qualified applicants.

The bill does not call for any appropriation from the state, nor prevent any one from practicing as a public accountant.

Legislation of this kind has been enacted in every state of commercial importance, it is said, and it is a protection to the business interests of the state.

BIG LAND DEAL FALLS THROUGH

SNOW BALLS STOP SUNDAY TRAFFIC

Every conveyance traversing Main street Sunday, from a meek and lowly Chinese with a clothes basket to an automobile, was subjected to a severe snowball bombardment by a band of young men who made this pastime their entire occupation for several hours.

In addition to pelting the vehicles, pedestrians were compelled to move along at an undignified pace, or be coated with a white mantle, applied in lumps from across the street, and several sprint records were shattered.

Several well known business and professional men sought refuge from the hail of snowballs in a local restaurant, and the snowballists laid siege to the eating establishment, closely watching the aforesaid business and professional men. It was nearly an hour before the beleaguered ones dared to venture forth.

McREYNOLDS GETS $1; COSTS MORE THAN CAUSE

"We, the jury empaneled and sworn to act in the above entitled cause, find for the plaintiff in the sum of one dollar ($1) and interest from 1910."

The above verdict agreed upon Saturday morning by the jury in the case of J. A. Reynolds against Henry Rabbes, was read in the circuit court Monday morning.

The suit was brought by McReynolds to recover money he alleged was due him for hay purchased by Rabbes. Rabbes claimed that McReynolds was indebted to him for a real estate commission.

The amount involved was $110. The cost of the suit to the county is in excess of that amount. The service of Jurymen for two days amounts to $72, and in addition, the county must pay for their dinner Friday evening, their rooms at the hotel the same night, and their breakfast the following morning.

In addition, the salary of the bailiff and clerk must be added. The services of Court Reporter Richardson in the case are also to be paid by the county, and there were several witnesses examined, all of whom will be given warrants for their time in the court.

John Irwin was attorney for Mr. Rabbes.

TOWN FIVE LOSES TO HIGH SCHOOL

Teamwork on the part of the high school in Saturday night's basketball game won out for the scholars, and they defeated the Independents 19 to 5 in a fast played game. In addition to the fast work by the two teams, the contest was free from any unnecessary roughness, and only three fouls were called.

The first half ended with the score 9 to 8 in favor of the Independents. In the latter part of the game the school team had all the better of it and carried the Independents off their feet, finishing the game by the score given.

BANQUET FOR JUDGE NOT TO BE HELD

STORY OF MORNING PAPER'S ACTIVITY IS REASON

Lawyers Refuse to Have Anything to Do With Proposed Banquet When It Is Indicated That the Northwestern Forced the Issue—Judge McGinn Is Well Pleased With Stand of the Attorneys

The power of the press, or at least that portion of it represented by the Northwestern was exemplified on Tuesday when a committee of the Bar Association, after reading an article in the morning paper, cancelled arrangements which had been made for a banquet to be tendered Judge McGinn.

The article in the Northwestern to which the local attorneys took exception is in part as follows:

"The 'power of the press' was exemplified last night at the meeting of the Klamath Bar Association. When Judge H. E. McGinn came to this city to assume the bench of Judge Henry L. Benson, the Northwestern proposed a dinner to His Honor, at the expense of the local attorneys. It was known that a balance somewhere between $39 and $75 was reposing in the treasury, according to how many members were delinquent.

Either amount would make a sufficient amount to buy a dinner for any Bohemian Judge, and it was proposed by the Northwestern that a dinner be given his visiting Honor.

The efforts of the morning paper to dictate to the circuit court here have always failed, and local attorneys do not propose that the paper shall be any more successful in "running" the business of the Bar Association.

At a meeting of the Bar Association held last night a committee was appointed to make arrangements for a banquet. This committee consisted of Judge Drake, chairman, and Messrs. Wylie, Groesbeck, Ferguson and Carnahan. Immediately after their attention had been called to the article in the morning paper steps were taken by the members of the committee to cancel arrangements for the banquet. In this they had the cooperation of Judge McGinn, who indicated that he did not desire to place the members of the local Bar Association in the position of being under the thumb of the Morning Scream.

At the meeting of the Bar Association last night D. V. Kuykendall was elected president; W. H. Shaw, vice president; J. H. Kent, secretary, and H. C. Merryman, treasurer.
