THREE LINES ARE STALLED ON ACCOUNT OF SNOW

SEATTLE, Jan. 13.—As a result of the heavy snowfall through the mountains, none of the transcontinental lines are operating into this city, nor is it believed by officials that any of the roads will be opened within the next twenty-four hours. All the Great Northern trains are reported as "indefinite late."

The snow is twenty feet deep in the mountains. Slides are frequent all along the lines, and telegraph wires are down.

The Northern Pacific trains are tied up at Ellensburg, owing to the depth of the snow. On account of the frequency of slides, totaling ten miles in length, the Milwaukee's trains are blocked at Laconia.

RAILROAD BARONS MOVE IN FUNNY COURT GAME

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Steps for the dissolution of the merger of the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific in compliance of the decision of the United States supreme court were taken today.

Judge Lovett resigned as director of the Southern Pacific and Kruttschnitt severed his connection with the Union Pacific. Kruttschnitt was elected chairman of the board of directors of the Southern Pacific.

Kruttschnitt also resigned as director of the Oregon Short Line and the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation company.

LISTNER'S JOB IS NOT CERTAIN

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 13.—Fear of a contest of Listner's election as governor to be decided by both houses in joint session, which will be controlled by republicans has stamped the democratic legislators into a coalition with republicans, and will result in the election of Howard D. Taylor as speaker of the house and Senator Allen as president pro-tem of the senate.

BURRAH WILSON IS NOW ELECTED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 13.—Today is the time set by law for the official election of president of the United States. The presidential electors are in session in the different state capitals today, to cast their ballots for the national executive and vice.

These electors are the only men who actually cast their ballots for Wilson, Roosevelt and Taft.

BERLIN, Jan. 13.—A movement has been started in Germany against "tipping" street car conductors. It has always been the custom to give conductors five pfennigs whenever they make change.

THE HAGUE, Jan. 13.—Dogs as draught animals for machine guns in time of war is the experiment that the Holland military authorities are making. The use of the dog for drawing milk carts and other conveyances is common in Holland. The general staff officers decided to try dogs on a light form of machine gun. The results are declared to be most satisfactory, the dogs dragging the guns over ground that would be difficult for horses or mules.

CURE A MAN TO MAKE A SOLDIER

BERLIN, Jan. 13.—That all Germans are not opposed to military service is shown by a little incident which has just become public. Herr Burchardt, son of a landowner, wanted to become a soldier. He was rejected because he was "knock-kneed," his legs having the appearance of a "K." Young Burchardt wrote a touching appeal to the emperor, asking his aid to become a soldier. The emperor sent Burchardt to the royal surgical clinic at Koenigsberg, where it was found that he could be cured and his legs straightened. The emperor ordered that the bill be sent to him, and Burchardt will become a soldier in a few months.

NOTED OUTLAW IS HEARD FROM

MONTESSANO, Wash., Jan. 13.—Somewhere to the north of here eight armed men are in pursuit of a sick and crazed murderer, ragged, half-starved and possibly unarmed.

For two years John Tornow, madman and best shot in the West, has held the Olympic range against the officers of the law. His unerring rifle has claimed six victims, "Scotty" and "The Swede," prospectors, first; then the Bauer twins, and last, Deputy McKenzie and Elmer.

Saturday two brothers named Mose who knew Tornow, met him while hunting. They fled, and in an exhausted condition reached here with the news.

TURKS PLAN TO START FIGHTING

SESSION OF THE GRAND COUNCIL IS CALLED TO CONSIDER MATTER—ENVOYS ARE STILL IN LONDON

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 14.—A session of the grand council was called today by Grand Vizier Kamail Pasha to determine the question of continuing war against the Balkan kingdoms. The strictest secrecy is being maintained regarding proceedings.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—Unless the peace terms proposed by the Balkan allies are accepted immediately, the present armistice with Turkey will be terminated, and the war resumed. A notification to this effect was served upon Lord Grey, the British foreign secretary, today.

Diplomatic circles are much agitated as a result of the ultimatum delivered by the allies, and the situation is considered grave.

The Turkish envoys are still here. They are awaiting advices from Constantinople, but it is reported that they expect the war to be resumed.

The peace terms outlined by the Balkan allies include the cession of Adrianople and the Aegean Islands to the allies. To this Turkey objects strongly.

SCORCHING TAXI KILLS AND MAIMS

VANCOUVER, B.C., Jan. 14.—John Longman was killed and John McPherson fatally injured when they were struck by a taxicab on the Granville street bridge this morning. The machine started across the bridge at a high rate of speed, and the two men were unable to get out of the way.

Eye witnesses state that the chauffeur made no attempt to slacken the speed of the car after the accident, and that the car traveled faster, if anything, after the mishap. In the confusion the number of the car was not noted.

MEDFORD HAS A NEW CIVIC CLUB

MEDFORD, Jan. 14.—The "Ever Fresh" Club is Medford's latest civic improvement association, its object being the inspection of canned fruits and different foods that might be unhealthful to the general public. The club consists of several of Medford's business men, and those who are interested in the pure food laws.

The object of this club is to keep fresh fruit and vegetables on the market, especially in the line of canned goods. Vegetables, such as corn, beans, etc., are often dried and stored away for a long time, and then placed in cans. The vegetables are restored to freshness after they absorb moisture, but this is unknown to the public, and the goods are placed on the market to be sold to thousands of families, and endangering the lives of many.

TEACH PARENTS HOW TO BEHAVE

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 13.—A "school for parents" has been opened here. Professor Kapterew says in the announcement: "Let us learn how we shall raise our children. We will work for their physical as well as intellectual and spiritual welfare. And in so doing, we will also learn how we shall fulfill our duties as parents." It is the first school of the kind in Europe. The project is pronounced an immense success.

"JACK PINE" TAKEN OFF TRAIN ON CLASH LASTERN ARROUES INTER-ST

JACK JOHNSON ARRESTED AT BATTLE CREEK ON ADVICES FROM FEDERAL AUTHORITIES IN CHICAGO

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 14.—Jack Johnson and his white wife were removed from a train today by the local police at the request of Chicago federal authorities. They will be detained until the arrival of officers from Chicago.

It was learned this morning that the negro heavyweight was on his way to Toronto, and it was feared that he might forfeit his bond in the white slavery case.

Johnson protested that he intended to remain in Canada only a few days. Johnson, his white wife and his valet were taken to the home of a policeman to await the arrival of a Chicago federal officer.

When the dusky champion gave $30,000 bonds for his appearance he agreed not to leave Illinois. The negro explained that he was on his way to Toronto to see Tom Flanagan, his former manager, regarding an offer made for a bout between himself and Faizer in Paris.

PIONEER AMUSEMENT MAN MAY BE SUICIDE

VENICE, Calif., Jan. 14.—John Cordray of Portland, one of the best known amusement promoters on the coast, is missing, and the discovery near the end of a pier of cards bearing his name is causing much uneasiness.

Cordray failed to keep an appointment today, and a search for him resulted in the finding of two pocket-books containing his cards. They were on the pier, and the police were immediately notified.

No theory has been advanced as yet by the police. It is believed by friends that Cordray jumped off the pier.

Cordray is manager of The Oaks, Portland's biggest amusement park. For several years he operated Cordray's theater in Portland, and he was also in the theatrical business in San Francisco.

County Commissioner Guy Merrill came in from Merrill last night, and today the county court is in session.

OIL MAGNATE'S HEALTH SECRET

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 13.—A telegraph report of the exact condition of William Rockefeller, wanted as a witness before the money trust probe committee of congress, has been sent from Miami. Chairman Pujo of the committee refused to divulge the contents of the report.

"JACK PINE" MAKES A GOOD GRADE OF PAPER

The Upper Deschutes timber men headed by John Ryan at Lava Butte, are undertaking what will be the most thorough test ever made in this region to determine the value of the black, or so-called "jack pine," for paper pulp. Mr. Ryan, who represents many of the big companies owning timber around La Pine, has been interested for years in the possibilities of the jack pine for paper pulp.

Several experiments have been made on a small scale, the first one occurring over a year ago, when Mr. Ryan shipped a carload of black pine to a Washington paper mill. Later on Albert Larson, who lives two miles north of La Pine, upon establishing his residence on his homestead, was struck with the similarity of the lodge pole pine with that which has been used for generations by J. C. Frenkel & Son of Trammersford, Finland, and he sent a sample to his old employers during the latter part of last February. On March 25th he received word from the European firm that two grades of paper of high quality can be made from the black pine pulp. While the smaller experiments have demonstrated the value of this wood for pulp purposes in a limited way, it has not been proven that these trees will produce the same results. In order to settle the matter beyond the question of a doubt, Mr. Ryan started the present movement, and is now shipping from Bend about fifty cords of this black pine which he cut from his place near Lava Butte, ten miles south of Bend. He had the trees cut just as they came, and they range in size from six to twelve inches at the butt. The wood is a beautiful white, and will more than likely produce the same high grade paper as the smaller samples tested heretofore. The shipment Mr. Ryan is making is to the paper mills at Camis, Wash., on the Columbia River, a short distance below Portland. It requires two cars to carry the consignment, and is costing him $5.50 a cord to have it hauled from his ranch and loaded on the cars. John Peters has the contract. He has the wood all at Bend and is now engaged in loading it.

VALE PEOPLE ARE ENCOURAGED OVER THE RAPID CONSTRUCTION WORK BEING CARRIED ON IN EAST

The people at Vale are enthusiastic over the prospects of the early completion of the Oregon & Eastern railroad. In the last issue of the Vale Enterprise the following facts concerning the new road are set forth:

1—The Oregon Eastern will be finished by 1915.

2—It will be a main line—the main line—between East and West; the present main line from Ontario to Portland will give trackage for through traffic, freight and passenger, to the Oregon Eastern railroad (O. W. R. & N.) from Ontario Junction (14 miles east of Vale) to Portland on the north and San Francisco on the south.

3—The western terminus of the Oregon Eastern will be at Crescent, Oregon, in the northern part of Klamath county.

4—Vale will be more than a "whistling post," supply and freight terminals being maintained here, but extensive yards will be established at Ontario Junction, two miles south of Ontario, where the Vale cutoff, as the Oregon Eastern might aptly be termed, starts on its very direct meander westward.

5—Beyond Crescent, the Natron cutoff, now building, will be used for through traffic, northward through Eugene to Portland and Seattle, and southward via Klamath Falls to San Francisco.

6—Extension of the railroad now built up the Deschutes will be made to Crescent, where a general division will be established.

7—Through traffic between San Francisco and Portland will be diverted over the Natron cutoff, and that portion of the Southern Pacific (Harriman) railroad now used as a main line, on which are located Roseburg, Grants Pass and Medford, with the heavy mountain grades, will be relegated to local usage only in the same manner that Huntington, Baker, LaGrande and Pendleton will no longer be on the main trans-continental or trans-state route.

8—Interstate traffic between San Francisco and Spokane will go via the Natron cutoff to Crescent, thence down the Deschutes via Bend, following the present routing up the Columbia River after reaching Deschutes Junction, 19 miles east of The Dalles.

9—Spokane and Montana and Dakota points, as well as Canada east of the Rockies, will be reached via Vale, at first over existing O. S. L. lines to Pocatello, Idaho, and later by way of the P. I. & N. extension northward to Lewiston, or up the Salmon River in Idaho, or via the proposed trans-Idaho railroad across one of the passes in the Bitter Root range.

10—Vale is here to stay; today as the principal railroad construction point on the trans-Oregon route; later as an important station on the main line, and quasi division point for the through traffic.

FALSE ARREST COSTS $1,470

SALEM, Jan. 14.—Mrs. Lillian Walling Williams was given a verdict of $1,470 against Mr. and Mrs. A. M. La Follette, prominent residents of Marion county, as damages due for false imprisonment. Mrs. Williams sued for $5,000. The case will be appealed.

While at the military ball in honor of dedicating the new armory last fall, police officers arrested Mrs. Williams on complaint of the La Follettes that she had stolen Mrs. La Follette's pocketbook and a small amount of money. She was kept in jail over night.

STUDENTS BALK AT SALUTING

KIEFF, Jan. 13.—Because an imperial ukase issued by the czar requires them to give a military salute to all army officers, all the students of the military medical academy at Keiff have gone on strike. The ukase provides among other things that when students meet an officer in a street car they must first ask his permission to be seated. The students declare that this is going a little too far, and demanding more than even Russian nature will stand.

ARCHBOLD FOUND GUILTY OF GRAFT

VOTE ON FIRST CHARGES STANDS 68 TO 5

One of the Senators Hesitate in Casting Vote on Impeachment Matter, But Others Answer Up Promptly. On Some of the Charges Judge Archbold Is Found to Be Not Guilty as Charged.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 13.—Judge Archbold, associate justice of the commerce court, charged with misconduct in office, was found guilty today by the United States senate, sitting as an impeachment court.

On the first article of thirteen charges preferred against him the vote stood 68 for conviction to 5 against. The first article charged Archbold with having wilfully and unlawfully taken advantage of his position as judge of the commerce court to induce officials of the Erie Railroad and the Hillsdale Coal and Iron company, a subsidiary company of the Erie, to sell to himself and partners an interest in the Katydid culm dump.

Archbold was acquitted on the second article, and was found guilty on the third and fourth.

Archbold was also found guilty on the fifth article, but was acquitted on the sixth and seventh.

Some of the senators voiced their votes sharply and decisively. Others could hardly be heard.

After the announcement of the vote on the first article there was considerable disorder in the galleries.

The vote on the eighth article stood 22 for conviction and 42 for acquittal. On the ninth article the vote was 23 guilty and 39 not guilty; on the tenth, 65 not guilty and 1 guilty; on the eleventh, 51 for acquittal and 11 for conviction; on the twelfth, 19 guilty and 46 not guilty; on the thirteenth and final article the vote was 42 for conviction and 20 for acquittal.

IRISH OBJECT TO ATRIC PICTURES

PORTLAND, Jan. 13.—Irish men and women of the city will soon inaugurate a campaign for the purpose of preventing the sale, distribution and display of exaggerated St. Patrick day favors and souvenirs.

The movement gained considerable headway last year, when the stores were asked not to display for sale the various and common varieties of St. Patrick's souvenirs, the most objectionable among them being the pig. Last year, however, the work was not taken up until a day or two before St. Patrick's day, March 17, and many of the merchants argued that they had already ordered their stocks of the customary souvenirs, and could not afford to keep them out of display and not try to sell them. This year it is planned to start the campaign earlier, and local Hibernians interested are in hopes that their efforts will meet with better success.

"Following the example of Portland Hibernians in condemning the offensive displays," says T. J. Murphy, division president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, "San Francisco, Seattle, Los Angeles and other cities of the Pacific coast and central states have fallen into line, and are waging a vigorous protest against the caricature of the Irish people and the annual St. Patrick's day souvenir display."

NO SCOTCH RYE BY PARCEL POST

PORTLAND, Jan. 13.—Would be violators of parcel post statutes in regard to the prohibition of certain things in the mail are being thwarted because of the astute olfactory properties of the postal officials. A neatly wrapped, innocent looking package was mailed here, properly equipped with stamps and return address, and a cursory examination failed to reveal anything suspicious. A faint odor was present, however, and the investigator took a whiff at the small end of the parcel, which proved to be the cork of a bottle of first class whiskey. It was opened, and although the bottle was banded and apparently tight, just the slightest seepage through the cork had revealed the nature of the contents. The bottle contained a large sample of an expensive and pure Scotch rye that has an international reputation.
