

MADERO GOVERNMENT OVERTURNED

WITH FAMILY, MADERO FLEES FROM CAPITAL

Late Reports Indicate That the Diaz Government Will Protect the Foreigners—Secretary Knox Says the United States Will Not Interfere Unless Attacks Are Made on Americans in Mexico

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10.—President Taft late this afternoon ordered four battleships to proceed to Mexico. The gravity of the situation is thus indicated.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 10.—President Madero has fled from the capital. This is taken to mean the end of the present administration.

Later this afternoon it is expected that Felix Diaz, nephew of former President Diaz, will be proclaimed as president.

As a result of the battles which have been intermittent since Saturday night more than 250 people have been killed.

It is rumored that the Madero family are fleeing toward the eastern coast, and it is expected that they will try to leave the country.

Where Is Porfirio Diaz

PARIS, Feb. 10.—The exact location of former President Porfirio Diaz of Mexico is unknown to his friends here. The idea that he is returning to Mexico to head a revolt is scouted.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10.—It was announced this afternoon that four United States battleships would be sent to Mexico, should the Diaz revolution spread. Two vessels will be sent to Vera Cruz, one to Tampico and the cruiser Denver, now at Acapulco, will be ordered to remain there. Dispatches to the state department this afternoon state that foreigners are in no immediate danger.

But few details of the revolt have been received here.

"While the Mexican situation is apparently grave," said Secretary of State Knox, "the crisis has not yet been reached. It does not yet appear that there is the slightest possibility of the United States interfering. Nothing but the jeopardizing of lives of Americans will change this policy."

Troops Ready to Move

LEAVENWORTH, Kans., Feb. 10. It is reported that all troops stationed here have been ordered to start for the Mexican border immediately. The commandant at the fort would not admit the truth of this.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10.—Knox, Meyer and Stimson will confer this afternoon to determine whether or not to send warships to Mexico. It is expected that four war vessels will start immediately.

Unofficial dispatches indicate that Diaz is in almost complete control of Mexico City. His forces are maintaining order in the foreign section.

CRUEL STORIES

COME FROM PERU

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10.—Revolting stories of inhuman treatment accorded native rubber gatherers in the Putuma district of Peru by agents of a British rubber company are told in a report by American Consul Stuart Fuller, sent to Congress by President Taft.

"Two hundred wild Barbadoes men," the report says, "were imported into Peru in 1904. Armed with Winchester they were sent into the interior to enslave the docile natives. They murdered, flogged and tortured the Indians. Frequently the company's agents made an example of some savage whose rubber was not up to the mark. His right hand might be severed, he might be killed outright or strung up by the toes until he died."

COST OF CENSUS

FIFTEEN MILLION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10.—The annual report of Director Durand of the bureau of the census for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1912, has been submitted to the secretary of commerce and labor.

Regarding the cost of the thirteenth decennial census, the report states that the grand total expenditure from July 1, 1909, to June 30, 1912, was $15,171,593; of which $7,223,385 was expended for field work (salaries of supervisors and enumerators, etc.); $6,271,446 for compilation and publication of statistics, and $1,676,762 for annual and other investigations of the permanent bureau not connected with the decennial census. The total appropriation, receipts, etc., were $15,175,587.

The bureau was mainly occupied during the fiscal year of 1912 in the compiling of the results of the thirteenth census, but also the annual work required under the permanent census act was carried on as usual.

The total census force on December 31, 1912, numbered 813, with 742 special agents additional stationed in the Southern states to collect statistics of cotton.

On the subject of appropriation the report states that the bureau's estimates of expenditures for the fiscal year 1913 was $1,612,440. The total appropriation by congress for the year was $1,548,920. Included in this amount were $120,000 for the employment of temporary clerks to complete the thirteenth census work, and $272,000 for the printing of the reports.

SENATOR LOOKS INTO SITUATION

SEEMS TO FIND THE TRUTH ABOUT MONEY LENDERS AND MAKES PERSONAL VISIT TO THE HEADQUARTERS

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 10.—A local money lender nearly collapsed when a man who had applied for a loan revealed his identity as Senator Edwin Grant of San Francisco, author of the usury bill now before the legislature. Grant took this method to get some first hand information on the rates of interest charged. The "loan" shark, as the San Francisco senator referred to him, had demanded 2½ per cent a month, or 30 per cent a year. Grant's bill would limit the rate to 9 per cent a year.

"It will put us out of business," wall the money lenders.

STATE TO ENTER

WALL ST. FIELD

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 10.—State Engineer W. F. McClure has declared his belief that in order to give the highway bonds and other securities the standing regarded as desirable in financial circles, the Hewitt-Benedict plan of establishing a fiscal agency for the state in Wall street might be necessary. That these bonds would have to be placed on sale outside of California, McClure regarded as imperative.

"For the sound footing of the bonds they should be on sale in the financial hub of the country," declares McClure.

PLAN TO TAX ALL

FISH FROM ALASKA

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10.—Legislation for the protection of the Alaska fish supply by the strict regulation of fishing and the establishment of a system of hatcheries more extensive than in any of the states is predicted for the next regular session by Senator Jones. His subcommittee on the subject has failed to get the measure in shape for passage before March, but the result of its hearings will be carried over for the use of a new committee.

If the hopes of the conservationists are realized, every pound of fish taken henceforth from Alaskan waters will pay a tax into the federal treasury, and this tax will be diverted to the fund for the creation of new hatcheries and for the employment of inspectors. Gradually, they believe, the coast of Alaska will become the world's greatest fishing ground.

EIGHT HOUR BILL

FOR NEW CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10.—An eight-hour day for all clerks and other employes in the federal service is proposed by Representative Roberts of Nevada, in a bill which he will offer to the new house in March. He prescribes that except in case of extraordinary emergency, in which case overtime payment shall be made, the officers directing federal employes shall be held responsible, under severe penalties, for the enforcement of the eight hour rule.

WARNER VALLEY SHOOTING SCENE SCOUTS MAY BE ALLIES' SOON

WELL KNOWN MEN BECOME INVOLVED IN A DISPUTE OVER LAND, AND CECIL DIXON IS SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

Word has just been received here of the shooting of Cecil Dixon by Joe Fine, near Plush, in Warner Valley. Both are well known in Lake county.

While at this time it is practically impossible to obtain the exact particulars of the affray, the nearest information that can be obtained is that the trouble arose over land matters. Reports have it that Dixon had built a cabin and squatted on a portion of unsurveyed land that apparently Fine had some claim to. The land in question is located over the meander line near the shores of the lake, about seven miles from Plush.

Presumably Mr. Dixon had not been living steadily on the land, as it is said he has been in the employ of Warren Laird, and on Tuesday evening he, in company with Mr. Laird and son, walked to the cabin from the Laird ranch, taking a bed, with the intention of sleeping there over night. This was some time between 6 and 7 o'clock. Upon reaching the house they found N. Fine, Joe Fine's father, and Chico, a well known vaquero of that section, there with a wagon, starting to raze the building.

According to reports, Joe Fine, who it is said was in the house, was not seen at first. Dixon asked the senior Mr. Fine what they were doing. Receiving no reply to his query he started to take the boards from the wagon that had been taken off the house, when it is said Joe Fine emerged two shots at Dixon, one of which took effect, the ball entering the breast just below the collar button, taking an angular course and lodging in the shoulder. The wound was inflicted with a soft-point bullet from a 38-calibre revolver.

The wounded man was taken to the Laird place, where he was attended by the doctor. While the wound is causing intense pain and suffering, it is reported that the man has a chance to recover.

"HOBO" UNION IS ### TO BE ORGANIZED

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Time was when a self respecting "hobo" would flee in a panic at the mention of the word "labor." ## START ORK IN SPRING W

ON CRATER LAKE ROADS

PORTLAND, Feb. 11.—With the object of making accessible the principal points of interest in the Crater Lake National Park by the summer of 1915, when the Panama exposition is under way at San Francisco, the United States engineers are planning to start the construction of roads and trails in that wonderland as soon as the weather conditions will permit.

Captain H. H. Roberts, corps of Engineers, U. S. A., in temporary charge of the first rivers and harbor district, says that $47,000 is available for the project, and he hopes that this will be increased by $100,000 or more by the next congress. Assistant United States Engineer Goodwin, who has been looking after the construction of the Dalles-Celilo boat canal will have charge of the road building in the park. He arrived from the Big Eddy recently to familiarize himself with plans.

Active field operations will be started about April 1st. It is the intention to utilize the Natron cutoff, built by the Southern Pacific from Klamath Falls to Kirk, a distance of about forty miles. From Kirk a temporary road will be built to the northern boundary of the park.

The engineers propose to do the work by hired labor instead of following the old method of awarding contractors. The project involves the construction of sixty miles of macadamized roads and 100 miles of trails, a task which will require four or five years.

By June 1st the engineer in charge expects to have a large number of teams, probably 100 head of horses, as a part of the outfit which will be employed in pushing the enterprise to completion. Experimental sections of roadways will be built on the start to determine just what sort of finishing material to use on the highways.

REGISTRATION BOOKS WILL BE OPENED FOR WOMEN

Women of Klamath Falls will be given their first opportunity to vote on March 10, when the special charter comes up for adoption—but in order to be eligible to cast their ballots, the women are subjected to the same rule that applies to male voters, they must register before the election.

To allow the women of the city an opportunity to register, and to accommodate men who did not register last year, the registration books at the city hall will be opened March 1st, and remain open until March 9th. All who registered last year are qualified to vote without further registration.

The following notice covering this has been prepared by Police Judge Leavitt, who is in charge of registration:

"The first election held in this city since the adoption of the constitutional amendment granting the right of suffrage to woman, will be held on March 10, 1913. At said election will be submitted the proposed 'New Charter' prepared by a commission of eleven citizens appointed by the common council.

"All citizens having registered for the last general election are qualified to vote at said special election without further registration. The police judge will open the registration books on March 1st, next, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m., which will afford the ladies an opportunity to register prior to the election, as well as those of the male persuasion who have qualified as citizens since last election in May.

"The ladies must bear in mind that there will be but nine days in which to register prior to the special election, and they should come early and avoid the rush. The registration books will be open at the office of the police judge, upstairs, over the First Trust and Savings bank, corner Second and Main."

SCOTT IS THE VICTIM OF BLIZZARD

WIRELESS REPORTS BRING THE FIRST NEWS

No Authentic News Is Available, and Shackleton Is Not Inclined to Credit the News Agency Reports.—The Scott Party Reached Exact Spot Where Amundsen Planted the Norwegian Flag

United Press Service
LONDON, Feb. 10.—The latest of the meagre dispatches from New Zealand tonight indicate that Scott and four men who made the final dash for the pole, were the only ones who perished.

It is believed that after reaching the pole Scott and his companions were overwhelmed by a blizzard, and that the other members of the expedition found their bodies.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Captain Scott and his party of south pole explorers are dead. After having reached their goal, and seen the monuments erected by the intrepid Norwegian, Amundsen, the members of the party were overtaken by a blizzard and frozen to death.

A message to the Central News agency today brought the first news of the fatal termination of the famous English expedition.

The Terra Nova, returning from the relief trip, passed Cape Sanders, en route to Port Lyttleton, and sent a wireless conveying the news of the fatal termination of the polar expedition. The relief ship returned because when the McCurde Sound base of the Scott expedition was reached the Scott party was found dead.

The records found among the effects of the frozen men showed that the party had reached the south pole January 18, 1912, but on the return encountered a blizzard, and the members of the party were frozen to death before they could provide sufficient shelter.

The documents found by the relief expedition showed that Scott's party reached the exact spot where Amundsen planted the Norwegian flag at the pole.

It is believed that sixty-six scientists and sailors perished.

Shackleton Skeptical

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Lieutenant Shackleton, who headed the former south pole expedition for England, does not believe that the Scott party perished.

"It is most unlikely that the members of Scott's party are dead," he said. "I will not believe the report until there comes something more definite."

HANDSOME MEN

TO GUARD GIRLS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—A squad of handsome men, each armed with a huge blackthorn "shillalah" to protect the marching women in the big suffrage pageant March 3, is the latest feature contemplated.

"Some men are horrid things, and I would not put it above them to turn mice and rats loose among the marchers," declared Mrs. Helen Gardner, one of the leading spirits. "The handsome men will protect us if the police fail to do their duty. These men must be Irishmen, for we know the Irish have hearts of oak."
