ALLISON NAMED AS PLAINTIFF

Suit was started Tuesday by M. C. Allison to stop the sheriff and county treasurer from either accepting in payment of taxes or paying in cash warrants to the amount of about $11,000.

This suit will bring up the disputed question of whether or not the county court has exceeded the limit of indebtedness, and is considered by the attorneys to be the "meat" of the different suits which have been filed during the past few days.

The name of the plaintiff in the case could not be ascertained this afternoon. Kuykendall & Ferguson are attorneys in the case, but Mr. Kuykendall declined to give the name of the principal in advance of the filing of the case.

It is claimed that the county court has exceeded the limit of legal indebtedness by about $120,000, but the latest suit is only to stop payment on warrants issued in exchange for an auto truck, a carload of culverts and an oil sprinkler for roads.

This, it is believed, will be the last of the series of suits which it has been planned to bring in order to settle the questions of law regarding the status of the Klamath county court.

WATER USERS LEVY AN ELEVEN-CENT ASSESSMENT

An assessment of 11 cents per acre for the maintenance of the organization was levied Saturday afternoon by the directors of the Klamath Water Users Association. Last year the assessment was 10 cents.

"The number of shares has been reduced from 236,000 to 39,000 in the last few years, and as the expenses have remained about the same a higher levy has been necessary," says Albert E. Elder, secretary of the association.

"I hardly think there will be any reduction in the number of acres included under the association's membership list within the next year, though, and I look for a reduction in the assessment in 1914."

SHOOTS HIMSELF WITH .22 PISTOL

As a result of an accident sustained while shooting at a mark in a logging camp near Worden Sunday afternoon, Ed Palsma is at the Blackburn hospital, with a bullet hole through his left leg, just below the knee.

The wound was caused by a .22-calibre target pistol, which was accidentally discharged while Palsma was sitting down. The bullet passed between the two bones of the leg without striking them, and severed an artery. The artery was ligated Monday by Drs. Merryman and Truax.

DELZELL WILL NOT BE SECRETARY

The terms regarding salary and length of contract imposed by W. A. Delzell for his acceptance of the office of secretary of the Chamber of Commerce were considered too great by the board of directors of the organization at their meeting Monday.

To attend to the duties, E. B. Hall was appointed temporary secretary, and he, with the assistance of the other directors, will attend to the affairs of the Chamber of Commerce. Miss Elliott will remain as stenographer to take care of the headquarters, and the directors will devote a portion of each day to the work.

LOCAL MAN AND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS FAIL TO AGREE—HALL TO ACT TEMPORARILY

The Klamath county high school annual, the "Boomer," will be published again this year. This decision was reached at chapel Tuesday morning.

In a few days the students will elect an editor, business manager and advertising manager. These in turn will choose heads for the different departments, and the work will be commenced.

STUDENTS PLAN TO PRINT PAPER

Several years ago the "Boomer" was issued monthly by the students, but for the last three terms it has been an annual publication, issued Commencement Week.

CHARTERS WILL GO TO VOTERS

Police Judge A. L. Leavitt and Miss Rose Reed are busy addressing wrappers to the registered voters of the city, and as soon as the charter formulated by the special charter commission is printed, probably the last of this week, copies will be mailed to the voters.

This will give all electors an opportunity to study the proposed governing instrument before the special election on March 19th.

J. H. Holts of Ukiah, Calif., is here attending to business matters. While in Klamath Falls, he is at the American.

L. F. Davies of Dairy is here for a short sojourn.

Has "India" Cye.

The first "Cye." printed on India paper to arrive in this city has been received by William H. Shaw. The volumes occupy about 40 per cent of the space taken up by the other editions of the work.

PRICES FOR WOOL WILL BE HIGH

SHEEPMEN IN LAKE COUNTY ARE ENTHUSIASTIC OVER PROSPECTS FOR THE COMING WOOL SEASON

Relative to the wool market the opinion seems to be general that the prices will be fully as good as a year ago. However, there is no disposition to contract for wool on the sheep back, as was the case locally last year, but then there is no telling what Frank Rickey will do when he gets his neck bowed, says the Lake County Examiner.

Last year Mr. Rickey slipped in here with an auto, and before the general public was aware of the fact he had purchased a large number of clips at what was considered above the market price. Before the season closed he had purchased nearly all the Lake county wool, other buyers who has formerly been in the market, making no effort to check his onslaught.

Last year's crop was considered far above the average for wools in this section, owing to favorable range and weather conditions, but this year it promises to be even better. The sheep went into the winter in excellent condition, and everything has been favorable for them during the season that is now drawing to a close. A few weeks since some fear existed on account of heavy storms, but at the critical moment weather conditions changed and no ill effects whatever resulted. Manuel Sanders, the well known sheepman, a few days ago, came in from the desert, and he reports the sheep to be in better condition than he ever saw them before. He saw a great number of bands, and in every instance the sheep were in finest shape, with plenty of range to last them until shearing time. To an Examiner representative Mr. Sanders was positive in the statement that the crop of wool this coming spring would be the best that was ever marketed in Lake county. Such being the case, it is improbable that but one buyer will be in the local market when the buying season opens.

CHICKEN SUPPER FRIDAY EVENING

A chicken supper will be given at the Masten house, corner Tenth and Pine streets, Friday evening by the ladies of the Grace M. E. church.

This supper precedes the colonial entertainment and program to be given at the church.

James Dixon is here from his ranch near Merrill.

Edward J. Murray has gone to Bonanza on a business trip. He will return the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Mark Schallock is ill at the Blackburn hospital.

Ed Court was in Monday from the Court ranch on the Midland road.

D. H. Wimer of Fort Klamath is here for a short visit.

J. W. McCoy returned on Monday from Southern California, bringing with him twenty-eight head of Holstein cattle. These will be distributed among Klamath County farmers.

H. H. Edmonds returned to Algoma Monday after a visit of several days in this city.

In observance of Washington's birthday a social will be held at Grace M. E. church Friday evening by the ladies of the congregation, and arrangements for a unique program are being made. No admission will be charged.

A patriotic program will be rendered. It has also been arranged to have George and Martha Washington, La Fayette and other colonial characters represented.

L. J. Bouman is among the Bonanzaites visiting Klamath Falls today.

S. F. Thornton is here from Ashland, attending to business matters.

Gus A. Lovegren, timber cruiser for the United States land office, came in Monday night from Lakeview, where he has been attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi McDonald came in Monday night from their Bonanza Valley ranch. They will spend several days in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Moore of Dorris are here for a brief sojourn.

F. W. Lightfoot is here from his ranch near Bonanza.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Otto are up from their ranch near Midland, attending to business matters.

MESSAGES ARE SENT TO SALEM

ALLEGED ASSAULT BY THE GOVERNOR ON A NEWSPAPER REPORTER BRINGS FORTH A PROTEST BY CITIZENS

Well known Klamath Falls business men, recalling the sensational stories following the alleged assault on R. Vanech Hutchins by Officer Hall, last night sent telegrams to the outside world protesting against the alleged assault by Governor West on a newspaper reporter.

The telegrams follow:
Klamath Falls, Oregon,
February 17, 1913.

We are advised through the columns of the press and otherwise that a citizen of your city was assaulted by the Governor of Oregon, and that members of the Legislature, charged with the enforcement of the law, stood by and permitted the assault; that the assaulting officer has not been arrested. In view of the charges we wish to be advised what steps, you as mayor, will take toward bringing about a better enforcement of the law in your city. Otherwise it will be the duty of the citizens of this city to take such steps in order that the newspaper men in Salem may be given protection.

We have one of our own newspaper men up there, and if this is to be the practice in your city will send our own police to guard our representative until the adjournment of the Legislature.

CITIZENS OF KLAMATH FALLS

Klamath Falls, Oregon,
February 17, 1913.

Morning Oregonian, Portland, Ore.:

We learn through your columns that a state of lawlessness exists in the City of Salem; that the Governor of this state assaulted an inoffensive and defenceless newspaper man, and that members of the Oregon Legislature stood by and enjoyed the fight. If you have no newspaper man who is able to expose the rotten condition existing in Salem we offer the services of our own Sam Evans of the Klamath Falls Northwestern, who we know can expose the conditions there and bring about sufficient notoriety for the city of Salem to last it until the next meeting of the Legislature. This offer is free of all costs to the Oregonian.

CITIZENS OF KLAMATH FALLS

Klamath Falls, Oregon,
February 17, 1913.

To the Mayor of Salem and Prosecuting Attorney and Sheriff of Marion County, Salem, Oregon:

We are advised by the public press that a state of lawlessness exists in the city of Salem; that the Governor of this state assaulted an inoffensive newspaper man in the Capitol of the state, and that members of the Oregon Legislature stood by and enjoyed the fight. If unable to handle the situation, we offer free the services of Mr. Sam Evans of the Northwestern and the police force of our city.

CITIZENS OF KLAMATH FALLS

Klamath Falls, Oregon,
February 17, 1913.

Mother Is Ill

Mrs. A. D. Miller and daughter, Constance, have gone to Portland in answer to a summons on account of the illness of Mrs. Miller's mother. During the last week she suffered several paralytic strokes.

Ted White of Langell Valley is registered at the Hall.

M. P. Mickler is here from Willow Springs ranch to confer with his partner, Mr. Albright, and to attend to business matters.

Arthur Leavitt is confined to his home by illness. He has been unable to work since Saturday morning.

George Hauptman of the Pelican Bay Lumber company has gone to San Francisco to attend to business matters.

WOMAN FEARS HER HUSBAND'S ALIVE

Is John P. Morse dead?

This is the question which has resulted in divorce proceedings being started in the circuit court here.

Mrs. Morse, believing that her husband was dead, recently married D. Burrell, a homesteader in the northern part of the county. A few days following her second marriage, Mrs. Burrell received information that led her to believe that there was a chance that the report of the death of her first husband was not authentic.

Legal advice was then sought, and it was decided to start an action for a divorce against Morse.

Griffith to Portland

Deputy U. S. Marshal W. B. Griffith left Sunday morning for Portland, taking with him P. P. Burnett, bound over to the federal grand jury on a charge of selling liquor to Indians.

TRAINER RETURNS FROM SACRAMENTO

LOCAL SPORTSMEN WILL WRITE TO LOWER HOUSE SOLONS, ASKING THEIR SUPPORT OF THE MEASURE

Fred Marshall, who was injured last spring by a fall with a horse, returned Tuesday from Sacramento, where he has been at the Sisters' hospital, receiving treatment for his leg. He has recovered the use of the limb.

In the fore part of April, Marshall was training Judge Drake's filly, Yankee Girl, for the Rodeo races, and when the horse slipped and fell Marshall's leg was fractured by the weight of the mare's body. The injury was of a serious nature, and Marshall was ordered to go to the Sacramento hospital.

GOLD FEVER GETS MORE VICTIMS

Three more Klamath Falls men have become inoculated with the gold fever, Jess Hunsaker, L. G. Comstock and Jay North. Tuesday they departed for the new camp at Rochester, Nevada.

Hunsaker will remain several days at Woodland, Calif., before going to the gold field, but the others bought tickets direct to Lovelock, and will go on to Rochester from there.

LOCAL DEBATER TO ENTER CONTEST

MOTSCHENBACHER MAY ALSO REPRESENT UNIVERSITY OF OREGON IN DEBATE WITH THE UTAH UNIVERSITY

EUGENE, Feb. 19. — Professor Prescott, debate coach, has chosen David Pickett as colleague of Howard Zimmerman to represent Oregon in the Utah debate, that is provided the debate is held in the immediate future. Otherwise Vernon Motschenbacher will be the man to make the trip. Professor Prescott was unable to make his decision before Wednesday afternoon, due to the exceedingly clever work of both men. In the triangular debate Motschenbacher, with Pickett as colleague, will go against Washington, while Zimmerman and King will make the California trip.

MEXICO DOESN'T LOOK GOOD NOW

J. Ed Westerlund, who left some time ago for Mexico to accept a position with a lumber concern, has returned to Klamath Falls. He has resumed his position as grader for the Big Basin Lumber company.

Prior to coming to Klamath Falls last year Westerlund was employed in Old Mexico, and he left here to accept his former position. With the outbreak of hostilities he came to the conclusion that there are far worse places than Klamath Falls.

GUMSHOE MEN WANT TO HELP

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 19.—Following the publication throughout the country several days ago of the destruction in Washington of more than $70,000 in counterfeit money, the secret service bureau has been besieged with applicants of would-be sleuths who believe they can help the government run the counterfeiters to earth. From time to time the list of applicants has grown, until today there is a total of 4,500 on hand.

"Every time a big arrest or a big job of some kind is made by the secret service we get additional applications," said William Flynn, chief of the secret service. "Most every man who thinks he has detective ability drops us a line asking for a job. We have the counterfeiters pretty well in hand now—and no vacancies in the staff."

COOKING FOR SICK TREATED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 19.—"Lessons in Cooking for the Sick and Convalescent" is the title of the latest government "cook book." The publication was prepared and printed for the use of the cooking class of the Nurses' Training School of the government hospital for the insane, but the subject is of such general interest that arrangements have been made for the sale of the pamphlet by the superintendent of documents, government printing office, at the nominal price of five cents a copy. While the receipts in the pamphlet were compiled primarily for the sick, they are of interest to all persons desiring simple and wholesome dishes. The 130 recipes cover a wide range, including soups, fish, oysters, eggs, steaks, chops, salads, desserts and beverages.

E. L. Gardner of Fort Klamath was among the passengers arriving on the Chiloquin train Tuesday.

W. H. Shook of Dairy is a county seat visitor.

County Commissioner Guy Merrill is here attending to business matters.

SEEK PASSAGE OF GAME CODE BILL

LOCAL SPORTSMEN WILL WRITE TO LOWER HOUSE SOLONS, ASKING THEIR SUPPORT OF THE MEASURE

Realizing the benefits to be derived by the passage of senate bill No. 145, which arranges a new game law code, local sportsmen are taking the matter up with the members of the house of representatives at Salem. The measure has already passed the senate.

Deputy District Game Commissioner Carey M. Ramaby has prepared a letter to Representative Smith, urging him to support the bill, and this is being signed by local people.

The entire code was passed upon by the state fish and game commission, and it was placed before the game committees of both houses of the legislature, before being introduced in the senate. The measure has been in course of preparation for the past year.

BELLAMY AND WALKER ENTER PLEAS OF "NOT GUILTY"

Pleas of not guilty were entered Tuesday afternoon by Tom Bellamy and Chas. Walker, who were recently indicted by the grand jury.

Bellamy is charged with assault with intent to kill, following an altercation between himself and G. G. Ward at the Comet lodging house the latter part of January. During the melee Bellamy fired three shots at Ward, one of them inflicting a flesh wound.

Horace M. Manning is retained as counsel by Bellamy. The colored man at the time of his arrest insisted that he shot after Ward attempted to hit him with glassware.

Walker is charged with stealing a horse from Ernest George, a Klamath Indian. He has retained C. M. Onnell and William H. Shaw as counsel.

Walker is at liberty on $3,500 bond, posted by residents of Langell Valley, which is also the home of the defendant.

TAXES ARE PAID SPITE OF SUITS

In spite of suits recently started, and in which the legality of different levies is involved, Sheriff Low's force of tax collectors are being kept busy receiving money from owners of property in Klamath county.

In addition to many letters received daily and containing money orders for the payment of taxes, the dingy quarters of the sheriff and his forces have been crowded all day with people ready and willing to contribute their mite toward the up-keep of the county.

By paying early, taxpayers are given a discount. This is taken as one of the reasons for the rush.

HONOR LINCOLN AT BIG SERVICE

Much patriotism was stirred within the hearts of Klamath Falls people Sunday evening at Grace Methodist church, when a special Lincoln service was held. The observance was arranged by the Epworth League.

Interesting talks on the life of the martyred president were made by Hon. Henry L. Benson, H. D. Kinnear and Edmund Chilcote, and each one brought out interesting traits of Lincoln's character. In addition, a quartet number, "Unfurl Old Glory to the Topmost Breeze," was rendered by Miss Louise Benson, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Walton and H. D. Kinnear.

MORE HOLSTEINS BROUGHT HERE

Another shipment of full-blooded Holsteins was brought to the city Monday night by J. W. McCoy for distribution among the Klamath county farmers. The cattle were purchased in the Fresno Valley by Mr. McCoy.

The shipment includes twenty-eight head. All are of registered stock.

Mr. and Mrs. John Every of Dorris were Sunday visitors here.

Leland Mosler returned Sunday from a business trip to Winters, Cal.

Pierce Combs, who has a ranch on Lost River, was among Monday's visitors in the county seat.

John and Glenn Van Meter of Merrill were among Monday's visitors in the county seat.

Jesse D. Walker and T. H. Wilkerson, two well known residents of Lorella are spending the day in the county seat.

Warren Kilgore came in from his Langell Valley ranch Monday night to remain several days.

Fred W. Loosley of Fort Klamath is here attending to business matters. While in Klamath Falls he is at the Hall.
