ANGLIN CASE IS DISMISSED

The case of the state against Bert Anglin was ordered dismissed by Judge Benson in circuit court Saturday because of the failure of the state to produce the complaining witness, "Tex" McCullom.

Anglin was charged with having assaulted McCullom with a stove poker last Christmas. The two men were employed in a road camp, and were drinking at the time of the alleged assault.

Anglin claims that the assault was provoked.

SPRAGUE TAKES MANY FISH EGGS

Over 150,000 rainbow trout eggs have been collected at Spencer Creek by L. Sprague, the fish expert, who is here to secure rainbow trout fry for distribution throughout the state. He is having remarkable success with his improvised method of securing the spawn.
