THE LAST STRUGGLE

THE Northwestern has at last had to come to it. It realizes that a newspaper without readers is not a very desirable possession, even if it is equipped with a $60,000 plant, so it has decided to attempt to bolster up its subscription list by means of a contest.

The voting contest is one of the discarded methods which in years past was used by newspapers to persuade people to take a paper. The Herald has used this method in years past, but like all modern newspapers it has proven the unfairness of such methods, and thrown it in the discard along with other ancient and worn out schemes of circulation getting.

The contest might be all right in a small, old settled community, where the fair contestants are well known to all of the residents, and where they can secure the assistance of their friends to secure votes and subscriptions, but in a community like Klamath Falls today, it is rather a questionable undertaking for any young girl to engage in.

It takes good looking girls to make a success of a contest in a new community filled with strangers. No one ever heard of men soliciting votes in a contest, which proves that it is not the value of the paper that brings in the money, but the subscriptions are bought by the loss of innocence and self respect of the pretty young girl who is forced to approach all classes of men in her efforts to win.

"GENERAL" JONES IS TO MARCH

"ARMY OF THE WEST" OF THE SUFFRAGE FORCES TO MARCH FROM CLEVELAND TO CINCINNATI

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 22—The "Army of the West, W. S. A.," which means Women's Suffrage Army, was in readiness today for a hike from here to Cincinnati, via Columbus, where the "Western General Rosalie Jones," et al, will pour an enflaming fire of women's suffrage literature into the state capitol building. Several thousand turned out to witness the start.

Some fifty brave pedestrians who have been surreptitiously training for weeks were expected to be "on their marks" when the command to advance was given. Several supply wagons and an army of reporters accompanied the band.

STONE MAY GO

BACK TO FARM

Attorney Chas. F. Stone has purchased of A. A. Bellman the 329 acre ranch near Mallin known as the old Dixon place. The consideration was $8,000, and the deal was made through J. F. Maguire, the real estate dealer.

The ranch purchased by Mr. Stone adjoins the well known Pickett and Wood ranches. The latter is one of the best fruit farms in the southern part of the county. Mr. Stone stated that he had not decided just what he would do with his new property, but it is presumed that he bought it as an investment.

LORELLA LOCALS

(Special Correspondence)
LORELLA, Ore., April 21.—Mrs. Fred Thompson has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Will Duncan and Levi McDonald have returned from a week's trip in the vicinity of Alturas, Calif.

William Nitre has been visiting Langell Valley friends this week.

F. J. Bowne is here with a party doing some surveying on Miller Creek. He is going to locate the highest point at which it will be possible to divert the water for the Horseddy project.

Warren Kilgore and family returned Tuesday from the Silas Kilgore ranch near Olene.

Mrs. William Fordney of Lorella, who has had a very serious illness, is now able to be about again and to take charge of the Lorella postoffice.

Extensive preparations are being made by the ladies of the Lorella Methodist church for an entertainment and box social at the school house on soon.

THE BARGAIN SALE

By FRED FLEET

There was a time, so I am told, Long years ago, in days or old, When all men's hearts were filled with hate.

They sought to tear and devastate, And soak their brother in the eye, And cheat him when he came to buy. But this black spirit of the past, We're glad to say, is gone at last.

For now, instead of bruising fists, We meet with broad philanthropists. Each one intent on giving more Than ever's been bestowed before; And that their purpose may not fail, They do it through the bargain sale.

The daily papers teem with news Wherein these men express their view

About their varied merchandise And facts about their sacrifice. They tell of prices cut in two, And goods marked down (and this is true,

For you may purchase what you will And ask it placed upon your bill; 'Here's not a merchant in the town Who'll ever fail to mark it down).

They seem possessed, though money's lost, To give us goods below their cost. And so, when trust in man gets frail, We're braced up by the bargain sale.

I marvel now as I reflect About these facts and their effect Upon these great unselfish souls Who've ripped their fortunes full of holes,

And slaughtered stocks and failed with tears, And kept it up these many years. My mind with awe becomes immersed To think how much they had at first. Old Rockefeller's wealth seems slight, While poor Carnegie's fades from sight.

Oh, you who knock, and bawl, and and cry, And say the cost of living's high, Go get a paper; cease your wail, And read about the bargain sale.

Local music lovers are much interested in the musical program to be given by local talent in the near future, and the committee securing singers for the choruses are meeting with big success. There will be between sixty and seventy singers in the choruses.

A practice will be held at Grace M. E. church Thursday evening. At that time the director, J. B. Mason, expects to have the music for distribution to the cast.

Goes to San Francisco

Rev. William McMillan, S. J., pastor of Sacred Heart church Tuesday afternoon left for San Francisco, to enjoy a well-earned vacation. He has been here for two years without a leave of absence. Father McMillan may be homby the end of the week.

Mr. Morris Leaves

Ben F. Morris has resigned his position as auditor for the Klamath Development company, and has accepted the post of private secretary to O. H. Orear, a San Francisco manufacturer. He left Monday for the Bay City to resume his new duties. Mr. Morris has a large number of friends here who greatly regret his departure.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Olds of Walla Walla arrived Monday evening on a visit to their sons, Francis and Earl, the local paint and wallpaper men. Mr. and Mrs. Olds have been spending the winter in California, and they came as far as Redding in their car, which they shipped here from that city. After about a month's visit here they will return home by auto through Oregon.

AWAIT DECISION WITH INTEREST

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT TO RULE ON THE RIGHT OF RECLAMATION SERVICE TO COLLECT MAINTENANCE FEE

PORTLAND, April 21.—Settlers throughout the state and the West generally who have located on Federal reclamation projects anxiously await decision by the United States supreme court on the question of whether an annual maintenance charge may be collected from them while they are paying for their lands and water. A case has been taken to the high tribunal from the Yakima project in the state of Washington, and the judgment rendered will affect every settler on the thirty-five federal projects of the entire West.

Settlers contend that the reclamation law contemplates making the federal government pay maintenance charges until a major portion of the lands in each project have been sold. Heretofore the reclamation service has construed the law to mean that they had the right to levy an assessment for maintenance during the period when settlers were paying for their lands and then turning the whole matter over to them to provide for maintenance as they see fit.

Many millions are at stake in the controversy, and also the future scope of reclamation work. If the circuit court is upheld in its initial decision that the government has no right to charge maintenance to the settlers additional to the cost charges an acre and water unit first agreed upon, a large amount of funds the government would have available for further development work will have to be applied to maintenance of existing projects until they are paid for by the settlers.

SAN FRANCISCO VOTES ON RECALL OF JUDGE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—For the first time in the history of California the power of the people to recall judges was invoked here today in a recall election aimed at Police Judge Charles F. Weller. Incidentally the women of San Francisco brought it about.

Weller aroused the ire of the women voters when he reduced the bail of a man charged with a statutory offense against a young girl. The offender promptly furnished the required amount and left the jurisdiction of the courts. Then the women got busy.

Adopting slogans of "all well that ends well," and "help us clean up the police courts," the women, unaided by the male element, canvassed San Francisco, and soon had more than twice the number of names necessary to insure a recall election.

The women went to the polls early today and will work until the last ballot is cast. Stubborn opposition to recalling Weller has been made by the San Francisco Labor Council, its members taking the stand that Judge Weller has not violated the requirements of his office.

Judge Weller asserts that he is a victim of persecution. The women women retort "Judge Weller is part of a system that does not stand for justice to the poor and helpless."

The women have nominated Wiley Crist, aged 35 years, a young attorney, to succeed Judge Weller, and are confident of his election.

Poindexter 45 Years Old

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 22.—Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington today celebrated his 45th birthday. He is a Tennessean by birth, and has the distinction of being the only senator designated on the records as a "progressive."

SACRAMENTO IS SCENE OF FIRE

ENTIRE BLOCK IS DESTROYED, ALSO BRUNER WAREHOUSE

Police and Citizens Aid the Fire Department in Preventing Spread of Conflagration—Southern Pacific Sheds and Warehouses Endangered—Hundreds Flee From Hotels and Lodging Houses

SACRAMENTO, April 21.—All of the buildings in the block bounded by Front, Second, L and M streets and the warehouse of the John Bruner company were destroyed by fire early this morning.

The loss is estimated at $300,000. For a time the warehouses and sheds along the Southern Pacific tracks were endangered, but they were saved after a hard fight and the spread of the blaze checked.

The entire fire department was engaged in combatting the flames, and before the danger of a spread was removed the police and hundreds of citizens were called upon for assistance.

Hundreds of people fled from hotels and lodging houses in the vicinity of the fire, scantily attired. Some of these lost all of their effects.

There was but one injury. Martin Shay sustained a broken hip in jumping from a second story window.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—As a result of the killing of Gun Wing by a tong man last night and other recent murders, the district attorney has ordered Chinatown blockaded.

None will be allowed either to leave or enter, and a special force of police has been designated to enforce the order.

It is hoped that the stagnation of commerce will cause the Chinese merchants to quash the gun men.

J. W. Templeton left Tuesday for Reno.
