MAKES ATTEMPT TO KILL HIMSELF

FOLLOWING PERIOD OF INEBRIATION, MAN PLACES PISTOL TO HEAD AND PULLS THE TRIGGER—HE WILL LIVE

Respondent as a result of a recent intoxication, John Cabbler, long a resident of this section, placed the muzzle of a revolver behind his ear late Thursday afternoon, and pulled the trigger. By one of the freaks so often noticed in trajectory, the bullet, which entered Cabbler's head just behind the right ear, came out just in front of the ear, after traveling about three inches under the skin, without injuring the skull.

At the time he attempted his life, Cabbler was on a cot in the Midway stables. Apparently not affected he started out the front door of the stable. Hearing the shot, and seeing Cabbler with his head covered with blood, attaches of the stable attempted to restrain him from going on the street. The wounded man then struggled to get a chance to "finish the work."

Deputy Sheriff Brewbaker took Cabbler in charge, and his wound was dressed by Dr. Taylor. Later he was taken in charge by his brother, who has a ranch in the valley.

DECISION ENDS LONG LITIGATION

IS GREAT VICTORY OVER THE RAILROADS

In Addition to Minnesota Suit, Oregon, Missouri, Kentucky and Arkansas Had Suits Pending in Highest Court as to Their Rights to Decide Upon Passenger Rates Within Their Borders.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—Staunchly upholding the right and authority of every state to regulate railroad rates within its borders, the United States supreme court today declared constitutional the Minnesota law reducing the freight and passenger rates in that state.

This decision sounds the defeat of the deathblow aimed by the forty allied railroads at the right of states to regulate rates. It affects six states immediately, and every state ultimately.

The decision in the Minnesota case also settles suits before the supreme court affecting regulations in Oregon, Missouri, Kentucky and Arkansas. The decree is generally considered a great victory for the states against the railroads.

CATTLE SLOW; HOGS STRONG; NO SHEEP

PORTLAND, June 9.—The cattle market is very slow. A combination of circumstances has bearing prices, and there is not as strong demand for beef as the previous week. Extreme high water has caused many cattle in the vicinity of Portland to be liquidated before the usual time. Heavy shipments from California and Utah has filled the yards. Best steers are selling at $7.25 to $7.50; cows, $6.00 to $6.50; bulls, $5.50, and calves, $8.00 to $9.00.

The hog trade held strong until Friday. Receipts have been liberal, and the market is from 5c to 10c lower. Best light swine steady at $8.40.

An uneven sheep market ruled for the six day period ending Saturday. There is a fair demand for fat mutton, which is very scarce. The bulk of receipts contained nothing but poor sheep and lambs, which are slow to move. Yearlings are quoted at $5.50 to $5.75; 2-year-olds, $5.50; ewes, $4.50 to $4.75; and best spring lambs are steady at $6.50 to $6.75.
