A. M. Worden was hostess at a most enjoyable stag affair Saturday night, when, at the Worden residence, the semi-annual meeting of the New Era was held. A number of matters of great importance to this organization received attention, and officers were elected for the ensuing term. After the rioters at the polls had been clubbed, gagged, bound or otherwise subdued, the following was read as the alleged result of the election: Past Noble Grand—A. M. Worden. Noble Grand—Joe B. McAllister. Un-Noble Grand—A. J. Voye. Organist—G. H. Ashley. Attorney—W. H. Duncan. Keeper of the Seals and Records—H. H. Gallagher. Worthy Matron—E. B. Balis. Constable and Outer Guard—Gilford Arnold. Chaplain—Andrew G. Horner. Janitor—J. Y. Johnson.

Preceding the election of officers was the following program, as arranged by Mr. Worden: Opening overture . . . . . Brower Mr. Y. E. Lhsahg Reading . . . "The Origin of Limburger" Mr. Retsilliam Solo . . . . . "Oh That I Were Dead" Mr. N. O. Shohjy Reading . . . "The Strength of an Onion" Mr. S. I. Labbe Chorus . . . . . "Oh, Be Joyful!" The Bunch Biography . . . "The Late Mr. Schlitz" Mr. E. Y. Orja Moving Pictures Solo . . . . . "Under the Foam" Mr. R. E. Gallagher History of the Order N. E. Drowma, Past Grand Quartet . . . . "Don't Talk So Loud" Mr. Retsilliam, Mr. Noshof, Mr. Rehagallag, Mr. Eyov Ode . . . . . "Our Departed Brothers" Mr. R. E. Nrohga

In addition to the above program, an added feature was "Bonanza," rendered in a delightful lachrymose manner by Retsilliam and Rehagallag. A Chinese solo was also rendered by Rehagallag. Following the ritualistic work of the order and the performance of a number of the lodge's mystic rites, a Holland lunch was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Mary A. Jackson was hostess to four tables of bridge last Saturday afternoon, when there were present Mrs. Fred Sperry, Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. Louis Gerber, Mrs. Wm. L. Albright, Louis Gerber, Mrs. W. L. Albright, Mrs. F. B. English, Mrs. J. C. Brockebrough, Mrs. Burge W. Mason, Mrs.

Will H. Mason, Mrs. Charles George, Mrs. P. C. Wilson, Mrs. W. T. Forrest, Mrs. Robert A. Johnson, Mrs. I. Jay Knapp, Mrs. Robert Savidge and Mrs. A. J. Lyle. The tables were prettily bedecked with flowers, the color scheme being yellow and white. The prizes were won by Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Hampton, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Wilson. A pleasant patriotic feature in honor of Flag Day was the History of the American Flag, given by Mrs. J. C. Brockebrough. Following this interesting talk, the guests repaired to the dining room, where an elaborate course collation was served at a circular table, beautifully arranged for the occasion.

On Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Katherine Wells (nee Clifton), assisted by her two daughters, Mrs. Levi McDonald and Mrs. Robert Sloan, Mrs. Nate Otterbein received her following at her home on Klamath avenue: Mesdames Geo. McDonald, J. Fred Goeller, Bert Withrow, Geo. Humphrey, S. T. Summers, R. A. Emmitt, Marjion Hanks, K. North, Jas. Driscoll, J. V. Houston, C. M. Ramsby, Wm. Wagner, W. P. Johnson, I. D. Applegate, Boyd, Geo. Hurn, Zim Baldwin, Patten, Hixon, Amanda Hamaker, Thos. Martin, and the Misses French and Laurinda Sauber.

"Guest Night," the annual social event marking the close of the year for the Women's Library Club, was held Friday evening at the Library building, and in attendance as guests were members of the Women's Civic League and friends of the Library Club members. A list of those attending includes Mrs. C. K. Seitz, Mrs. Ida Bean, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Stearns, Mrs. E. W. Gowen, Mrs. O. D. Matthews, Mrs. W. T. Forrest, Mrs. Chas. E. Worden, Mrs. Robert Savidge, Mrs. Russell A. Alford, Mrs. Benedict, Mrs. Glenn Johnson, Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mrs. J. McClure, Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, Mrs. Cora A. Sanderson, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. J. Clark, Mrs. E. B. Morrill, Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, Mrs. Louis H. Bath, Mrs. Joe Moore, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Leavitt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Stewart, Mrs. A. Bainter, Miss Marjorie McClure, Miss Gertrude Moore, Miss Alma Schrodel-Secht, Miss Elizabeth Houston, Miss Lorinda Sauber, Miss Elizabeth McCurdy, Miss Harriett Elbel, Miss Anna Green, Miss Eola A. Hawkins, Rollo C. Groesbeck, Arthur D. Hay and Charles W. Sherman Sr. Two delightful numbers rendered were vocal solos by Miss Houston and Mr. Hay. Both of these young singers have excellent voices, and their renditions were heartily applauded. Of great interest was the talk by Rollo C. Groesbeck on the theme, "The Human Derelict," in which he brought out some good object lessons. Following this program an informal reception and reunion was held, and later in the evening a splendid luncheon was served to the guests.

One of the most enjoyable events of the past week was the party given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Charles E. Worden at her beautiful home in Hot Springs addition, when she was hostess to a number of women in honor of Mrs. Harry Caden, who left this morning for Portland. At the close of the pleasant afternoon a delicious luncheon was served. Those assisting Mrs. Worden in serving were Mrs. John J. Maehl, Mrs. Kip Van Riper, Mrs. Burge W. Mason and Mrs. Chamberlain. The guests were Mrs. Lena Mason-Pease, Mrs. Melissa S. Sargent, Mrs. Alma Harris, Mrs. Grace J. Lyons, Mrs. William A. Wright, Mrs. John A. McLean, Mrs. H. P. Dow, Mrs. Roxanna P. Wilson, Mrs. Willis E. Faught, Mrs. W. A. Delzell, Mrs. Maxwell M. Long, Mrs. Harriett Roberts, Mrs. Harry C. Telford, Mrs. J. B. Mason, Mrs. E. S. Phillips, Mrs. Farry Caden, Mrs. J. C. Beach, Mrs. W. S. Slough, Mrs. Curtis C. Heidrick, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. R. Vance Hutchins, Mrs. Kip Van Riper, Mrs. John J. Maehl, Mrs. George Chamberlain, Mrs. S. P. Lowery, Mrs. Fred Garich, Mrs. Emma Talbot, Mrs. Emma Worden, Mrs. Mae C. Mason, Miss Lorinda Sauber, Miss Myrtle Maddox, Miss Margaret Pease, Master Benjamin Wilson and Major Charles E. Worden.

Mrs. Bert E. Withrow was hostess to the Leisure Hour Club at her home on Lincoln street Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was pleasantly spent by the guests playing 500, and a dainty luncheon was served. In attendance at the party were Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mrs. O. W. Robertson, Mrs. Earl Whitlock, Mrs. Charles Meldrum, Mrs. Henry Newnam, Mrs. C. I. Robertson, Mrs. Will Houston, Mrs. Carey Ramsby, Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mrs. William P. ohnson, Mrs. L. McDonald, Mrs. John C. Cleghorn, Mrs. C. H. Withrow, Mrs. Maxwell Long, Miss Harris and Miss Cleghorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Stewart are entertaining Eastern friends, Miss Harriett Ebel and Miss Anna Green. These young ladies are from South Bend, Ind., and are here to spend the summer months with the Stewarts.

Mrs. O. H. Hunter and child, who have been visiting the former's parents in Chicago for several months, have returned to Klamath Falls. Mrs. Hunter was accompanied by her sister, Miss Madeline Heck, who will spend the summer here.

Members of the Jiu-Ni-Yel Club and a few invited friends spent a highly enjoyable afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clarence O. Morgan Tuesday, there being present Mrs. Henry Bol-vin, Mrs. Henry L. Benson, Mrs. Henry Newnam, Miss Stewart, Mrs. Thos. Hampton, Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mrs. E. J. Stewart, Mrs. I. Jay Knapp, Mrs. Silas Obenchain, Mrs. George R. Manning, Mrs. George T. Baldwin, Mrs. A. D. Miller, Mrs. S. S. Henley and Mrs. Frank Ward. The afternoon was spent in playing 500. A feature of the gathering was a delightful luncheon served by the hostess.

Members of Mrs. Arnold's class of Grace M. E. Sunday school and a number of invited guests enjoyed a moonlight excursion Tuesday evening, when they drove to Pelican City, inspected the Pelican Bay Lumber company's big sawmill there, and were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Woods. Several hours were thus spent by the party, and it was well toward midnight when the excursionists returned. Members of the party were Miss Dorothy Masten, Miss Vera Schmeizer, Miss Clara Calkins, Miss Vera Wood, Miss Aurd Roberts, Miss Lucille Waldron, Miss Lois Jacob, Roy King, Mrs. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Walton, Miss Beatrice Walton, Miss Katherine Walton, Rev. and Mrs. Geo. H. Feese, Miss Elsie Orem, Miss Maysel Sanderson, Miss Nina Noel, Miss Fern Wood, Miss Helen Hibberts, Harry Anglin and Stanley Wood.

GUARDS EXCLUDE NAUGHTY SUFFS

CLIMAX OF ASCOT WEEK FESTIVITIES IS GARDEN PARTY GIVEN AT WINDSOR BY GEORGE AND MARY

WINDSOR, England, June 21.—Under the watchful scrutiny of several hundred Scotland Yarders, 6,000 persons today attended the brilliant garden party at Windsor arranged by King George and Queen Mary as a climax to the festivities of Ascot Week.

Reports for several days past that the suffragettes would attempt a demonstration were the occasions of extraordinary precautions to prevent the admission of any unauthorized persons. All were required to present their invitation cards at the big gate, but in fear that some tickets might be transferred or even forged, detectives shadowed everyone whose identity was not known to the gate officials and concerning whom there was the very slightest reason for suspicion.

In addition to their majesties and members of the cabinet were at all times practically surrounded by small squads of Scotland Yard officials in the guise of guests, while an unusually large force of uniformed police were on hand about the grounds.

The guests, who included almost the entire membership of parliament, the diplomatic corps and leaders of European society, were brought from London by special train. The new democratic American Ambassador, W. H. Page, in orthodox silk hat and "Prince Albert," with most of the embassy staff, enjoyed his first taste of royal hospitality. Queen Mary presided over the tea urn in the royal tent, and Dr. Page was one of the few who took their tea from her hands.

The Prince of Wales and a few of his Oxford friends were present, the prince having come home for his 19th birthday celebration on the 23d.

PERKINS LOOKS FOR INDICTMENT

CHICAGO, June 20.—"I firmly believe that I am on my way to the penitentiary. That is the policy of the United States towards the big corporations," said George Perkins, who testified at the Harvester trust investigation here.

"The United States discourages industry and enterprise. It believes in putting in jail the men who have created the industries."

Perkins told the United Press that he expects to be indicted and prosecuted for criminal violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Western A. A. U. Meet

ST. LOUIS, June 21.—Records were expected to be broken this afternoon when more than 300 athletes compete in the Western A. A. U. championship games on Christian Brothers' College campus.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

(Written for the United Press) When a chic bathing girl With a waterproof curl And a costume that's strictly marine; Trips in for a lave, With her hair in a wave, She goes out to sea and be seen.

NEW YORK, June 20.—If you want to be an ocean swell, a bathing suit that is nautical but nice is most appropriately built of sea blue moire. This watered silk lends itself with charming aptitude to a dip in the briny. With a sailor collar of white moire, a slightly bloused waist and short sleeves cuffed in the white, the distinctive feature of this little bathing suit is its pleated skirt. For a too slender figure, whose angularity is often over exposed at the shore, this pleated skirt model is an ample disguise. Another smart moire bath frock is of cool, slate gray, its monotone being relieved by a wide sash and collar of old blue polka dotted in cerise.

The bathing cap to match is shaped like a Quaker colf, with a turn back cuff of the polka dotted trimming framing the face. Satin bathing sandals and hose of gray complete an outfit fit to lure old Neptune from the depths.

For a buxom bather a blue and green striped taffeta buttoning with jade disks straight from the V-shaped throat to the knee length hem gives a good long line. A little collar of filet lace outlines the neck and sleeves are long, proclaiming the triumph of "style" over comfort.

Satin, messaline, poplin, taffeta, mohair, sateen and moire silk are all popular materials for the bathing suit a la mode. Now the craze for silk crape has even broken into the water. Perfectly stunning costumes for the surf are constructed of this clinging fabric. One of a soft raising shade is made with a Russian blouse and a collar, cuffs and wide belt of glowing Bulgarian embroidery.

The black bathing suit is a perennial favorite. Livened with touches of white, it is always smart. A model that turns its wearer into a veritable silhouette is of black tussor with a tiny vest and Byronic collar of white bengaline. An original black poplin is cut with a bolero with the front of black and white plaid taffeta, and the collar, cuffs and girdle checked up the same.

Though bathing suits refrain from a too pronounced riot of color, the bathing turbans this season run the gamut of vivid brilliancy. Cunning all rubber caps come in every bright hue and shape, and the silk covered ones are polka dotted and treated with cubist dyes and designs. Old Ocean's heaving bosom will seem to be sporting a boquet of hothouse blooms when these giddy, bright caps top the whit caps. While most of the cap modes conform to the regulation Dutch cap, tam and turban shapes, there is for the modern mermaid a new small brimmed hat of waterproof silk stitched like the little silk and linen hats for dry land sports. It is banded in a scarf of Futurist tendency.

"Betsy, the Belle of the Bathers," in lieu of going in for her trophy belt of scalps this season, sports buttons on her bathing suit instead. Her divers swains are called upon for a pearl button, each engraved with the respective monogram of the donor. Thus she is enabled to keep her affections and her bathing suit well buttoned all at the same time. With a record of shattered hearts to find their way eventually into the button bag of discard.

It seems indeed a pity that the French custom of bathing sans skirt should be taboo over here. The supple jersey and trunks of the Parisian mermaids are much more chic and sensible for disporting in the waves than all the excess of fashion the American water nymph piles on. Rather the American bather herself for a sand and sun bath than an aquatic one. Too often her fetching attire will bear no closer proximity to the wet than a stroll along the sand. 'Tis a sad fact that most of the smartest bathing suits will not bear bathing at all.

A dip in the brine Is all very fine In a bathing suit built for immersion; But one's more a peach All dry on the beach If one's togs shring from waves with aversion.
