

SOCIAL LEADERS BLAMED FOR THE WHISKEY HABIT

SAYS BRYAN IS A GREAT MORAL LEADER

Priest, Opening Convention of Total Abstemers in Philadelphia. Says the Men and Women of Social Prominence are Responsible for the Liquor Evil, and He Holds that Only Education can Eradicate It

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 6.—"The saloon men do not make the nation's customs, and neither do the workmen or the merchants or middle class. It is the society leader," said Father O'Galligan, opening the convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence League, in which he discussed the liquor habit.

"President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan are doing a splendid educational and moral work in refusing to countenance the drinking habit in Washington, especially at state and social affairs.

"Without question, Bryan is one of the greatest moral leaders in the world."

Klamath Falls Girl Becomes Bride

The Stewart residence on Ewauna Heights was the scene of a beautiful home wedding Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock, when Miss Marjorie Stewart became Mrs. John Pelton. Rev. Sheerin officiated, using the beautiful and impressive Episcopal nuptial rites.

The bride was charmingly gowned in a creation of white crepe de chene, trimmed with shadow lace and tulle. After the wedding an elaborate array of refreshments were served in the dining room, at which spread were Rev. and Mrs. Sheerin, Miss Ida Momyer, Miss Lillian Stults, Miss Liza Stults, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Morgan, Miss Florence Morgan, Miss Frances Freuer, R. D. Wagoner, Miss Molly Stewart, Miss Gertrude Stewart, Mrs. E. J. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. John Pelton.

The bride, one of Klamath Falls' most popular young ladies, was employed at the First National bank, a position she resigned to prepare for her wedding. The bridegroom is a prominent dentist of Chicago.

The happy couple left here on the evening's train for Chicago, where they will make their future home.

Chas. S. Hamlin, a well known man of Boston, is a candidate for the position of assistant secretary of the treasury.

For dressmakers and tailors there has been invented a gauge to hold material for sewing, ripping, ironing and many other purposes, leaving its user's hands free.

STATE POWDER WORKS WANTED

WASHINGTON FARMERS SAY THIS WOULD EASILY SOLVE THE QUESTION OF GETTING LAND UNDER THE PLOW

SEATTLE, Aug. 6.—Organizations of farmers throughout the state of Washington today sent to Governor Lister a petition urging an immediate passage of legislation which will establish a state powder factory. A $60,000 appropriation was made by the last legislature, but additional legislation, the farmers declare, is necessary to make the proposed factory of real aid to them. The ranchmen and others interested declare that such a factory would reduce the cost of powder to be utilized for blowing up stumps and rock formations from $13 and $14 per hundred pounds, to about $5 and $6.

MRS. MOORE IS BURIED TODAY

MOTHER OF MRS. G. W. WHITE IS LAID TO REST IN THE ODD FELLOWS CEMETERY THIS MORN- ING BY REV. STUBBLEFIELD

The funeral of Mrs. Clara Moore of Oklahoma, who died early Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. W. White was held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from the White residence in Hot Springs Addition. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. S. Stubblefield, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

A long cortege followed the remains to their last resting place in Odd Fellows cemetery.

GIRL IS SCALDED WITH HOT WATER

DAUGHTER OF MRS. IDA FINK IS BADLY, BUT NOT SERIOUSLY, INJURED WHILE LIFTING A PAN OF WATER

Josephine Fink, daughter of Mrs. Ida Fink, was scalded on the thighs and knees this morning when attempting to lift a pan of hot water.

The injury, according to Dr. White, while painful, is not serious.

OFFICIAL VISITS BISHOP'S PLACE

SPECIAL EMISSARY FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICUL- TURE VIEWS MUCH FOUGHT FOR HOMESTEAD

As the result of the visit of a special representative of the department of agriculture this week, a speedy end is expected for the fight for an Upper Lake homestead, which has been waged for several years between the forestry service and B. St. George Bishop.

The fight is as to whether the land is agricultural or timber, each side having a different contention. The matter was taken up before Secretary Houston by Congressmen Hawley and Sinnott a short time ago, and a special representative was sent to make a personal inspection. He left Tuesday for Washington.

HUCKLEBERRIES GETTING RIPE

(Special Correspondence)
KLAMATH AGENCY, Aug. 6.—One party has already left for the huckleberry patch on Huckleberry Mountain. This early ripening of the berries means a hard winter, as it is too early for the berries to ripen yet.

There have been many visitors on the reservation from all points on the Coast. The main object of the visits is fishing.

Hans Nylander, foreman of the irrigation camp, has resigned. Many others have done so, too. It looks now as though it will be a long time before the work is finished. There are only a few men at work now, most of them having left for the hay fields.

Billy Crawford, a well known stock man of the reservation, completed his haying last week.

Edwin Wilson has returned from a trip to the Klamath Marsh. He reports plenty of grass there. The Arizona cattle that are feeding in his pasture, he says, are doing fine.

Russian figures place the average number of occupants of a house at eight in London, 48 in Vienna, 50 in Berlin and 52 in Moscow and St. Petersburg.

LIND SAYS HE DOESN'T WANT PERMANENT JOB

WHITE HOUSE MARKING TIME UNTIL HE REPORTS

Members of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations Brand as Falseness the Report That the Appointment of Minnesotan as Ambassador Was Made Against Their Will—Americans Reported Imprisoned

MINNEAPOLIS, Wis., Aug. 6.—John Lind, who was named as ambassador to Mexico, has written a friend here that he will not accept the permanent ambassadorship under any circumstances.

He expects to complete his work of investigating as soon as possible, and return to Washington.

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 6.—The president is marking time in connection with the Mexican situation until Ambassador Lind reaches the capital of Mexico and reports.

Members of the senate committee on foreign relations are incensed at the report that they were angered because Lind was named.

The members insist that the entire committee was named before the appointment was made.

The state department has not been officially advised regarding the reported imprisonment of five Americans by the Chihuahua City federal sympathizers. Bryan is making an investigation.

PEACE COMMISSIONERS FEAR THAT THE CLAUSE REGARDING CIVIL AND RELIGIOUS LIBERTY IS TO AID JEWS

BUCHAREST, Aug. 6.—The members of the peace commission who are endeavoring to settle the Balkan controversy show no disposition to reconsider the rejection of the request made by the United States that the peace treaty contain a guarantee of civil and religious liberty in the territory affected.

The commissioners construe the request to be an effort in behalf of the Jewish race.

PINNED UNDER AUTO; DROWNS

AUTO TURNING TURTLE IN IRRIGATION DITCH RESULTS IN THE DEATH OF ONE OF THE PARTY RETURNING FROM DANCE

United Press Service
FRESNO, Aug. 6.—Miss Nellie Stimson, aged 18 years, drowned in an irrigation ditch while pinned under an automobile this morning.

The girl and three companions were returning from a dance when the automobile turned turtle by striking the ditch. The other three were slightly injured.

Bottle Blowers in Session MARION, Ind., Aug. 6.—With delegates from all over the United States and Canada in session, the Glass Bottle Blowers' Association of the United States and Canada met here today in annual session. Higher wages and better working conditions will be demanded of their employers if a resolution introduced is passed by the convention.

WALKER GETS 3--20 YEARS

MAN CONVICTED OF ASSAULTING HIS SISTER-IN-LAW IS GRANT- ED A STAY, PENDING MOTION FOR RE-TRIAL

Chas. Walker was on Wednesday sentenced to serve from three to twenty years in the state penitentiary, following his conviction on a statutory charge preferred by his sister-in-law, 15-year-old Oakie Coburn.

Attorney C. M. O'Neill for Walker asked for a stay of execution to allow the preparation of a motion for a new trial. This was granted by Circuit Judge Benson.

RIOTERS DESTROY CANTON PROPERTY

AFTER THE DISAPPEARANCE OF THE GOVERNOR OF THE PROV- INCE, MURDER, LOOT AND TER- ROR REIGN

PEKIN, Aug. 6.—Reports late today from Hongkong tell of rioting in Canton by the rebels.

After Governor Chan disappeared, the revolting soldiers took possession of the city, murdering officials and ransacking the treasury.

WOMAN PRISONER TAKES HER LIFE

WITH HUSBAND WAS SERVING 700 DAY SENTENCE—IN NOTE SHE SAYS SHE COULD NOT STAND THE DISGRACE

SANTA CRUZ, Aug. 6.—Mrs. Minnie Miller, wife of Dr. C. A. Miller of Boulder Creek, who with her husband was serving a 100-day jail sentence for disturbing the peace, committed suicide this morning at the county jail.

The woman left a note protesting her innocence, and saying that she could not stand the disgrace. Making a rope out of a blanket she hanged herself on a bar in her cell.

FOSS' WORKERS WANT INCREASE

EMPLOYES OF MASSACHUSETTS GOVERNOR ARE MARCHING TO- WARD STATE HOUSE WHEN POLICE INTERCEPT

BOSTON, Aug. 6.—Fifty state police this afternoon intercepted 100 strikers from Governor Foss' Hyde Park foundries, marching through the streets on the way to the state house. They demand that they be given a public hearing by the state board of conciliation and arbitration.

The strikers carried placards marked "We Want Living Wages."

Many club women have asked that Atlantic City appoint women to police the board walk. It is said to have the only woman comptroller in the country, and her success has made the plan to appoint women police seem more attractive.

TAR BABY WILL SCRAP JOHNSON

BOSTON, Sam Langford's manager today confirmed the report that his boxer is to meet Jack Johnson in a twenty-round bout at Paris this fall. Johnson has been guaranteed $30,000. Langford will get a quarter of the gross receipts.

PUBLIC LIBRARY POPULAR PLACE

MORE THAN THIRTEEN HUNDRED VISITORS WERE THERE DUR- ING THE MONTH OF JULY, AC- CORDING TO REPORT

The following report has been rendered for the public library for July: Number of visitors, 1,308.

Circulation of books, 287.

Following is a partial list of the periodicals to be found on the reading table:

Evening Herald, Northwestern, San Francisco Chronicle, Morning Oregonian, Cosmopolitan, Review of Reviews, Good Housekeeping, Everybody's, Current Opinion, Literary Digest, Colliers, Ladies' Home Journal, American Boy, Life, Youths' Companion, St. Nicholas, Delineator, McCalls, Saturday Evening Post, Travel, Pearsons, Scientific American.

Catholic Abstainers Meet PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 6.—Following the formal opening of the convention of the National Catholic Total Abstinence Union with solemn pontifical mass at the cathedral, several thousand delegates from every section of the country settled down to business this afternoon for a three-day session.

HOUSE WANTS A CHANCE AT HIM

MULHALL PROTESTS WHEN HE LEARNS THAT HE IS SLATED FOR ANOTHER LOBBYIST OBE- FOR ANOTHER APPEARANCE IN LOBBYIST PROBE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 6.—It was announced today that members of the house lobby probe committee expect to examine Colonel M. M. Mulhall, the confessed lobbyist.

Mulhall protested that he was worn out as a result of his long appearance before the senate committee, and he demanded a rest. He was excused until Monday.

It is asserted that Mulhall has fifteen more files of letters containing "important political information."

ONE COMPANY IS NOW ON DUTY

NO FURTHER TROUBLE IS EX- PECTED IN HOP FIELDS—A THOUSAND PICKERS HAVE LEFT SINCE SUNDAY

WHEATLAND, Calif., Aug. 6.—Adjutant General Forbers and one company of militia remain here to watch the situation. No further trouble is expected.

More than a thousand hop pickers have left the fields since Sunday. This may result in a delay in harvesting.

Contests for King George Cup COWES, Isle of Wight, Aug. 6.—The King George cup, the most coveted yachting prize of the empire, was the chief event of today's racing in the famous regatta, which is attended by King George and Queen Mary and King Alphonse and his queen.

Secretary Daniels Back

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 6.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels returned to Washington today after a coast-to-coast inspection of the United States navy yards and naval stations. The secretary has visited nearly every station and navy yard in the country, and he said today that he was "full of ideas" to submit to congress next December in connection with his requests for appropriations.

Brown Michael is in from Yonka Valley.

VISIT OF ESPEE OFFICIALS SETS RUMORS AFLOAT

RIGHT OF WAY AGENT IS ON THE WAY HERE

H. P. Hoey, Chief Construction Engineer of the Southern Pacific, Denies That His Presence Here and the Coming Visit of J. L. Buell Have Any Significance in Connection With Klamath Falls-Natron Cutoff

Announcement that H. P. Hoey, chief construction engineer for the Southern Pacific is here, and that J. L. Buell, right of way agent for the company is on his way here, has caused a lot of rumors to arise as to the probable cause of their presence here.

According to Mr. Hoey, the advent of himself and Mr. Buell has no connection with the construction of the Klamath Falls-Natron cutoff. He says he came here from his summer ranch at Crescent Lake to inspect the crossings being put in over the Modoc Point irrigation canal at Chillicothe by Engineer C. H. Beatty.

"Mr. Buell is accompanied by his family," said Mr. Hoey, "and their trip, by automobile, is merely to revisit their former residence at the time the construction department's headquarters were in Klamath Falls."

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Martin Jr. and Alex Martin III, who formerly resided here, are accompanying the Buell party, which, it is said, includes three automobiles.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO ENTERTAIN SECRETARY LANE

A meeting of the directors of the Klamath Chamber of Commerce was held Tuesday afternoon, when plans were discussed for the entertainment of the Central Oregon Development League, which meets in Klamath Falls August 19, 20 and 21.

Reservations are being requested from all over the state for accommodations during the meeting, and it is believed that there will be an enormous gathering at that time.

A committee was appointed to arrange for a delegation to go to Crater Lake and meet Secretary Lane of the interior department. It will also have charge of his entertainment during his stay in Klamath county.

Another committee was appointed to arrange for a delegation to attend the barbecue at La Pine this coming Saturday. Several parties have already signified their intention of going, among them being Judge W. S. Worden, Commissioner Hagelstein, Sheriff C. C. Low and Syd Evans and party.

It is possible that President Savidge of the Chamber of Commerce and Secretary Wyde will attend.

Some of the party will leave Klamath Falls Friday evening, and spend the night at Fort Klamath, leaving there Saturday morning. Others will not leave until Saturday morning, as they will be able to reach La Pine by noon.

CURRENCY BILL THRU SEPT. 15

FATHER OF HOUSE'S SHARE OP THE JOINT MEASURE SETS THE LATEST POSSIBLE DATE FOR ITS ADOPTION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 6.—Congressman Glass today predicted that the house would pass his currency reform bill by September 15th at the latest.

The fight will be opened in the house Friday, when Congressman Ragsdale advocates an "agricultural currency plan."

It is expected that the democratic caucus over the bill will last a week at least.