WILSON ADMITS THAT HE HAD GRAVE FEARS

On Account of a Demonstration by Students, Interest was Detracted From the Arrival of Ambassador—Executive Admits He Feared Lind's Life Was in Danger—Lind Confers With O'Shaughnessy.

United Press Service

PORT LEAVENWORTH, Kans., Aug. 11.—There is unusual activity at the barracks today. It is believed that the troops are preparing for a quick move.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 11.—Ambassador John Lind today conferred with Embassy Secretary Miles O'Shaughnessy.

The lack of interest shown in the arrival of Lind was due to a student demonstration favoring Huerta, which was then in progress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 11.—While the situation is still grave, President Wilson and Secretary Bryan believe that the worst is past in Mexico.

Now that the most imminent danger is over, Bryan and Wilson admit that Lind's life was for a time thought to be in danger. Bryan sat at his desk until 1:40 this morning, refusing to leave until he had official word of Lind's safe arrival.

No further steps will be taken to carry out the plans of the administration for peace in Mexico until Lind completes his investigations.

He will make it plain that the United States cannot recognize Huerta under any circumstances, and will do everything to induce Americans to leave Mexico.

Unostentatiously, the work of getting the Americans started homeward is progressing. Already there is danger of outrages to Americans.

In the meantime the army and navy are ready.

CANUCK COWBOYS GATHER FOR MEET

CHAP AND SPURS PREDOMINATE AT WINNIPEG, WHERE THE BIG "STAMPEDE" STARTS OPERATIONS TODAY

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, Aug. 9.—Winnipeg today resembled a conglomeration of all the Wild West moving picture films that have been thrown on the canvas since the movies were first shown. Cowboys and cowgirls crowded the hotel lobbies and cafes, their jingling spurs breaking in upon the music of the orchestra. Unruly steers and rough looking ponies were herded through the streets. Dozens of "bad men," types of the days of '49, thronged the sidewalks.

It was the "stamped" of the crack cowpunchers, ropers, riders, riflemen and women marksmen who for six days will produce the greatest Wild West show ever, under the auspices of the Canadian government. The plainsmen came from nearly every ranch of Western Canada, and from as far south as Arizona and Texas to compete in the big arena, which seats 75,000 spectators. Fully 50,000 visitors are in Winnipeg today, and this number will be increased by 10,000 more before the program closes. It is expected the spectacle will be the greatest Wild West venture ever held in America.

Men known all over the cattle country of the Northwest are here for the sport, swapping tales of the '70's that would make Buffalo Bill and Kit Carson blush. "Turkey Track" Tony Day was the center of a crowd that saw him pointed out with awe wherever he went today. "Turkey Track" is a solid resident of Southern Alberta now. Years ago, when Indians were thicker by thousands than the book agents are now, "Turkey Track," according to the veterans who know him, wasn't such a solid resident, but as daredevil and courageous as a "bad man" as ever threw leg over a horse's back.

There were others almost as noted—but with not so many notches on their guns—who came to town in "cit's clothing," and who looked anything like the characters they were twenty years ago. In the shooting events, scores of the "old boys" were entered, but the younger men had the roping contests and trick riding competitions all to themselves. Gold medals and prizes aggregating $15,000 are on deposit at a local bank, and will be distributed when the "Stampede" is concluded.

CITY CHARTER IS UPHELD BY MAN

ONLY MINOR CHANGES ARE ASKED

Bonding House Which Offered a Premium for Twenty-Year Six Per Cent Issue Sends Form of Blank Bond for Approval—Part of the Issue Will Be Taken by the First National Bank of This City

The following report on the validity of the city's $76,793 refunding bond issue has been received by the successful bidders, the Security Savings and Trust company of Toledo from William H. Koose, their attorney:

"According to the transcript the above mentioned bonds are being issued for the purpose of funding the warrant indebtedness of said city. In my opinion there is authority under the charter of said city for the issuance of bonds for said purpose, and when the following additional data is furnished in satisfactory form, I will approve said bonds subject to proper execution in form of bond which I have prepared and herewith hand to you, viz:

"1.—A duly authenticated transcript of the record of proceedings of the common council of said city in the passage of an ordinance amending the ordinance of June 9, 1913, by providing that said bonds, both principal and interest, be payable at the fiscal agency of the state of Oregon in the city and state of New York, instead of at the office of the treasurer of said city in Klamath Falls.

"2.—Satisfactory evidence that there is no litigation pending or threatened directly or indirectly affecting the proceedings relating to the issuance of said bonds, nor any dispute, controversy or litigation affecting the validity of said bonds, or any of them."

This is the first bond issue made by the city under the new charter, and the action of the bonding house attorney proves without any doubt the validity of the measure governing municipal affairs. The changes asked by the attorney are minor matters, and can be attended to at this evening's meeting of the city council.

The company offered a premium of $386 for the issue, and agreed to furnish blank bonds. Since then they have agreed to let the First National bank of this city take $27,000 worth of the bonds at a premium.

SEVERAL BILLS ARE UNDER FIRE

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 11.—Some of the most important measures passed at the recent session of the legislature were attacked today in referendum petitions filed here against the redlight abatement act, the workmen's compensation measure, the employers' liability act and the blue sky law.

The petitions were filed in the office of the secretary of state. Today was the last day set last January by Secretary of State Jordan for the filing of the petitions. Of more than 2,000 bills passed by the last legislature, more than 1,000 failed to become laws because Governor Johnson vetoed them, or refused to sign them.

EDITOR OF AMERICAN GARMENT REVIEW — PREDICTS EXCLUSIVE AMERICAN STYLES BEFORE LONG

LONDON, Aug. 8.—That street-walkers of Paris are setting the styles for the women and girls of America, and that the latter are unwittingly following these styles because they are Paris gowns, is the conclusion reached by Rudolph Cony, editor of the "Garment Review," of Chicago, who after several weeks special study of styles in Paris, sailed today for New York.

"It took me just about two days in Paris to get at the root of this wild orgy en dishabille in which so many perfectly respectable women are indulging," said Cony today. "The demi-mondaines of Paris are dictating the styles to us, and the hired models of the great dressmaking firms are helping the women of the United States along to what, if the craze continues, will end in practical nudity—provided the weather isn't too cold.

"Here is the way it works: A buyer goes to Paris looking for something new and novel. What he particularly wants is something distinctively Parisian, so when he sees a pretty woman in the Rue de la Paix, at Longchamps, or some such place, wearing a strange but exceedingly daring gown, probably split half way to the waist, and showing the woman's form as plainly as if she were nude or wore tight only, he immediately makes note of the vision. Then he sees other gowns which reveal even more of the wearer's form than the split skirt, and not knowing that these lingers are merely members of the underworld, he gets his ideas together, goes to a designer and has his ideas worked out.

"What will be the end of this orgy America will set her own styles. It won't be in a day, but it is bound to come. It may not come for twenty years—unless the present tendency to half nakedness on the part of our women continues. It would only take half as long if the tendency next year is to go this year a little better—or rather a little worse—in the matter of exhibiting parts of the female form which have hitherto remained concealed.

"It isn't always daring styles which will hurry the time when America sets her own mode of dress. The hideous harem skirt of some years back was a Paris blunder which set the time up five years. There is really no reason why America shouldn't set the styles. We do it in shoes and clothes. No well dressed Frenchman wears English shoes now, and few of them wear English suits.

"The whole attitude of American women toward French styles is a foolish one. If they would sit down and analyze the question, and were fair with themselves and the American designers and makers, they would see how perfectly ridiculous they sometimes make themselves."

TAPPAN RELEASE CAUSES DISGUST

ACTION OF YREKA AND RED BLUFF AUTHORITIES IN CASE OF INHUMAN FATHER IS CONDEMNED HERE

The action of the authorities of Siskiyou county in liberating John DeWitt Tappan, held there on a charge of assaulting his little children, and of the Red Bluff authorities in refusing to take the man in custody on a similar crime alleged to have occurred there, is the cause of much unfavorable comment in Klamath Falls.

Tappan was arrested here upon a complaint of his wife, after she had heard from her little daughters the story of their father's conduct toward them and after her 18-months-old baby was taken to the infirmary here, a victim to his depravity. Since then the infant died.

As nothing had happened in this county on which Tappan could be held, he was sent to Yreka, near where the girls claimed their father had wronged them, to be tried for his terrible crime. When the baby died, the coroner's jury here held the father directly responsible for its death.

Saturday, instead of holding Tappan to the grand jury, the Siskiyou county authorities liberated him.

BURSCOUGH TO BE ARRAIGNED

INJURED WOMAN IS RECOVERING RAPIDLY

In His Cell, He Says He Remembers Nothing in Connection With His Terrorizing of the Camp With a Butcher Knife—Says He and His Wife Have Never Quarreled—Mrs. Burscough Will Be Brought Here

On Monday afternoon Fred Burscough, who after terrorizing a road crew, cut his wife with a butcher knife, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Gowen. He is charged with assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to kill.

Burscough a few nights ago, while employed as cook in the C. D. Willson road camp near Fort Klamath, grasped a huge butcher knife and started toward members of the crew, causing them all to flee. Overtaking his wife, Burscough stabbed her in the side with the weapon.

Following this, he attempted to drown himself in Seven Mile Creek, and later, when taken to the Fort Klamath jail, he set that structure on fire, and nearly suffocated from the smoke. He was then brought here.

According to sheriff's office attaches, Burscough maintains that he remembers nothing at all regarding the affair which terminated in his arrest. He and his wife were happy when they conducted the Northern Cafe here two years ago, and the prisoner says they have had no trouble at all. Today Burscough asked for an attorney, and Fred Mills was summoned.

Mrs. Burscough, who it was at first thought was injured fatally, is recovering nicely. Word has been received here that she will be brought to Klamath Falls tomorrow. The date of holding the preliminary hearing depends upon the rapidity of her recovery.
