1,100 ARIZONA CATTLE ARRIVE IN KLAMATH

Eleven hundred head of cattle, said by local stockmen to be the best looking shipment ever received here, came in from Arizona, where they were purchased by D. M. McLemore. Mr. McLemore spent some time in Arizona, getting the most desirable stock for shipment to the Klamath range.

Luke Walker, who accompanied the shipment from Arizona, declares that the stock suffered from severe jams and joltings while on the cars in the Los Angeles yards. Three head were killed outright there, and by the time the cattle were unloaded at Midland, twenty-one head were lost from the shake-up.

Included in the shipment were 150 one-year-old heifers. All have white faces, and all are just alike in size, color, etc.

This lot was taken to the Ankeny ranch. Yesterday D. M. Griffith of Eagle Ridge saw them there, and he was so taken up with them that he immediately negotiated with McLemore for their purchase. They will be taken to Eagle Ridge Friday, and Griffith is highly elated at securing such a fine dairy herd.

The remainder of the cattle will be kept at Midland on pasture for a while. Tomorrow they will be vaccinated.

AUTO RACE HAS

A FATAL ENDING

DRIVER, MECHANIC AND GIRL ARE KILLED WHEN STUDEBAKER CRASHES INTO CROWD OF SPECTATORS

CORONA, Calif., Sept. 9.—William Rhoades, driving a Studebaker, Mechanician Crawford for the car, and an unidentified girl were killed during a light car race this afternoon, when Rhoades lost control of the car and it ran into a group of spectators.

The race was won by Waterman in a Buick.

JURY TRIAL IN CASE OF KNAPP AGAINST CITY

Circuit Judge Benson on Tuesday ordered that the suit of I. Jay Knapp against the city to recover $750 alleged due for city hall plans, be tried before a jury. A motion to this effect was made Monday by City Attorney Rutenic, and was taken under advisement by Benson.

Just when the case will be tried is not known at present.

"There are two or three small cases on the docket wherein jurors are required," said Judge Benson. "There are twenty veniremen available, and they are all farmers. As they are busy right now, harvesting one of the best crops they have enjoyed, I cannot see why we should summon them from their work for two or three small cases. When there are enough jury cases to justify this, I'll summon the jurors."

Knapp is suing for $750 for a set of plans drawn while the late F. T. Sanderson was mayor. Last evening Fred H. Mills, his attorney, offered to settle with the council for $500.

"Knapp has seen fit to take the matter to court," said Mayor Nicholas. "The city had better let him get what he can from that source rather than pay a questionable bill."

"There is no record on the journal of any authority from the city council to enter into a contract with Mr. Knapp for these plans. Besides, instead of the plans, Mr. Knapp only submitted a pencil sketch. This may have been approved by individual members of the council, but no action by the council as a whole is shown in the journal."

"If the city can try to hide behind the law to dodge paying this bill, I am surprised," said Mills. "It's worse than taking bread from a baby. The man furnished the plans honestly, and he should be paid."

No action was taken toward settling by the council. The members all held that as long as Knapp had carried the matter into the courts the city should fight it out there.

BEQUESTS $2,000 TO THE POSTAL SERVICE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 10.—Acceptance by congress of a bequest of $2,000 made under one of the most unique and unusual conditions in the government's history, is a problem facing congress and the postoffice department today.

That the postal money order system be officially and legally recognized as the "child" and legatee of a deceased government official has been solemnly recommended to congress by Third Assistant Postmaster General Dockery. For eleven years the bequest has been available. Now the postoffice department recommends that the money be accepted and used as a trust fund, in accordance with the will of the donor.

Dr. C. F. McDonald, formerly of Boston, the "father" of the money order system, is the government's benefactor. He died in 1902, leaving $2,000 to Uncle Sam for the extension and betterment of the federal service.

For eleven years lawyers of the department of justice, the postoffice department and congress have been unable to decide what to do with the money. A treasury draft for the legacy has lain idle in the office of the chief clerk of the postoffice department since that time. Now it is proposed that congress formally pass a law accepting the money and appoint a commission for its use as directed by the testator.

Dr. McDonald's will provides: "The sum of $2,000 to the secretary of the treasury for the service of the postoffice department, to be used by the postmaster general in such way as he may deem expedient for the improvement of the postal money order system of the United States."

The will was duly probated and the $2,000 turned over to the treasury department by the administrator of Dr. McDonald's estate. Legal sharps of the government read ponderous tomes and many long opinions, holding that the money order could not be accepted by Uncle Sam, although the money was already in the treasury, subject to the draft given the postoffice department. Succeeding administrations puzzled with the legacy, but could not touch it.

In 1905, Former Senator W. Murray Crane of Massachusetts, sought to solve the problem by attempting to have the $2,000 released by the government and turned over to a distant relative of Dr. McDonald, who was an

NEW PLAY IS GIVEN FOR MINISTERS

THEY DECLARE "THE LURE" IS NOT IMMORAL

Lawyers, Ministers, Sociologists, Suffragists and Critics Attend a Special Performance of Play Whose Performers Have Been Arrested by New York Magistrate—Weak Objection Made, Disturbers Ousted

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The management of the Maxine Elliott theater at 3 o'clock this morning gave a special performance of "The Lure" to convince critics, clergymen, lawyers, suffragists, sociologists and others that the bill is not immoral.

"The Lure" is a new play intended to reveal the truth of the "white slave" traffic.

"You wouldn't bring your mother or sister here," shouted a man in the audience.

"Yes I would. Here they are," retorted a famous physician and psychologist.

An uproar of applause and consternation followed. The police ejected the disturbers.

A minister present declared that every woman should witness the performance. Harriet Stanton Blatch spoke ten minutes, saying the play was a great moral lesson.

Warrants for the actors and producers call for their appearance before Magistrate McAdoo this afternoon. He arrested them, deeming this an objectionable.

The total mileage of state railroads in Italy June 30, 1912, was 8,286. Although 14.5 miles were added during the year, the same number of miles of road was abolished.

An official report recently issued gives $3 per week as the average wage of farm laborers in Ireland.

Employees of the postoffice department at Boston. The federal lawyers got busy again, and decided that this could not be done; they held that while the government could not accept or use the legacy, in the absence of legislation by congress neither could it give the money to McDonald's relative.

For seven years the matter was held in abeyance, with the $2,000 awaiting disposition. The knotty problem was a legacy officially "inherited" by the new democratic administration.

SECRETARY LANE HAS A COLLAPSE

INTERIOR DEPARTMENT HEAD ATTACKED BY HEART TROUBLE WHILE IN OAKLAND—AT HOME OF BROTHER

OAKLAND, Sept. 9.—Secretary of the Interior Franklin Lane collapsed while on the reviewing stand here this afternoon. This was due to heart trouble.

He was soon revived, after which he was taken to the home of his brother, Dr. Frederick Lane. Several physicians are in consultation.

Lane says he was unable to sleep last night.

New Armory Opens

The Ashland armory is now complete, and C. H. Veghte, the contractor, has received instructions to turn the keys over to the officers of First Company, C. A. C. The artillery boys were away at Fort Stevens, or the transfer would have been made a week ago. It is certainly a dandy, and well adapted to the uses for which it was designed. The workmanship is first class in every respect, and the material O. K. Mr. Veghte has done a job of which the city and state may be proud, as well as himself.—Ashland Tidings.

Build Own Roads

Again the county court has rejected the bids for the improvement of the road in the Pass Creek canyon, and will begin work at once rebuilding that road under the direction and plans of County Engineer Germond. Among the reasons for rejecting the bids is that the lowest bidder asked about ten months' time in which to complete the work, whereas it is almost imperative that the work be done before another winter.—Roseburg Review.

Every Day Was Friday.

Elmer and Mrs. French, L. N. and Mrs. Haynes, George Pingle, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Meyer and Mrs. Nicholson returned Monday from a wagon trip to Crater Lake. The party camped along the way, fished and hunted, and altogether put in five days on the trip. They caught and consumed so many trout that now the mere mention of fish makes them sick.

The municipal authorities of Berlin have forbidden men to smoke while driving automobiles, ruling that many accidents have been due to the practice.
