

HOW U. S. SENATORS "SPECIALIZE"

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 27.—Specialization is the order of the age, and members of the United States senate reflect that tendency. Most of them have their specialties in legislation. A rough compilation gives the following:

Warren, Wyoming, expert in making two appropriations grow where only one grew before; specialist in army post appropriations.

Norris, Nebraska, knows everything about coffee and the coffee trust.

James, Kentucky, Brany and Bryanism; democratic platforms.

Bacon, Georgia, foreign affairs.

Stone, Missouri, poor Lo; also waiters.

Vardeman, Mississippi, the negro question.

Smoot, Utah, wool and sugar.

Bristow, Kansas, sugar and the Dutch standard in the tariff bill.

Williams, Mississippi, sarcasm, Shakespeare and diction.

Works, California, peace.

Pittman, Nevada, mining and Nevada.

Martine, New Jersey, the "common people."

Chamberlain, Oregon, Alaska and Alaska railroads.

Ashurst and Fall, of Arizona and New Mexico, Mexico.

Penrose, Pennsylvania, Objections, Nelson, Minnesota, poor puns.

La Follette, Wisconsin, legislating, progressivism.

Lea, Tennessee, soft Southern accent.

Lodge, Massachusetts, cigarettes and literature.

Sheppard, Texas, effulgent eloquence.

The list might be made complete by listing the remaining senators as experts on constitutional law.

GRAVES BACK

Dr. A. C. Graves, osteopath, has returned from a trip through Southern California and Arizona. He left here with the intention of locating in the southland.

After spending several weeks investigating Phoenix, Flagstaff, Los Angeles and a number of other places he concluded to return to Klamath, as he could find no place with a more desirable climate, better resources and advantages.

He will at once open offices in the I. O. O. F. building, and will again engage in the practice of his profession.

Dr. Graves has a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, who are pleased to know that he has concluded to remain in Klamath Falls.

CHEAP FURNITURE

We are going to leave the city, and will sell furniture cheaper than was ever known in Klamath Falls. Come and see for yourself. Must close out in the next two weeks. Also have hotel range, player piano, cash register, safe and typewriter, cheap, and a good lot to trade for a team.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Klamath County.

Frederick Winstanley, Plaintiff, vs. F. E. Robinson and Minnie A. Robinson and E. L. Carver, Defendants.

To F. E. Robinson, Minnie A. Robinson and E. L. Carver, the Defendants Above Named:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You and each of you are hereby summoned to appear and answer the complaint filed in the above entitled suit within six weeks after the first publication of this summons; and you will take notice that if you fail to appear and answer or plead within the said time, the plaintiff, for want thereof, will apply to the above entitled court for the relief demanded in his complaint filed herein, to-wit:

For judgment against you for the sum of $1,000, with interest thereon from the 27th day of March, 1911, at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, computed and added to the principal as provided by the terms of the promissory note mentioned and described in the plaintiff's complaint filed herein; and for the additional sum of $200 as attorney's fees in this suit and for his costs and disbursements herein; and also for a decree foreclosing the mortgage described in the said complaint, to-wit: a mortgage dated upon the 27th day of September, 1909, for the sum of $1,000, made and executed by defendants F. E. Robinson and Minnie A. Robinson, upon the following described real property situated in Klamath county, Oregon, to-wit: All of Sec. 16, Twp. 27, S. R. 9; all of Sec. 36, Twp. 28, S. R. 8; and the E 1/2 of Sec. 16, Twp. 28, S. R. 11, all E. W. M.; together with the appurtenances and hereditaments belonging thereto, said mortgage having been recorded at page 316 in Vol. 9 of Mortgages, of the mortgage records of Klamath county, Oregon, on the 29th day of October, 1909.

That the court also decree that any party to this suit may become a purchaser of the said real property; and that the sheriff shall place the purchaser in possession of the property purchased; that the defendants and all persons claiming under them be forever barred and foreclosed of all right, title, estate and lien at law and in equity, and all equity of redemption, in, to and upon the said real property and every part thereof excepting the right of redemption allowed by the statutes of the state of Oregon.

This summons is published pursuant to an order of the Hon. Wm. S. Worden, judge of the county court of Klamath county, Oregon, made on September 18th, 1913, and the first publication thereof is made on the 25th day of September, 1913.

(Equity No. 497)

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Klamath.

Edgar E. Magee, Plaintiff,

vs. Kathryn Magee, Defendant.

To Kathryn Magee, the Above Named Defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before Thursday, the 23d day of October, A. D. 1913, that being the day of the last publication of this summons, and the last day within which you are required to appear and answer, as fixed by the order of publication of this summons. If you fail to appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint. Said suit is brought to secure a dissolution of the bonds of matrimony existing between yourself and the plaintiff herein.

This summons is published in the Klamath Republican, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated weekly in Klamath County, State of Oregon, by order of the Hon. Henry L. Benson, judge of said court, and dated the 11th day of September, A. D. 1913, and the last publication thereof will be made on Thursday, the 23d day of October, 1913.

Notice of Sheriff's Sale

By virtue of an execution in foreclosure duly issued by the clerk of the circuit court of the county of Klamath, state of Oregon, dated the 6th day of September, 1913, in a certain action in the circuit court for said county and state, wherein D. G. Horn as plaintiff recovered judgment against the Bonanza Creamery company, a corporation, for the sum of fifteen hundred ($1500) dollars and costs and disbursements taxed at one hundred twenty-seven and 20-100 dollars, on the 6th day of September, 1913.

Notice is hereby given that I will, on the 1st day of November, 1913, at the front door of the court house in Klamath Falls, in said county, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described property, to-wit:

A parcel of land 209 feet square, commencing 50 feet due east and 100 feet due north of a stake set in a mound of rock; said mound of rock being situated S 30 degrees 30 minutes east, 17.92 chains from the northwest corner of the SE 1/4 of the SW 1/4 of Section 10, in Township 39 south, Range 11 east of W. M.; thence south 209 feet to a point; thence west 209 feet to a point; thence north 209 feet to a point; thence east 209 feet to the place of beginning, containing one acre. (Reserving the right of way across the said premises for a flume and ditch and roadway described as follows: Commencing at a stake in the said mound of rock, running thence on a line about north 43 degrees 20 minutes west for the north boundary of said premises; said right of way to be 50 feet wide, 25 feet on either side of said line, and said right of way to be used in common with Francis J. Bowne for said purposes).

Being situated in the S 1/2 of SW 1/4 of Section 10, Twp. 39 S. R. 11 E. W. M.

Also all machinery, tools, implements and appliances now in the building on said premises, and all personal property of whatever nature on or about said premises, or in said county owned by said company, taken and levied upon as the property of the said Bonanza Creamery company, a corporation, or as much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the said judgment in favor of D. G. Horn against said Bonanza Creamery company, a corporation, with interest thereon, together with all costs and disbursements that have or may accrue.

Dated at Klamath Falls, September 25, 1913.
