

SUFF SOLDIERS LATEST PROJECT

LONDON, Oct. 30. —A suffrage army, well drilled and armed, ready, if necessary, to literally fight for the vote, is the latest scheme of the militant suffragettes. Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, who is out of jail on a "mouse" license, has expressed her readiness to personally lead the army, and she is appealing for volunteers to instruct her followers in jiu-jitsu and regular military drill.

"The people of the East End are ready to riot for us, and would be very effective fighters if they had some training," declared Miss Pankhurst, in an interview with the United Press. "Our big crowds now are no match for the police, who are especially chosen for their size, besides being trained and armed. We could have got into Downing several times recently if our people had only known how to keep together, and once we had got there who knows what would have happened."

"If we were strong enough to overpower the police it would be a fairly simple matter to enter a minister's house, and the cabinet which does not care about a private citizen who has had his property destroyed would soon take notice of a more personal annoyance."

"Cabinet ministers have always advised us to make ourselves extremely disagreeable, so of course we must, and as it seems clear that the vote can only be won by force, it is force we must use. The drilling under the new scheme will not be confined to women, for the men who wish to help can drill with us. It is quite legal, for the government is making no attempt to interfere with Sir Edward Carson and his followers in Ulster, who are drilling and arming themselves quite openly. As for weapons, why should we not use them? The police are armed.

SEES A GREAT FUTURE FOR OREGON POTATOES

EUGENE, Nov. 1.—"I believe Oregon school children can raise the record potatoes of the world," is the statement of Dr. C. F. Hodge of the extension department of the university. Dr. Hodge is lecturing all over the state on plant and bird life and is enthusiastic over the agricultural possibilities of Oregon. Not only does he believe that this state can raise the record potatoes of the world, but also the best berries and vegetables of different kinds. This statement is made after a careful survey of conditions. In order to bring about the above result, Dr. Hodge plans to keep accurate records. He does not believe that he should be urged to raise a large area of potatoes, but just a few hills. The drudgery and irksomeness of tending to a large patch will be eliminated, and the child's interest will be increased in proportion.

Systematic records will be kept by each child. These records will consist of a complete account of the nature of the soil, preparation of the soil, fertilizer used, variety of seed planted, time of planting and harvesting and results. These records will be filed in a central office for study and comparison. A prize of some kind will be awarded to the one securing the best results. The results thus secured can be applied to larger areas for the same principles will apply in both cases. Dr. Hodge says that the school teachers are taking up with the plan, and that the people are becoming intensely interested in agriculture.

"You have the climate, the soil and the children for raising record products," says the professor.

OLD TIME DEAL IS UP IN COURT

Action to recover $2,000, interest, etc., was filed Saturday by C. P. Mason against the heirs of W. J. Cruickshank. J. H. Carnahan is Mason's attorney.

According to the complaint, in 1898, W. J. Cruickshank secured $2,000 on a promissory note from James C. Cruickshank, giving as security a mortgage on property in this county. This note was later assigned to Mason.

According to the complaint, W. J. Cruickshank died intestate in 1902. The heirs, it is alleged, transferred the mortgaged property to I. T. Mason. Mason asks the amount due, with interest, and to have his claim recognized as a first lien on the property.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION CRITICAL

MATTERS WORSE THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE PORFIRIO DIAZ LEFT THE PALACE

Americans and Foreigners Are in Extreme Danger—Close Watch Will Be Kept on Matters by Embassy Secretary Nelson O'Shaughnessy, Huerta Bankrupt, and All Business Has Been Paralyzed.

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—Feeling in Mexico City against foreigners, particularly against Americans, has reached the point of extreme danger, according to advices received by the state department.

Mexicans of all classes are feeling the effects of the prolonged contention, and chaos reigns throughout the country to an extent hardly realized in the United States.

Huerta is practically a bankrupt. All business is prostrated, and merchants are insolvent.

The streets are filled with starving unemployed. For all of this, the people blame the foreigners, particularly Americans. According to the advices there has never been such a chaotic condition since Diaz left.

Even the diplomatic colony is said to be in a state of semi-panic.

O'Shaughnessy has been instructed to watch the situation with the utmost attention, and warn the officials that foreigners must be protected.

It is doubted if the officials can control the people, should present conditions continue.

United Press Service
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 1.—General Blanquet announced that he will not accept the presidency if Huerta retires or is barred by congress. He was vice president on the Huerta ticket.

No reason is given for the general's decision, but it is taken as a matter of course that Huerta dictated it. The general theory is that this was done to give Huerta an excuse to remain in office, upon the ground that his retirement is an impossibility.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—What he hears from Roberto Pasquiere, nephew of General Carranza, concerning the plans and progress of the fight may have much to do with the president's decision as to whether to recognize the Mexican rebels. Pasquiere is expected today. No secret is made of the fact that the president would greatly prefer leaving it to the rebels to overthrow Huerta, if he is convinced that they can do so speedily and establish a stable, constitutional government.

STRIKERS FIGHTING IN THE STREETS OF INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 1.—Six men were injured during fighting by the striking street car men this morning, and a negro was killed when struck by a patrol wagon rushing an injured man to the hospital.

Forty arrests were made. The ranks of the strikers is increasing hourly.

All the street car lines are tied up tight. All Indianapolis walked to work this morning.

The men struck during the night because the company refused their demands for better pay and working conditions.

Attempts were made to operate cars under police guard, but strikers and sympathizers assembling at the transfer points hooted and pulled the trolleys off. Traffic was finally abandoned completely.

Railway officials announced that a trainload of strikebreakers is en route from Chicago. Serious trouble is expected upon their arrival.

ARTILLERY SENT TO STRIKE DISTRICT

TROOPS FEAR AN ATTACK BY STRIKING MINERS

Families of the Strike Breakers Are Being Sheltered in a Big Stockade at Aguilar—Troops Soon to Attempt to Disarm Strikers at Ludlow and Militiamen Are Being Held in Readiness for Armed Resistance

TRINIDAD, Oct. 31.—Two troops of cavalry and a battery of artillery were sent from here today to the Ludlow district, to assist in disarming the strikers.

General Chase is closely watching Aguilar for developments.

Guards there say that hundreds of striking miners are gathering, and it is feared that they will attack all camps between Aguilar and Berwind.

Six hundred strike breakers and their families are at the stockade at Aguilar. All are apprehensive.

General Chase thinks the situation is exaggerated, but will take no chances.

The troops are being held in readiness for the first serious attempt to disarm the strikers in the Ludlow district.

It is rumored that the plant may be again opened in a short time.

Stone & Gale acted as attorneys for Mr. Johnson in the foreclosure and sale.
