

LEVY QUESTION AT DIRECTORS' MEET

FARMERS SAY ADY IS A GREAT BENEFIT

Several Appear Before the Directors and Say That if Necessary, They Will Double the Money They Are Giving to Defray the Expenses of the President of the Water Users in the Capital at This Time.

The regular monthly meeting of the Water Users Association was enlivened on Saturday by the presence of a delegation of stockholders in the association. This delegation quickly divided itself into two factions, one faction favoring sending Abel Ady to Washington, the other opposing such a move.

Mrs. Thomas, objecting to the 15-cents-per-acre levy, wanted to know if the extra four cents went toward paying the expenses of Mr. Ady in Washington. She did not particularly object to his being in Washington, but said the water users had enough expenses to meet without adding an expense that she believed could not be the means of accomplishing anything more than the present administration would do for Klamath county, anyway.

E. M. Chilcote admitted that he had never been in sympathy with Mr. Ady's work. He, too, thought that, with an administration that had proved itself in sympathy with the water users, a secretary of the interior who knew the needs of the West, and had given evidence of his hearty co-operation with any movement to forward the interests of the Klamath project, and an assistant secretary who had made a special point of informing himself as to the conditions existing here, it was not necessary to have anyone lobbying in Washington.

Mr. Koontz took occasion to say that Mr. Chilcote had always talked in the same way about every new move the association tried to make; a statement promptly denied by Mr. Chilcote.

Guy Merrill asked the members of the board of directors and the stockholders if it wouldn't be just as well to avoid personalities, and the temperature again lowered to normal.

It developed that the $50 per month paid by the association did not go toward Mr. Ady's trip to Washington, but to his family while he was away, the Washington trip being paid by popular subscription.

Some of the signers of the petitions (of which there were seven) protesting against the cost of maintaining the association, said they did not sign to register a kick against Ady's trip, but because they thought the salaries of some of the officers of the association could be cut to some extent without hurting anyone.

Another thing that bothered some of those opposed to Ady's trip to Washington was the fact that a goodly portion of the funds raised for his expenses came from owners of swamp lands only, and it was questioned whether he would lobby for the water users or for a drainage bill.

The matter of whether the office of attorney should be abolished and the work done by the secretary was also taken up, and will be argued for some time.

Mr. Chilcote and W. W. Patch, the former project engineer, contended that this could be done easily. Others, and Secretary Elder was among this number, held that it would be advisable to continue the office, rather than allow some litigation to grow through this method of economy.

DESERTER LEADS ATTACK AGAINST HUERTA'S TROOPS

SEVERAL BIG FIGHTS ARE SURE FOR THE WEEK

In Addition to Torreón and Tampico, Mazatlan Is Threatened—Federal Commander of the Latter Garrison Has Deserted to the Rebel Ranks. City of Pachuca Will Also Be Object of Attack.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 9.—The Huerta government faces a crisis today. Military men fear that several successful attacks will be made during the coming week by the rebels. In addition to Torreón and Tampico being menaced by the rebels, General Felipe Angeles, former federal general, is reported to be attacking Mazatlan. He deserted Huerta last week, while supposedly defending Mazatlan.

Vincente Sequera, an insurgent millionaire, is reported to be preparing for an attack on Pachuca.

"BILL HANLEY OUT FOR TOGA

PORTLAND, Feb. 9.—Having fluctuated between the governorship and the United States senate, "Bill" Hanley, the well known ranchman of Burns, has decided that he will aspire to the toga, and, furthermore, he will not be the candidate of any party, but will enter the campaign as an independent.

Democrats look on the entrance of Hanley with pleasure, contending that he will split the vote of the republican candidate, whoever he may be, and thus assist in the election of Geo. E. Chamberlain.

Rumors that Hanley would be a candidate have been floating up and down the political corridors for the past six weeks. That Hanley was likely to be a candidate for governor has been common gossip for the past year. Hanley himself let the fact of his decision become known to friends. Other friends intend seeing him and trying to talk the senate notion out of him.

PIGS WENT AWAY UP IN THE AIR LAST WEEK

PORTLAND, Feb. 9.—Liquidation of cattle was liberal on last Monday, but very light for the remainder of the week, but the outlet was somewhat improved for limited quantities of choice light grain and hay fed steers, and two loads at $7.80 on Monday, was the feature.

The bulk for six days sold at $7.25 and $7.50. Butcher stuff was slow. Small supply of cows, bulls and heifers. All prices were steady at the close of the week.

The swine trade had a sensational rise last week. Prices jumped from $8.10 to $8.40, while the bulk of light hogs sold at $8.15 and $8.35, with several sales made at the higher figure.

An extremely short supply, eager demand for live hogs by killers all over the Coast, the severe cold weather east of the mountains, and the scarcity of finished stock ready for shipment were the principal factors having an influence on the market's aviation.

Sheep house activity was in its first power Monday and Tuesday. Grain fed wether sales off cars were featured at $5.75 and ewes at $4.65. Lamb top was $6.50 with a considerable quantity offering. Trade is weak for poor grade mutton, but seems to run to fancy choice quality. Receipts have been about 20 percent less than for the same period a week ago.

AIR MAN KILLED AT SAN DIEGO SAN DIEGO, Feb. 9.—Lieutenant Henry B. Post, a member of the army aviation corps, met his death here today. While maneuvering in a Wright hydroplane, he apparently started to glide from a height of about 400 feet to the water.

Something went wrong, and Post either jumped or fell from the machine as it turned turtle.

Post struck the water some distance from the machine, and sunk beneath the surface. The machine reached the water some seconds after the man's body.

Lieutenant Post was a native of New York, 28 years old.

Nationals Elect Directors

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 9.—Election of a board of directors and other business was scheduled today for the session of the stockholders of the Washington American baseball club.

Mrs. Bert C. Thomas arrived Saturday night from Portland to join her husband, of the law firm of Elliott & Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas expect to remain here permanently, and will begin housekeeping when a suitable house can be found.

BRYAN WORKING ON ANTI-JAP BILL

WOULD HAVE PRESENT GENTLEMEN'S AGREEMENT MADE INTO A LAW

According to Authoritative Advice, Mikado's Country Is Willing to Consent to Such a Bill, if It Excludes Only Coolie Class—House Immigration Committee Still in the Air Over the Raker Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—It was authoritatively stated today that Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan is seeking the consent of Japan to the enactment of an exclusion act affecting Japanese the same as does the Chinese exclusion act affect the people of the new republic.

So far, it is stated, the Webb anti-alien land bill, passed by the California legislature last year, is the only obstacle in the way of bringing about such an agreement.

It is understood that Bryan is working to have the mikado and his cabinet consent to make statutory the present gentlemen's agreement between the nations, which is practically an exclusion against Jap laborers.

Japan, it is stated, is willing to consent to the adoption of such a law, operating only against the Japanese coolies, if the California ban against the ownership of land there by the Japanese is raised. It also seeks to keep the interests of wealthy Japanese land owners in America from being hindered.

So far the house committee on immigration is undecided as to whether or not the hearings will be held on the Raker exclusion bill.

BASKET TOSSERS GIVEN GLAD HAND

When the basketball squad, returning from a break-even tour of the Rogue River Valley, arrived at the depot Sunday night they were met by a delegation of boys and girls from the high school, who gave them a hearty reception.

After the yells were given, Raymond (Hoppe) Bridges and E. B. Henry of the Overland garage, loaded the basketball team and the high school girls into machines and whisked them to the Sugar Bowl, where Clarence Motschenbacher treated the bunch to hot and cold concoctions and dainty confections.

The basketball squad were unanimous in declaring the trip a pleasant one. They say they had the time of their lives while away, and did not overlook an opportunity to let the people know about Klamath county.

The next move of the team will be a game with Merrill. This is to be immediately followed by a game with the town team. After this they will be ready to bring Ashland high to this city for the game which will decide the momentous question of supremacy.

A resume of the games played while away leaves the honors about evenly distributed among the boys. The guards and center played good ball in every game. At forward, Hurn scintillated in the first two games and Noel in the last two. Noel made six of the nine points in the Saturday night contest.

Coach McCall was very well pleased with the work of the boys on the trip. The score of the game with the Polytechnics on Saturday resulted in a score of 14 to 9 against the Klamath boys.

NO DECISION BY THE WATER USERS

Although several hours were devoted to the hearing of arguments as to whether or not the Klamath Water Users Association could be conducted on a levy of less than 15 cents per acre, this question was not settled at Saturday's meeting. Instead, it will be talked again Saturday, February 21st.

At that time there will also be some action taken regarding the conditions under which the reclamation commission proposes to turn the operation and maintenance of the first unit over to the water users.

F. A. Elliott, state forester of Oregon, says that co-operative fire patrol associations among lumbermen for the prevention of forest fires have proved their worth.

From 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 goatskins and sheepskins are shipped from Arabia each year. The exports of these skins to all countries last year were officially valued at $233,027.

The Potato Market

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 9.—Shippers of wooden barrels, pails, tubs, and the like, had an opportunity today to protest to the Interstate Commerce Commission against a granting of increased freight rates to the fifty-two Eastern railroads.

The paper used by the government printing office each year requires approximately 125,000,000 pounds of rag pulp and 490,000,000 pounds of wood pulp.
