

To Men Who Love Their Wives

A SPECIAL INVITATION

DO YOU REMEMBER HOW CAREFUL YOU WERE OF YOUR PERSONAL APPEARANCE IN THOSE GLORIOUS DAYS WHEN YOU WERE COURTING THE MISSUS?

—HOW YOU PAID HER THE DELIGHTFUL COMPLIMENT OF ALWAYS LOOKING YOUR BEST WHEN YOU CAME INTO HER PRESENCE?

You wouldn't think of taking her out then if you had on a seedy, out-of-date suit. You wanted her to be able to show the world that "her man" was strictly up to the minute—a genuine live wire, for whom only the best tailoring was good enough.

You're just as good a man today as you were then—and the Missus is every bit as entitled to the respect you used to pay her. It isn't fair, boys, just because the Little Woman at Home has Mrs. before her name to drop all those little attentions and homages of the courting days. If you want her to keep young—don't slouch around looking like a premature grandpa. Show her that you are still a Live One by keeping up with the styles.

What's that? The Missus says "Ish-ka-Bibble" so long as she gets her own Easter Bonnet and Harem Skirt? Tut, tut, fellows—Can that ancient calumny. It isn't true. She's as proud of your looks as she ever was.

Just try sprucing up this Spring in a real rejuvenating Royal Tailored-to-order Spring Suit.

She'll be proud of you—Have your Easter Suit Royal Tailored—Let us have your order now—today. Come in and select one of those snappy, sprightly woollens from the half thousand foreign and domestic gems the Royal Tailors have on display—at Southern Oregon's Largest, Livest Men's Store—

Heard on the K. C. H. S. Campus

Friday evening the high school faculty and Seniors will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Faught.

At a meeting this afternoon the Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores raised a sum sufficient to pay the indebtedness occasioned by the Freshman reception.

The final prize luncheon will not be given until after Easter. This will be the deciding affair between Miss Lucille Waldron and Miss Helen Zumpfe.

The Seniors taking part in the annual class play are letter perfect in the first act, and fairly familiar with the second and third acts. They will hold a rehearsal tonight in the auditorium, under the direction of Miss Applegate.

Manager Hales has arranged a game with Merrill, to be played a week from next Saturday. He is now trying to get the Ashland high baseball team to come over for a game. Some of the sweet co-eds hope Shinn will be on the team.

"To Sing, or not to Sing" is the question with Louis McClure.

"Bill" Hurn has ordered a dozen Wright & Ditson tennis balls, which he will present to the high school tennis club.

Lodgeman Is Feted.

In honor of the visit of Frank S. Grant, State Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, a special meeting of the lodge was held Tuesday night. At the conclusion a banquet was served, and Mr. Grant addressed the lodgemen on "Fraternism."

Edmunds Improves.

H. H. Edmunds, who has been suffering from sciatic rheumatism for the past two weeks, was able to be on the streets again today. Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds have moved here from Algoma, and will reside in the Rucker house, on Eighth street.

Travel Commences.

On Tuesday two California autos passed through this city, the occupants looking for a camping place for a number of friends who are to come up later in the summer. The wonders of this section are becoming known, which means a greater number of tourists this season than ever before.

Roads Getting Good.

Abner Weed and James Bodenhamer returned Wednesday from a trip to Fort Klamath. They report the roads in good condition, with very little snow in the Fort country.

Court In Session.

The county court met this afternoon to pass upon a number of claims presented for payment.

Thad in Ashland.

Thad G. McHattan has gone to Ashland to attend to business matters.

LOTS OF SUCKERS RUN IN STREAMS

INDIANS FIND THE LOST RIVER MULLET A DESIRABLE SPECIES —OTHER NEWS FROM THE RESERVATION

(Herald Special Service) KLAMATH AGENCY, March 26.—Suckers are now running by hundreds and minnows by the thousand in the Williamson River. The suckers are the Lost River variety, also known as the mullet, Williamson River being stocked with them through Captain O. C. Applegate. This variety is popular with the Indians as a food fish, and Captain Applegate will be asked to plant more.

Edwin Wilson went to Klamath Marsh a few days ago to attend to his stock.

Garfield Jack, a well known Indian, made a visit to Klamath Falls and returned to his ranch on the big Klamath Marsh this week.

Clayton Kirk has returned from Kirk, where he took the remains of Mrs. Stanley Pedro for burial.

The Canadian Forestry Association, which recently met in Ottawa, has selected Halifax, Nova Scotia, for its next annual meeting place.

C. E. MAXWELL IS NOW WITH HERALD

Claude E. Maxwell, known as "Doc" and "Max" to nearly every resident of Klamath Falls, has severed his connection with the Star Drug company, to accept the position of circulation manager of the Evening Herald. Mr. Maxwell today assumed charge of the subscription end of the publication.

Maxwell has been dealing with the public in Klamath Falls for several years past, and he needs no card of introduction to the public.

Mascot of Athletics' Training Camp

Connie Mack has a mascot the like of whom has never before been seen in baseball, and his players, in training in Florida for the coming season, think if he is carried about with them over the circuit this year he may be the cause of landing the pennant and the world's championship for the club. This is Emory Litmas, a wealthy man of Philadelphia, who thinks he will be able to play baseball if he can gain speed. At this time he weighs only 450 pounds, and it is melting off so fast that he has hopes.

When the Athletics hied themselves to the warmer climate of Florida for their training, Mr. Litmas went with them. Connie Mack could not lend him a suit which would fit, so he had to have one made by a tailor. In the photograph he is shown taking his turn at the bat. After being permitted to knock out a two-bagger by a kind pitcher Litmas went on his way to first. He says it is necessary for him to knock a two-bagger to make first, and even then it must be a long one.

LAST NIGHT'S BILL PLEASD

CLAMAN PLAYERS BRING OUT BOTH COMEDY AND PATHOS IN LINE—MCCUTCHEON'S NOVEL IS BILL TONIGHT

The Clamans gave a splendid performance of "When We Were Twenty-One" at the opera house last night. The entire company covered themselves with glory in this most interesting of plays. Mr. Howland gave a masterly performance of Richard Carewe, a man who thinks himself too old to marry at 40, and Miss Miller was exceptionally clever as the young girl who makes him see that love can make us all young.

Miss Williamson was responsible for many laughs as the elderly lady

HOUSE COMMITTEE CONSIDERING THE LAND LEASING BILL

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.—Consideration was begun today by the house public lands committee of another "administration" bill—that for development, free from monopoly, of coal, oil, phosphate and other mineral sources of the public domain. It provides a leasing system, excepting Alaska coal lands, which are provided for in a separate measure.

Secretary of the Interior Lane, who drafted the bill, was invited before the house committee today to inaugurate hearings upon it. President Wilson has given his approval of its general features. Western senators and representatives, who conferred with Lane, also approve the general leasing plan, which is adopted as the administration system of opening and developing Uncle Sam's resources, which have been locked up tight for years.

The bill proposes that all leasing fees shall be paid to the interior department, half to be used in reclamation projects and the other half to be given to the states in which the leased land is situated for public schools, public works or other state improvements. For development of oil lands, the bill proposes "prospector's licenses" for limited areas up to 2.56 acres, and, if oil is discovered, that the prospector shall receive one-fourth of the tract free for his work. A royalty of 2 cents a ton and an acreage charge of from 25 cents to $1 per acre for coal leases are provided. Stringent provisions against monopolization are included in the bill. The hearings will continue for about three weeks.

Don't Overdo

Yourself this fine weather trying to wear off the spring fever. It's bound to run its course, so you'd just as well resurrect the rake and hoe and get busy till you feel relieved, and to do the thing right you'll need some goodly portions of our bulk and package garden and field seeds.

Sweet Peas in bulk.
Onion Sets.
Sugar and Stock Beets, etc.

Let us help you to the seeds.
