LAMPING THE MAJORS OVER AGAIN

By HAL SHERIDAN

(Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, May 1.—As no doubt old man Socrates remarked as he gently eased himself off from all turmoil and strife, how different are the days of April and October. After the stuttering start due to interruptions by rain, May will see a beginning of the jockeying at the turn and a better opportunity will be afforded toward getting some sort of a line as to who's who in this mad scramble for the American and National League pennants.

The erstwhile leaders started with a wobble. The general dope didn't any more hit on the early games than the majority of the guesses as to what the Giant pitchers would do to the Athletics last October. How different are the days of April and October.

The real surprise in the American League has been dished up by Frank Chance. His New York Yankees are a revelation, as compared with the team which struggled along last year and went from April until June without winning a game on their home grounds. Not that Chance may be a pennant contender, for again the difference between April and October looms up, but the spirit and general work of the present Yanks makes former teams hiding behind that name look like a collection from the morgue.

Opening the season the rejuvenated Yanks ripped the hide off the Athletics twice in succession. Connie Mack's clan, it is true, was not near up to form, but Chance's men tore into them just as though they had finished copping a pennant and were out to lick the world. There was no faltering, but a steady, boring attack and a stubbornness on defense that checked the Mackmen on the same field where they run wild with the Giants—last October.

The Yanks are due to make trouble for more than one team in the League if they hold the gate they cut out for themselves at the start. In Maisel, at third, and Pockinbaugh, at short, the left side of the Yank infield compares favorably with the best. Williams, at first, sat in on the old assignment of Hal Chase as though it was the only thing he had been waiting to do on this sphere, and intended to make a good job of it. Chance's outfield has been completely worked over, and the P. L. appeared to have re-gearred his pitchers. If they continue without busting a main spring or jarring loose some bolts, the Yanks may give a few uneasy hours to aspiring pennant chasers as the season wears along, and knock loudly at the first division. Where they will really finish, however, may be better told in these dispatches along during the season of that proverbially "bright blue weather"; for as has been remarked before, how different are the days of . . . . .

At the start, at least, the Phillies in the National League showed more strength than was expected in view of the rough way in which the Peds treated Charley Doolin in grabbing men. The Giants started slow, and the Phillies walloped them twice. Then even Matthewson got his when he stacked up against Brooklyn. The Boston Braves, expected to be one of the most improved teams in the parent organization, also faltered with the springing of the barrier.

With but few exceptions, pitching arms seem to be in better shape than batting eyes. The swatting lamps were sadly in need of trimming, but as the sun's rays begin to warm up, so are the sluggers steaming along behind their jobs of piling up base hits.

Walter Johnson is one exception so far as pitchers are concerned. The Kansas cyclone appears to be starting out on his greatest year in baseball. In his first two games Johnson allowed just one run. He shut out Boston Braves with three hits. The Yanks slipped over one run on him, but collected only four safe drives. Johnson met them, too, when they were flushed with confidence after having faced the daylight out of the Athletics. Walter simply stood up and shot over his benders as though no one was on the plate, and save for those four occasions when a Yank took a stab and met one head on, there might as well not have been.

Francis Oulmet, American golf

England, and sat down to think his way over it before mixing in too many matches. Oulmet said he did not feel that he was primed for real play. He therefore engaged in some mental calisthenics.

Possibly that was the trouble with the Giants and Athletics at the start. Frank Baker's first effort on the Polo grounds since he faced the Giant pitchers in October was a weak roller to short. He was an easy out. Time should have been taken out for Baker to contemplate the spot in which he pitched his home run smash off Marquard. It might have been an inspiration.

PROHIS LAUDED

BY POPE PIUS X.

PONTIFF TELLS DELEGATION THAT LIQUOR IS A "SCOURGE CAUSING MORAL AND PHYSICAL EVIL"

ROME, May 1.—The pope received 400 members of the International Anti-Alcoholic League.

The pontiff praised the work being done by the league, and urged an extensive campaign against the "scourge which is causing physical, moral and economic evil."

COLORED ARMY OFFICER CAUSE OF DISCORD

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 1.—A serious complication arising out of the race question is anticipated by army officers when the amendments to the so-called army "Manchu" law becomes effective. Major Charles Young of the Ninth cavalry, a colored man, is the complication. According to the "Manchu" amendments, Young, and every other army officer will have to serve four of every six years with troops in the field. In Young's case this will entail his occupying a major's quarters in various barracks. Usually such quarters are contained in one of a row of three houses provided for those of the major's rank.

Thus far the war department has succeeded in giving Young, who is a West Point graduate, various detached details, thus preventing any breach of his close association, in barracks, with brother officers. But these detached details will not be possible under the Manchu law amendments. Thus far the race question has never been a serious one in the army, owing to the organization of white and colored regiments, yet officers at a post are thrown so constantly in each other's company—particularly those of the same rank—that disposition of Young is a vital question.

It is gossip here that previous attempts to "get" Young have failed. He has passed all his examinations with flying colors, is a first class soldier and fighting man, and just simply can't be ousted. As a matter of fact, army officers are rather proud of him—in an official way.

They say he has never attempted nor sought social advantage from his rank, has never attempted to "break into" post affairs and mix with brother officers. But they feel it would be infinitely embarrassing, with his major's rank, to have even a man of Young's type in barracks. An army officer here is authority for the following tribute to Young's discretion: "Army etiquette requires that all officers at a post make a call on a new comer, an officer, at the earliest moment after his arrival. Major Young, who was stationed at a post where I was, waited as long as possible, and then having ascertained beyond a doubt that the new officer was not at home, called and left his card. It goes to show Young's appreciation of his position."

MT. LAKE WILL PLAY BASEBALL

MEETING TO BE HELD TOMORROW NIGHT—QUILTING BEE TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY—OTHER NEWS OF THAT VICINITY

MT. LAKE, May 1.—The boys and men of the Mt. Lake Sunday school and neighborhood will meet Saturday evening, May 2, at Mr. McLellan's store to organize a baseball club.

The next meeting of the Country Needle Club will be held with the Misses Latta.

Mrs. F. Stuart and small son are reported as doing well.

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the Mt. Lake church Wednesday, May 6th. All the women of the community are invited to attend. Each one is requested to bring with her a darning needle, thimble and her own lunch. It will be an all-day "quilting bee," but those who can come for the afternoon only will be welcome.

Some of the ranches of this locality have finished seeding, but most of them are still busy putting in the crops. The water will be turned into the main canal soon.

SAVIDGE BROS. IN DAMAGE SUIT

Two suits for damages, aggregating $10,000, were commenced against Savidge Brothers' Lumber company this morning through Attorney W. H. A. Renner. Both are based upon the accident to Cleve L. Stowman, aged 17, who lost three fingers from his left hand by being cut by a rip saw.

In the first action the youth, by Harry B. Stowman, his next friend, is plaintiff. Alleging negligence and lack of proper appliances, he demands $7,500.

Harry B. Stowman, as father of the injured lad, is plaintiff in the second action. He alleges that by reason of the accident, which is blamed to the lumber company, the boy's earning capacity is impaired. A judgment for $2,500 is demanded.

STAATSBURG, N. Y., May 1.—

Vincent Astor, head of the "House of Astor," and the richest bachelor in America, was married yesterday to Miss Helen Dinsmore Huntington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Huntington.

The ceremony, performed at the magnificent home of the bride's parents by the Rev. C. H. Duncan, of St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, was unique in the annals of New York society. By mutual agreement of the bride and bridegroom and their respective families, it was, perhaps, the simplest wedding ultra New York society has ever known. It was at first planned to have the ceremony performed at St. Margaret's Church, but the bridegroom's recent illness caused the change.

Less than 250 of New York's "Four Hundred" attended, the list being confined strictly to relatives and the closest personal friends of the young couple. All out of town guests came here on a special train furnished by the bridegroom for the occasion.

Miss Alice Huntington, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Hermann Oelrichs was best man. These were the only attendants. Wallace Goodrich, formerly organist at the old Trinity Church, Boston, played the same wedding march yesterday that he did twenty-two years ago at the marriage of the bride's parents at St. Margaret's Church here.

The bride was given away by her father. Mrs. John Astor, who divorced the bridegroom's father, John Jacob Astor, came from Europe to attend the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Astor's honeymoon will include a motoring trip in England and France, and later a cruise on the palatial Astor yacht Nema. The couple will make their home at Ferncliffe, which is about six miles from the Huntington mansion here.

MEDIATORS SAY FORCES MUST BE KEPT IN MEXICO

INITIAL PROPOSALS WILL BE DRAFTED

Secretary Bryan has nothing to say on the subject when approached. The mediators are considering the proposition of working out an election plan for giving all Mexicans an equal voice at the polls. It is believed this will require the support of all factions to make it successful.

In the meantime America must keep the armed forces massed. The armed forces cannot be withdrawn on the mere promise to maintain order. There must be some sort of substantial guarantee, and the troops will afford this.

In his talk to the mediators, Secretary Bryan indicated that America is inclined to a generous fairness, but certain stipulations must be followed.

Private Secretary Tumulty officially denied the report that American forces had bombarded Manzanillo.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—The mediators are ready to draft the initial proposals. The propositions are most carefully guarded.

Neither side is expected to agree to all of the suggestions, but the mediators hope some of them will be approved, however.

Official dispatches state that there are 300 Americans left in Mexico City. Most of these are expected to take a chance and remain.

Fifteen hundred Americans, Germans and English left the capital on a refugee train last night to go to Puerto, Mexico. A British warship will protect them until a transport arrives.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has asked for an appropriation of $100,000 to be used by the department of public health to prevent epidemics from those returning. This results from the discovery of small-pox, typhoid and yellow fever among the refugees at Galveston.

The immigration inspectors at that port are overwhelmed by the influx of refugees. Extra inspectors have been rushed there.

The transports and colliers on the West coast are reported to be loading refugees. Especially are they busy near Mazatlan, where the Chinese and Japanese colonies are seized with a panic.

CANCER TAKES MERRILL MAN

At 2:30 a. m. Saturday, Charles Wilson, whose home was near Merrill, was called by the Grim Reaper. Mr. Wilson had been suffering from cancer of the stomach for several months, and every hope for recovery was abandoned by the physicians several weeks ago.

Two operations proved of only temporary relief, the operating surgeon explaining at the time that no human skill could prolong life more than a few days.

The funeral was held Sunday at 2 p. m. from the Merrill M. E. church, Rev. Acheson conducting the services.

The deceased was a native of California, having been reared in Glenn county, where his father was a prominent grain grower. Besides his wife and two small children, he leaves a brother, George Wilson, and three sisters, Mrs. Dan Van Brimmer, Mrs. William Hall and Mrs. H. Hutchinson.

Coming for a Visit.

Miss Helen Hogue is expected tomorrow afternoon from San Francisco to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue. Miss Hogue has a wide circle of friends here. Miss Faye Hogue, who has been visiting in Portland and Willamette Valley points this winter, is also expected home in a few days.

JOHNS For REPUBLICAN Governor Give this Job to a man who will reduce Taxes and cut down Expenses. If you had an interest in a private business you would want it conducted on business principles. You have an interest in the affairs of this State. The State of Oregon is a business institution run for the benefit of the people in it who, in a certain sense, are stockholders in its business interests. TAXES MUST BE REDUCED! In the coming primary election, Charles A. Johns, of Portland, will ask the vote of every person who believes the State of Oregon needs to have taxes reduced and expenses cut down. The only way to reduce taxes and cut down expenses is to apply the same principles in running the State that you would apply in running your own business. How many institutions would run along with an increase of operating expenses from year to year? Not many. Well, let's reduce our taxes and cut down our expenses. Charles A. Johns, of Portland, is running on that platform and stands on his platform. Get him on the job! Start thinking about this today! Will you elect a man who will cut down expenses and reduce taxes, or a politician, as our next Governor? The issue is clear. One will cut down taxes—the other will give jobs to his political friends. Which do YOU want? Paid Advertisement.

CONDITIONS IN THE CAPITAL ARE QUIET

Believed That Troops Will Be Landed Today—Mediators Are in Almost Constant Session at the Argentinista Legislation—Returning Refugees Are Believed to Be Bringing Disease.

VERA CRUZ, April 29.—General Funston and Admirals Badger and Fletcher are in a conference today. It is believed that they will decide to land the troops and withdraw the marines.

Mexico City dispatches indicate that the Americans there are in no danger, and they are free to leave if they wish to.

Huerta, it is reported, is strengthening his troops, and is negotiating with Zapata, the guerrilla leader.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—The Mexican situation apparently has evolved into a diplomatic riddle. The mediators are in almost constant session at the Argentinista legislation.

They privately admit that their task is a hard one, but they are hopeful of a solution.

Official dispatches state that there are 300 Americans left in Mexico City. Most of these are expected to take a chance and remain.

Fifteen hundred Americans, Germans and English left the capital on a refugee train last night to go to Puerto, Mexico. A British warship will protect them until a transport arrives.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has asked for an appropriation of $100,000 to be used by the department of public health to prevent epidemics from those returning. This results from the discovery of small-pox, typhoid and yellow fever among the refugees at Galveston.

The transports and colliers on the West coast are reported to be loading refugees. Especially are they busy near Mazatlan, where the Chinese and Japanese colonies are seized with a panic.

VERA CRUZ, April 30.—The Mexican agreement to mediate carries many reservations. Huerta is not decided just how far he will go, but it is evident that he does not consider resignation.

The situation in the Mexican capital is indicated by the following message from Foreign Minister Rojas: "Up to this time mediation is acceptable to Mexico in principle only. As soon as the proposition have been submitted to Mexico and have been decided upon I will be in a better position to make a statement. I hope mediation will bring a solution acceptable to the dignity of both governments."

Notice to the Stockholders of the Klamath Water Users' Association:

You are hereby notified that pursuant to a resolution of the board of directors of the Klamath Water Users' Association duly made and entered on the minutes of said board held in the association office, rooms 17 and 18 Maddox-White building, Klamath Falls, Oregon, Saturday, March 28, 1914, the call for the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Klamath Water Users' Association was made, and that said annual meeting will be held in the Houston Opera House, Klamath Falls, Klamath county, state of Oregon, Friday, the 5th day of June, A. D. 1914, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m. of said day.

The purpose for which said annual meeting is called is for the election of a board of five directors for the ensuing year and for the transaction of such other business as may regularly come before said meeting.

You are further notified that at said annual meeting the following amendments to the by-laws of the Klamath Water Users' Association will be submitted for your acceptance or rejection, to-wit:

That section one (1) of article four of the said by-laws as amended be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Revenues necessary for the accomplishment of the purposes of this association shall be raised by an assessment thereof from time to time as required upon and against the share holders. No assessment shall be declared by the board of directors to be delinquent within less than thirty days after the time for levying the assessment.

That section two (2) of article four (4) of said by-laws be amended to read as follows:

Section 2. No subscription of stock shall be accepted unless accompanied by the full payment of an amount in money equal to all assessments previously levied by this association on lands subscribed thereto, and the previous assessments herein referred to shall be determined by taking the aggregate of all assessments heretofore levied by this association. Assessments paid on shares of stock cancelled at the instance of the association within three years after April 1, 1905, for the reason that the land to which said shares are appurtenant is non-irrigable from the system owned or controlled or to be owned or controlled by the association shall be refunded to the holder at the time of cancellation; provided, however, that the association may execute releases upon the approval of the secretary of the interior for all lands heretofore subscribed to this association where such lands are not deemed irrigable from the irrigation works now constructed by the United States of America or their successors in interest upon payment of all assessments heretofore levied by this Association against said lands and against lands owned by the applicant for said release.

That section one (1) of article eight (8) of said by-laws be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. All certificates or other evidence of the ownership of shares of stock in this association shall have the seal of the association affixed; provided, however, that no certificate of stock or other evidence of ownership of stock in this association shall be issued until the full amount levied by the secretary of the interior under public notice upon and against the shares and lands represented thereby, and further, until the full amount of all assessments previously levied by this association upon and against the shares and lands represented thereby shall have been paid by the owner thereof.
