DEFENDERS OF COUNTRY HONORED

“We are the boys, the brave old boys Who marched in sixty-one. We’ll ne’er forget those days, you bet, When you and I were young.”

The old G. A. R. song never had a deeper meaning than today, when a score of white-haired men, remnants of that vast army which fought for the preservation of the Union, gathered today for memorial exercises, and the residents of Klamath Falls gathered to do honor to them and those who have gone before. Many of the men are sole survivors of their companies, some the last of their regiments—but today, they are living again those stirring four years, fighting again with “Uncle Billy,” Grant, Sheridan, and others, at Gettysburg, Vicksburg, Bull Run, The Wilderness and other sanguine fields.

The “kid” of the party is E. B. Ramsby, 66 years old, and the patriarch is George Griffin, one year beyond the four-score mark. The ages of the others follow:

- John Sauber 89, Chas. W. Sherman 76, M. L. Poland 67, Rev. L. Stoker 73, W. W. Redfield 67, O. A. Stearns 71, C. K. Seitz 70, W. H. Robertson 80, C. M. Hunt 70, E. E. Riley 73, Wm. E. Reed 70, Joe Clair 67, W. H. Newnham 70.

Before the procession formed, the fourth or military division of the parade marched to the bridge, where the beautiful tributes of the Grand Army and Women’s Relief Corps were paid to the brave lads who perished on the waves, were given, ending with the scattering of garlands on the waters.

The return of this section to the main column was the signal for the start. Captain O. C. Applegate, the grand marshal, is a stalwart military man at all times, but he never looked so martial and impressive as today, as, wearing uniform and saber, and mounted on a spirited steed, he rode like a centaur, marshalling his forces, and arranging the start of the procession to prevent confusion. His standard bearer, William Shook, is, like the captain, a veteran of Indian campaigns.

Following the marshal and his aide came the Klamath Falls Military band. After this came the school children, a wriggling, smiling, flag-waving mass of bright little tots that extended for nearly two blocks. The Boy Scouts also made their first public appearance at this time.

Then came the military section, with the Grand Old Boys, who suffered hardships, hunger, disease and injuries for four long years, in order that the nation be unified; with the loyal Women’s Relief Corps, which has been silently and tirelessly working to make the remaining days of “Blue Army, now turned Gray” happy; with the younger grizzled pioneers who fought the wily red man; with the younger, but none-the-less tried-and-tested veterans of the fighting against Spaniards, Filipinos, jungles and malaria; and last mentioned, but by no means the least, S. B. Ramsby’s life and drum corps, with its screaming and rattling of the stirring old strains of the campaign half a century ago.

The hearty applause and cheering that greeted this section came from patriotic enthusiasm inspired from a feeling as deep as that reverent one which caused the men to remove their hats and bow their heads as the column marched by.

After the veterans came the city and county officials and citizens in carriage and auto.

After the ceremonies at the cemetery and the bedecking of graves, the procession returned, and the veterans, G. A. R. and of other wars, were served a picnic dinner in the court house park. This resolved itself into a reunion, and the time passed quickly.

In the afternoon the exercises were held in the court house square. All of the numbers were rendered with a patriotic fervor, and the day goes into history as one of the most fitting observances in the town’s history.

X-RAY MACHINE JUST RECEIVED

The newest and latest of its kind is the big interruptless X-ray machine installed this week in the operating rooms of Dr. Clayton E. Wheeler. The work of setting up and putting together was done under the direction of G. M. Freed, Roentgenologist with the Scheidel-Western company of Chicago.

This machine is one of the largest and most powerful in the Western country. It has the high frequency resonator, equipped with radiograph, and so arranged that the operator can make instantaneous change from X-ray work to actual treatment.

The Wheatstone stereoscope, which is a part of the machine, is more powerful and much simpler than the old-fashioned machines, and instead of requiring from five to thirty minutes for making pictures, finishes the picture in thirty seconds, and often in less time.

It also makes a front and side view at the same time, locating exactly the position of foreign substances and fractures.

All Registered Pharmacists.

The addition of Harvey Matthies to the Star Drug company’s force gives Klamath county a drug store with three registered pharmacists behind the prescription desks. Mr. Matthies is a graduate of the Portland College of Pharmacy, and finished his course with high honors.

An exceptionally well rendered program, consisting of vocal solos by Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, reading by Miss Gail Ross and instrumental selections by Miss Winifred Winnard, delighted an audience of music lovers at the White Pelican hotel Tuesday night.

Mrs. Thomas, a new star in the local musical firmament, is a pupil of Professor Alfred Rogerson Barrington of Columbus, Ohio, and her few public appearances here add greatly to the reputation of Professor Barrington as a vocal instructor. She also studied music under Miss Grace Chandler, a singer of national repute. Mrs. Thomas has a charmingly unaffected way of seeming perfectly unconscious of her audience, and sings equally well in three languages. Miss Ross is well known here as a reader of great ability, and her selections Tuesday evening were up to her usual cleverly given offerings. Miss Winnard pleased her audience with three instrumental solos, proving herself an excellent pianist. Following is the program:

- La Charmante Marguerite.....

- Hallelu. Alack-a-day..... Coquard

A pleasant meeting of the Happy Hour Club was the one held this week at the home of Mrs. John Johnson. The afternoon was spent in the usual manner, and a dainty luncheon was served. Attending were Mrs. J. H. Hamilton, Mrs. Claude Davis, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Sam Summers, Mrs. George Blehn, Mrs. Chas. Martin, Mrs. Loy Hilyard, Mrs. Curtis Heidrich, Mrs. F. T. Mundy, Mrs. R. C. Just as enjoyable as it was unique was the “Hawaiian Tea,” given on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, by the Ladies’ Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, and attended by upwards of eighty women. The Wattenburg home was tastefully decorated after the Hawaiian manner, and the reminder of the Pacific islands was carried even into the tempting refreshments served. Two interesting and well prepared papers on Hawaii were given by Mrs. E. R. Reames and Mrs. Louis Gerber. In addition, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas rendered a splendid solo, and well received readings were given by Miss Gail Ross and Mrs. Elmer French. The Hawaiian Tea was the work of a committee composed of Mrs. Wattenburg, Mrs. Maxwell M. Long, Mrs. W. S. Slough, Mrs. C. P. Stewart and Mrs. J. A. McLean.

On next Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, who last week was elected as grand warden of the Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. Nate Otterbein will entertain the Past Grands and officers of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge at an informal luncheon, at her home on Klamath avenue.

A delightful dancing party was enjoyed by the members of the U & I Club as guests of Misses Mabelle and Pearl Leavitt Wednesday night. The party was held on the spacious lawn at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Alford on Conger avenue, and the lawn was illuminated with Oriental lanterns. Present were Margaret Worden, Marjorie Delzell, Mabelle Leavitt, Pearl Leavitt, Claudia Spink, Clara Calkins, John Houston, Earl Everett, Tom Delzell, Graham Kiehl and Ernal Stearns.

Under the chaperonage of Instructors Miss Elmer and Mr. Morris, the pupils of the Seventh grade of the public schools held a picnic on Wednesday on the shores of the Upper Lake. The young folks report a most joyous time, and are looking forward eagerly to another such day under the care of such delightful conditions.

Dr. C. J. Bushnell, president of Pacific University, who delivered the address to the senior class of the Klamath county high school, left this morning for Forest Grove. While here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue.

Mrs. H. S. Phillips was hostess to the Art Needle Work Club Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, Mrs. J. Fred Goeller, Mrs. George Hurr, Mrs. J. S. Stubblefield, Mrs. Henry Newnham, Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mrs. George A. Hayden, Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, Mrs. G. A. Wirtz, Mrs. W. E. Fought, Mrs. George W. White, Mrs. George Chastain, Mrs. Karl G. Cummings and Mrs. Phillips, members of the club, were present, in addition to Miss Wilson of Pueblo, Colo., Mrs. Bush of California, and Mrs. Piel of Wolf Creek.

Miss Hortense Hogue left this morning for the north. She will spend a couple of months visiting relatives and friends at Portland, Albany and other cities.

Mrs. Levi McDonald and little daughter Joanna arrived in the city Friday from their ranch home near Bonanza, to spend a few weeks with relatives and friends.

More than a quarter of a hundred attended the regular “Splash Club” meeting Friday night at the swimming pool, and many new and amusing stunts were pulled off. The ladies of the club are fast becoming expert at swimming and diving, and are really more daring on the “chutes” than the men. After the swim Friday night Dr. Wheeler whisked the members home in his new car, taking half a dozen at a time. In about four trips he had them all safely at home. Those there were Alice Duncan, Dorothy Weeks, Marjorie Weeks, Mary Schubert, Anna Beebe, Pearl Bolvin, Elsie Low, Hazel Barnes, Billie Leonard, Winnie Wampler, Harold Kinneer, Lawrence Mehahey, Will H. Bennett, Lawrence Kinneer, Cecil Weeks, F. H. DeHay, Herbert Barry, John Siemens, Mr. Myers, Dr. C. E. Wheeler, Dr. Cathay, Frank Noland, Dr. Leonard and Warren Duhi.

Mrs. Fred Bechdoit, Bonanza, was visiting friends in the county seat for a few days.

Mrs. G. W. Cain was the happy victim of a surprise party Friday night, given by a number of friends to remind her of her birthday. Despite the unexpectedness of the occasion, a very enjoyable time was had with cards, refreshments and music. The prizes at cards were taken by Percy Evans and Mrs. M. W. Coseboom. Many beautiful and useful presents were given Mrs. Cain. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Evans, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Maehl, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Coseboom, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. George Beltn, Mr. and Mrs. Cofer, Mrs. U. G. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kane.

The public will please take notice that the undersigned will, on Monday the 15th day of June, A. D. 1914, at 10 o’clock a. m., or as soon thereafter as he can be heard, apply to the County Court of Klamath County, State of Oregon, for a retail liquor dealer’s license. For further information you are referred to the copy of the petition hereinafter set forth.

BONA FIDE SETTLERS GET BEST OF IT IN KLAMATH COUNTY

PORTLAND, May 30.—Anticipating a speedy executive order restoring to homestead entry 100,000 acres of the best government land in the recent Paulina-Deschutes national forest elimination, State Immigration Agent C. C. Chapman has notified Judge Thomas C. Burke, president of the Oregon state immigration commission, that bona fide homeseekers would be given thirty days’ advantage over timber speculators. Under present land laws these can acquire government lands by filing sketch.

This new phase of the Central Oregon situation was brought about through co-operation by Senator Chamberlain, Governor West, the United States reclamation service, the United States land office and the Oregon state immigration commission. The 100,000 acres referred to had been withdrawn for reclamation and power site purposes, and consequently was not available for settlement under President Wilson’s order eliminating 116,120 acres from the two forest reserves.

The lands are the very best portions of the territory.

Having proved that electric radiation benefits growing plants, German scientists are experimenting with an electrified school room, which is said to accelerate the physical growth and stimulate the mental processes of the pupils therein.
