MOREY APPLGATE HERE ON A VISIT

Morey L. Applegate, son of Captain and Mrs. I. D. Applegate, came in Friday evening from San Francisco for a week's visit with relatives.

Following the landing of marines at Vera Cruz, conditions became very warm for Americans in Mexico, and Applegate was forced to leave.

Since then San Blas has been captured by the constitutionalists, and affairs have become quiet again.

RE-CHECK GIVES BENSON BIGGER KLAMATH VOTE

With other counties in the state finding discrepancies in the precinct tally sheets and the county abstracts, Klamath county has also caught the fever, and comes to bat with an amended result in the Benson-McNary contest for the republican nomination for supreme judge.

One of the errors is in the Second Ward precinct. In that precinct Benson received 95 votes, but the figures in the total were read as 93 by the canvassing board.

The second mistake was found in re-checking the tally sheets in Wood River Precinct. The vote was 35 for Benson, but on two of the tally sheets it was written as 33.

Deputy County Clerk Chas. De Lap has wired Secretary of State Ben W. Olcott of the mistake.

P. M. REIDY IS IN BAD SHAPE

Charged with being implicated in a fake clairvoyant stunt, whereby a Long Beach woman was swindled out of $30,000, P. M. Reidy, former vice president of the First Trust and Savings bank, has been indicted by the federal grand jury at Los Angeles.

It is understood that Reidy is alleged to have impersonated a federal officer.

Carlton will expend $50,000 on paying this year.

Society

The following account of the Klamath County Institute of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held on Tuesday, at Grace M. E. church, has been communicated:

The W. C. T. U. Institute was held in Grace M. E. church Tuesday, June 9th. Mrs. Grigsby, county president, presided, J. B. Mason was musical director and Miss French pianist.

Recollections of Edith Hall Booker, late president of Oregon W. C. T. U. Mrs. Booker, in spite of frail health, conquered many difficulties. She was ordained minister in the Baptist church, and devoted her life to preaching the Gospel of Christ and W. C. T. U. work, influencing many to a better life.

"In Memory of Lillian M. N. Stevens," late national W. C. T. U. president. Mrs. Stevens, Maine's illustrious daughter, commenced her strenuous public life at the age of 54. She was Frances Willard's chosen successor, and devoted her life to the cause of temperance and prohibition.

"Medal Contests." Mrs. Rose Harpold. The medal contest work is the boy scout movement by which soldiers are prepared for the prohibition army. The contest teaches from A, B, C, to scientific prohibition, and helps to develop good public speakers.

Noontide prayer, led by Mrs. J. B. Mason. A delicious dinner was served at noon to forty-five persons. Mr. Upp made an interesting talk at noon on the plans of "Oregon Dry Club."

Superintendent Fred Peterson showed that at least $150,000 must be spent in the saloons of Klamath Falls in a year. The schools cost $25,000. Six times as much spent in saloons as to educate the children of Klamath Falls in the elementary schools.

"Effects of Whiskey on the Indians. Adulteration of Whiskey." There have been four Indian murders recently, the result of drinking whiskey has a demoralizing effect on the race. The pure Kentucky whiskey is adulterated.

"Sabbath Observance." Rev. J. S. Stubblefield. God commanded that man should keep the Sabbath for man's good. History shows there has been a lower standard of morals when the Sabbath has not been observed.

Mrs. Levi McDonald and little daughter Joanna, returned to their Bonanza home today, after a pleasant two weeks spent in visiting relatives and friends.

Marking the close of a highly successful and instructive season's work, the Klamath Literary Club held its annual picnic Wednesday afternoon at Sandy Beach, on Upper Klamath Lake, which proved to be a highly enjoyable affair.

Carlton will expend $50,000 on paying this year.

which Hay, Rev. Stubblefield and Rev. Richards hit the tape simultaneously. After the refreshments and the races, an election of officers was held, and the following were chosen: President, C. P. Stewart; vice President, J. G. Camp; secretary-treasurer, Miss Eola Hawkins; members of executive committee, Mrs. J. S. Stubblefield and Dr. Fred Westerfeld.

George Isaacs was a Thursday visitor in Klamath Falls. Clayton Kirk made a trip to Klamath Marsh on government business.

It was pretty chilly last week and the first of this week, but it did not affect the grain. The grain is still growing, fine and fast, and we are looking for a big crop this year.

T. J. Jackson, John Lee Ball, Clayton Kirk and Dr. A. A. Soule made a quick trip to the Warm Springs reservation in the latter's auto recently, visiting the towns along the road.

Link River Beal was buried Sunday afternoon. He died at Klamath Falls. There were many friends attending the funeral, which was one of the largest held on the reservation.

The bad weather Sunday kept the baseball teams from playing their scheduled games.

Mrs. E. R. Reames and Miss Maude Baldwin have spent the week in Portland as delegates to the State Grand Lodge of the Order of the Eastern Star and attending the Rose Festival.

SICAN PLAYING PUZZLES REDS

KLAMATH AGENCY, June 13.—Surely there must have been something wrong, or the Sican Indians would have made even a few runs off the Klamath Falls team, and would have kept the Klamath Falls team from running the tallies up to 20. That's a slaughter. There surely must have been something wrong, and we don't believe Klamath Falls can do it again.

THREE OTHER BANKS CLOSE

CHICAGO, June 13.—Following the closing of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank yesterday, three others in which Lorimer & Munday were the prime factors, were closed by the bank examiners.

Crowds of depositors are swarming about the banks. The police are kept busy trying to move the angry people, who are struggling to enter the doors. The depositors, most of them working people, waited in line all of last night, and the police had to use their clubs to disperse the gatherings.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

BY MARGARET MASON (Written for the United Press)

I've often heard of timber belts, And belts of corn and wheat; But an oilcloth belt—Gee! That's a new one on me, And on every girl you meet.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Everything is going to waist. That portion of woman's anatomy has long been the junk heap of all sorts of metals, hides and fabrics to hang upon; but the present wide girdle of hard, black, shiny oilcloth is the champion belt of all for uncompromising ugliness.

The accepted model is about eight inches wide, in crushed effect, and fastens on the side with a sprawling vertical bow of the shiny material. Black oilcloth is most extensively used, but white oilcloth is decidedly chic, also, and gives the fair wearer the appearance of being all dressed up like the kitchen table.

This craze for oilcloth and ribbon waxed to simulate the real article first went to Fashion's head as hat trimming, and now that it has her on the middle ground, it does not seem at all inappropriate that it should appear as the very newest of all dress trimmings.

Particularly in combination with blue serge is the banding and binding of the hard black shiny surface most striking.

Funereal effects on both hat and frock are simply the last gasp of the mode and dull glazed wreaths of white leaves and flowers on the dull glazed back and white straw shapes in combination with the dull glazed ribbons are nothing if not "dead" swell. Let us hope, however, that lovely woman's mad passion for every thing glazed will not extend to her eyes.

"Watch out" is again the slogan. To be abreast of the time your watch must now dangle from the bosom of your coat or blouse. Of oblong shape like the smartest wrist watches, the new time piece hangs on a grosgrain ribbon exactly the width of the watch and decorated with a single jeweled slide, and is pinned to the blouse or the outside of the coat with a bar pin. The advent of this new rival has not wrested all the wrist watches from the pulse of Fashion, by any means, and among the novelties black enamel watches set with brilliants in bracelets of onyx are charming exponents of the new fad for black and white jeweled combinations and settings.

Just another little instance of Fashion's weird vagaries is the style of wearing the corsage bouquet in the middle of your back instead of in front. It is quite the thing to fasten either a single rose or a tiny nosegay in the middle of the back of your crush silk girdle, whose sash ends the fall from the floral decoration. If you prefer, a rosebud may nestle instead on the left hand flare of your ruffling collar.

Salamander fashions launched from the descriptions of the style of garments affected by the heroine of Owen Johnson's latest novel have New York at their feet. As the frocks and suits are all cut on the straight lines of the long Russian blouse, it will certainly be like playing with fire for any but the very slim and most youthful of figures to adapt the Salamander styles to their own personality.

Even the most pudgy, however, may indulge in an adoption of Salamander gloves, hankies and stationery, the last two articles sporting a facsimile of the lizard-like beastie by way of decoration. The Salamander gloves, both long and short, are all of biscuit or cafe au lait suede and doekskin, and very correct and trim looking. There are also Salamander blouses, hats, caps and everything for feminine wear from the skin out.

Indeed, if clothes made the woman, as they say they do the man, then by donning a complete Salamander outfit, presto change, every woman could turn into a fascinating "dodo" of the book, and capture a millionaire spouse on the strength of her garments.

Values His Punch at a Million

Many Believe That Big Blonde Will Slip It Across

By HAL SHERIDAN (Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, June 13.—One million big iron dollars—that is the value Frank Moran, the Pittsburgh "white hope" places on a knockout punch in his coming bout with Jack Johnson in Paris.

It is altogether probable that Moran's pretty blonde coiffure will be slightly mussed before he puts over that coveted sleep wallop, as the big dinge is known to have a kick that would make an army mule look like a sure enough piker.

If confidence can win the mill, then Moran has it corralled right now. The only weakness in his armor plate of assurance is over confidence.

A haymaker on Moran's part will echo around the world, for it will mean the supremacy of the white man in the ring again.

Such a blow will lift the white man's burden, dropped by Jim Jeffries at Reno, July 4, 1910. It will cause as big a ripple as T. R.'s charge up San Juan hill or the announcement that peace is declared in Mexico.

The battle for the title will be staged at the Veledrom d'Hiver, in Paris, on the night of June 27th, as a curtain raiser for the Grand Prix, the biggest event of the French turf.

The building has a seating capacity of 30,000, and present indications are that it will be jammed. Admission will range from $3 to $50 a seat.

Johnson has been guaranteed $35,000 for his part of the battle. Moran will receive $5,000. In addition to this, both fighters will split the revenue from the moving picture privileges.

LIBRARY CLUB NAMES OFFICERS

At Friday's meeting of the Women's Library Club, the following officers were elected: President—Mrs. Luella Stearns. Vice Presidents—Mrs. A. Bainter and Mrs. C. V. Fisher. Secretary—Mrs. C. P. Stewart. Treasurer—Mrs. Charles Graves.

At this meeting the women outlined plans for broadening the work to be carried on. They also arranged for their "guest night" entertainment on the night of June 26th.

NEBRASKAN SURE EXTENSION BILL WILL BE PASSED

That all of the Middle Western congressmen are not opposed to the adoption of the reclamation extension bill, which would give the water users twenty years instead of ten to pay off the cost of projects, is shown by a telegram received this morning from Congressman Moses P. Kincaid of Nebraska by Captain O. C. Applegate.

In this, Kincaid predicts early passage for the bill under a special rule, allowing but two hours for debate. The telegram, received in response to a letter from Applegate asking the Nebraska's aid for the passage of the measure, follows:

"Letter of 6th received. Extension bill is to receive consideration under special rule, two hours debate. To be reached probably inside of three weeks. Some opposition, but expect to pass it, and hope without any objectionable amendment."

Postal Roads

The rural postoffice roads being built in Jackson county under the direction of the office of public roads, department of agriculture, will be completed by August 1, according to Major A. W. Crossland, senior United States highway engineer in charge. The work was begun last fall and remained dormant until this spring.

Ashland Record.

LEWIS SAYS THAT WEST IS AFTER HIS REMOVAL

SALEM, June 12.—That Governor West is lined up with the promoters of a Carey act company who have been engaged in a campaign to discredit him and obtain his removal from office of state engineer, was the charge made by State Engineer John H. Lewis, in a statement in reply to a statement made by Governor West, with relation to an initiative bill to abolish the state desert land board and the office of state engineer.

The engineer declares that this company asked Senator Chamberlain, when the latter was governor, to remove Lewis because he would not certify to certain lands, and that Governor West is now lined up with this company.
