

Big Sawmill Is Plan for Southern Oregon

MEDFORD, Ore., July 13.—John S. Owens, head of the Owens Lumber company at Eau Claire, Wis., is expected here to inspect the Hart timber tract at Butte Falls, which his company recently purchased, and decide upon a plan looking to the erection of a lumber manufacturing plant either at Medford or at Butte Falls.

It is reported that the erection of such a mill at Medford, employing several hundred men, depends upon securing a suitable site of 100 acres at a reasonable price.

MAN IS FREED ON AN ERROR

Thus far two criminal cases have been taken up by the circuit court at this term; thus far, two juries have been instructed by the court to bring in verdicts of not guilty. In both cases the indictments of the grand jury, prepared by District Attorney John Irwin, have been the cause.

Thursday morning a demurrer was filed in the case of the state against Al Crystal, upon the ground that the indictment was not prepared in conformity with the law, as the foreman signed the endorsement in the wrong place. In the lower corner of today's Herald is a story of the case against W. J. Shaver being dismissed because of a faulty indictment.

Saturday the second directed verdict of not guilty was made, when Judge Benson instructed the jury in the trial of A. L. Pumford. Pumford was indicted as A. G. Loy's on charge of forgery.

The case was tried Saturday a. m., and the district attorney failed to show any evidence of a forgery by Pumford, although he put on witnesses whose testimony tended to show that Pumford has given K. Sugarman a worthless check in payment for a suit of clothes and other merchandise.

The evidence was to the effect that Pumford, after purchasing the goods, tendered Sugarman a check made out to A. G. Loy, and signed by James H. Henley. Thinking this was James T. Henley, Sugarman cashed the check without hesitancy, and the bank later stated there is no man here named J. H. Henley.

After the state rested, Arthur D. Hay, attorney for Pumford, moved for an instructed verdict. He held that while Pumford was indicted as Loy for forgery, the evidence failed to show any forgery at all, and the jury was instructed in accordance with Hay's motion.

CRESCENT HOTEL GETS IN COURTS

Fruit to foreclose a mechanic's lien against the Crescent hotel was started in the circuit court Saturday by F. M. Cleaves, a northern Klamath lumberman, against J. L. Ringo and Eddie Santry, proprietors.

The amount involved is $81.10 worth of lumber and building material, and the complaint also asks for the attorney fees.

AGED WOMAN SUED FOR ALIENATION

AGE IS NO PROTECTION FROM DAN CUPID IF YOU HAPPEN TO HAVE A MILLION OR SO OF DOLLARS

NEW YORK, July 13.—Charging alienation of her husband's affections, a suit demanding $250,000 damages from Mrs. Caroline Frame, aged 72, was on file here today in behalf of Mrs. Brownie Weaverton, 65. Mrs. Frame's husband died in 1903 and left her a fortune of about a million dollars. She also inherited another million from her grandfather. She has several grown children. Weaverton was Mrs. Frame's secretary for twelve years. Mrs. Weaverton is a member of the Mazzanin "Master Thought" cult and both are believers in mental healing.

FRIGHTFUL END OF YOUNG LAD IN LUMBER FIRE

United Press Service BISMARCK, Wash., July 11.—Glenvel Gabriel, a 14-year-old boy, met with a terrible death this morning at a fire which destroyed two lumber mills at this place. While the fire was raging, Gabriel was one of a crew attempting to pull lumber from the flames with a locomotive. The intense heat warped the rails in time, and the engine overturned. In the fall Gabriel was caught under the tender by one hand and a foot, and from this position it was impossible to rescue him on account of the intense heat. One of the men present grabbed a fireman's shovel and attempted to amputate the boy's leg in order to free him, but the great heat overcame him and he was dragged unconscious from the spot.

The boy's cries for help were fearful, until he finally lost consciousness and slowly roasted to death. Later the bodies of Gabriel and Switchman C. A. Westcott and Earl Carpenter, a street car inspector, were recovered from the wreck of the locomotive. Switchman W. A. Manger was fatally burned and fourteen other railroad men and mill hands were more or less injured.

The mills belong to the Bismarck Mill company and the Comly Mill company, and the loss is estimated at $115,000.

INDIAN BOUND TO THE GRAND JURY

As a result of the trouble among some of the Indians attending the Big July Time at Fort Klamath, Deal Chiloquin was Friday bound over to the federal grand jury on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The complaining witness was Floyd Brown, another Indian. The hearing was held before United States Commissioner Ferguson Friday night and Chiloquin and other federal prisoners left for Portland Saturday in the custody of Deputy United States Marshal Fuller.

There were many witnesses examined, but none would testify to seeing Chiloquin cut Brown with the knife, although they said he had a knife and was on top of Brown.

Chicago Swimmers in Portland

PORTLAND, July 11.—Aquatic fans of Portland are promised one of the finest exhibitions of water sports ever seen here tonight, when the Chicago Amateur Athletic Club swimming team, winners of the 1914 national honors, compete with a team from the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club of Portland. The events will be 100, 220, 440 and 880 yard swims and fancy diving. The Chicago team is on a tour of the West and Middle West. Norman Ross of the Multnomah Club, the Pacific Coast 200, 500 and 880 yard outdoor champion, will be one of the principal entrants against the Eastern team.

New Compilation of Laws

Salem, Ore., July 13.—State Insurance Commissioner J. W. Ferguson has just issued a compilation of all the laws relating to state and county officials and state institutions, classified to show fees, appropriations and expenditures. A copy of the laws is being sent to all state and county officials for their assistance in accounting to the state accounting department.

PUBLIC MARKET AT OREGON CITY

CLACKAMAS COUNTY TOWN HAS ADOPTED THE MODERN METHOD OF ENCOURAGING FARMERS BY PROVIDING MARKET

OREGON CITY, July 13.—Twenty-five Clackamas county producers took advantage of the first day of the public market in Oregon City Saturday and drove into the city with their wagons full of fresh country products. Everything in the way of vegetables and small fruit, eggs, canned fruit, jellies and even homemade grape juice were offered for sale.

So great was the demand that by 10 o'clock a large number of the wagons were empty, and at 11 o'clock only four of the producers had anything left for sale. It is apparent the public market has come to stay in Oregon City, and as more of the residents get in the habit of buying their produce from these farmers, more will be brought to the city. The people will be benefited by fresh eatables and it stands to reason that a large part of the money paid to farmers will be spent in Oregon City.

The market is located on Fifth street one block east of Main and will be a permanent fixture every Friday.

PENDLETON BEER SLEEP PRODUCER

EFFECT OF BEER AND THE SUN CAUSES MAN TO FALL ASLEEP AT EXTREME TOP OF TELEPHONE POLE

PENDLETON, Ore., July 13.—"There's a man up a pole here and he hasn't moved for half an hour. I think he's been electrocuted." Such was a message received at the local telephone office Saturday, and Manager Mable hurriedly sent out relief squad. They found a lineman at the top of the pole, his head resting on a crossarm and his body supported only by his safety belt and climbers. He was not dead but was sound asleep. He explained that a few glasses of beer and the hot sun had made him drowsy.

MEDFORD GETS CHEAP PAVING

BID OF CLARKE & HENRY FOR FIVE-MILE ROAD IS THE LOWEST EVER RECEIVED IN JACKSON COUNTY

MEDFORD, Ore., July 13.—Clark & Henry have been awarded the contract for construction of five miles of hard surfaced pavement between Ashland and Talent, work to begin at once.

The bid was the lowest ever made for similar work in Jackson county. Clark & Henry's bid varied from 92 1/2 cents per yard for redressing the road to $1.43 for a four-inch concrete base with 1 1/2 inch asphalt concrete wearing surface. The Warren Construction company entered the only other bid.

THIRTY THOUSAND ELKS SWARM DENVER

United Press Service DENVER, July 11.—One of the greatest crowds Denver has ever entertained began arriving here today when the vanguard of the members and families of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks arrived for the Grand Jubilee Reunion to be held here next week.

Local Elks officials estimated that fully 30,000 Elks would be here by Monday night, exclusive of families of members and their friends. Preparations for the reunion, which have been rushed for two weeks, were finished today. The last of the street decorations have been put up, headquarters for the various delegations have been prepared and arrangements completed for handling the big crowds smoothly. Registration headquarters have

Six Months Time to Certify Delinquency

SALEM, Ore., July 13.—In an opinion to the state tax commission, Attorney General Crawford holds that the provision in section 2, chapter 184, laws of 1913, that it shall be the duty of the sheriff, on demand, to issue a certificate of delinquency any time after taxes are delinquent one month is a legislative error.

He points out that section 1 of chapter 303, laws of 1913, provides that after taxes are delinquent for four months, a notice of such delinquency must be published for one month, in which notice it shall be stated that after six months from date of delinquency a certificate of delinquency will be issued.

"Taxes become delinquent September 1," said the attorney general, "and if the sheriff had to issue a certificate of delinquency any day after October 1, the notice of delinquency which is required to be published after taxes are delinquent four months would be of no value, as the certificate would already have been issued."

"We hold that the provision requiring the issuance of the certificate of delinquency after taxes have been delinquent six months is the one that applies."

NEWSPAPER MAN MAY BE DEPORTED FROM VERA CRUZ

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—The war department today stated that Frederick Boalt, a correspondent for the Newspaper Enterprise Association at Vera Cruz, has been ordered deported for publishing a story in which he claimed that an American naval squad shot Mexican fugitives at the time Vera Cruz was captured, acting under the Mexican "ley de fuga" (law of flight).

Later the deportation order was suspended pending fuller investigation. Boalt meantime being held under technical arrest.

Boalt's deportation is almost certain, as the truth of his article is immaterial, the authorities having the power to deport whoever publishes anything of which they disapprove.

United Press Service VERA CRUZ, July 11.—It is more likely that a congressional investigation of Boalt's story.

He asserts that Ensign William Richardson and other officers of the battleship Arkansas told him that they and their men fired on unarmed, fleeing Mexicans during the occupation.

The matter seems likely to develop into an investigation of Richardson's actions.

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., Secretary Garrison has asked General Funston why Boalt was detained, and Funston replied that the correspondent was now at liberty. It has been learned that the deportation was ordered before it was known that Boalt claimed his information came from navy officers.

As soon as this was learned, the order was suspended, pending investigation.

Congressman Falconer today introduced a resolution in the house directing the secretary of navy and the secretary of war to submit to the house all papers covering the Boalt case, so it would be possible to ascertain upon whose order the deportation sentence was issued.

United Press Service VERA CRUZ, July 11.—William Shepherd, United Press Correspondent, testified before the Boalt court inquiry this afternoon. In his testimony Shepherd said: "I heard one story about some Mexican prisoners being locked in a house, and being released on signal, and fired upon. I also heard of some Mexicans being shot as they ran away from the American marines."

Shepherd quoted Ensign William Richardson among the authorities for the story, and added: "Later I heard that Richardson suffered a sunstroke during the battle, and thought that perhaps his statement was due to his condition following the sunstroke."

Captain Grant of the inquiry court asked: "Did Richardson say in your presence that he had killed anybody?"

In reply Shepherd said: "I heard him say, 'We let a Mexican get within two feet of safety behind a wall, and then fired and got him.'"

Will Install Own Light In order to raise the money with which to install a municipal lighting system, the city of Drain, Oregon, has voted to sell $6,000 worth of city bonds. As soon as the bonds are disposed of, the contract for the construction will be let.
