

C. C. HOGUE IS SUGGESTED FOR COUNTY JUDGE Lakeview Man Is Seriously Injured When His Automobile Turns Over

G. L. HOLBROOK IS CAUGHT BENEATH AUTOMOBILE AND SUFFERS FRACTURE OF BASE OF THE SKULL THIS MORNING

CHAS. GORSEN RECEIVES FIVE-
INCH GASH IN HIS SCALP

Prominent Lake County Sheepman,
While Learning to Drive Automobile,
Loses Control of Machine
Twelve Miles From Klamath Falls;
Was on His Way Home From Cottage Grove

G. L. Holbrook, a prominent sheepman of Lakeview, is in a very dangerous condition, and Chas. Gorsen, of McMinnville, has a bad scalp wound and otherwise injured, as a result of an auto accident this forenoon.

The accident happened about twelve miles from Klamath Falls on this side of the gap. Holbrook, who is just learning to drive, was running the car when it struck some loose dirt on the grade and overturned, pinning the two men underneath the car. Another man, who was familiar with automobiles, was with the party. He succeeded in righting the machine, which was badly damaged, and brought the two injured men back to town, where they were attended by Drs. Johnson and Cathey.

Mr. Holbrook had purchased a new Ford machine at Forest Grove, and, accompanied by Chas. Gorsen, of McMinnville, started to drive to Lake county. When he reached Oakland, about an hour's drive from Forest Grove, he had trouble with the machine, and picked up a man who was on his way south to accompany him and drive the car.

They reached here from Ashland last night, and this morning started for Lakeview. Mr. Holbrook decided to drive the car himself and started out from Klamath Falls at the wheel. They had very nearly reached the gap when the accident happened.

Mr. Holbrook, who was most seriously injured of the two, was taken to the American Hotel, being personally accompanied with Horace Dunlap, the proprietor.

He was attended by Dr. Cathey, and his condition was found to be such that he will be removed to the Blackburn Hospital this afternoon. He had a hemorrhage from the ears and was bleeding freely, which would indicate that he had received a fracture of the skull. There was no cut on the head or body, but there was a bruise at the base of the skull. Shortly after arriving at the hotel he became unconscious from the shock and probably from the injury to the skull.

Chas. Gorsen, whose wound was sewed up and dressed by Dr. Johnson, received a bad scalp wound five inches in length. The scalp was torn off the skull for three inches. He displayed unusual nerve and after being attended to was on the streets.

HORNHOOK TO BE HERE SUNDAY

ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETED FOR BALL GAME BETWEEN LOCALS AND THE HORNHOOK TEAM AT MODOC PARK

The Klamath Falls baseball team has completed final arrangements for a game next Sunday at Modoc Park. The California team will come up in autos and the game will be played in the afternoon.

It is said that Hornbrook has a good strong team and a number of the best players that were here with the Montague team will be in the line up.

Klamath Falls will probably play Brown and Mutschenbacher as battery. Mutschenbacher has about recovered from the injury to his hand in the Talent game and says he will be able to handle the big mitt Sunday.

Will Replace Statue

United Press Service
MEXICO CITY, July 23.—President Carbajal has ordered that the statue of Washington be replaced.

There is a revulsion of feeling toward America which is being manifested everywhere. The newspapers are openly demanding that full reparations be made to the Americans for the damage caused by the riots. They insist that the person holding the arm belonging to the statue of Washington return the same.

Carbajal is in complete control. It is believed here that the war is ended.

Remonstrance Is Filed

Objection Made to Formation of Irrigation District

A remonstrance was filed today against the organization of the irrigation district to be known as the Willow Valley Irrigation district. The petition for the district was filed June 29, 1914. The remonstrance is signed by E. R. C. Williams and C. G. Hunt. The matter is to be considered at a meeting of the county court tomorrow.

The remonstrance alleges that a majority of the owners of lands in the proposed boundaries are opposed to the organization of the district, and that a vast majority of the land is owned by persons opposed to such district.

It also alleges that the proposed reservoir is wholly impracticable for the reason that, in dry seasons, a sufficient amount of water to irrigate as much as 25 per cent of the lands could not be impounded. It is also claimed that the cost would be excessive.

M'LEMORE WILL SHIP CATTLE TO MIDDLE WEST

PREDICTS POOR MARKET ON THE COAST THIS FALL

Brought Last Year Caused Ranchers of Kansas and Nebraska to Dispose of Their Cattle, But With a Bumper Crop This Year Market in Those States Will Be Good for Feeders; Handled 23,000 Head Last Year

D. M. McMemore, the cattle buyer, will leave in the morning for the south, where he will arrange to contract cattle for fall delivery. Mr. McMemore predicts that the cattle market will be poor on the coast this fall, and all of his shipments will be made to the Middle West states.

The drought of last year caused the ranchers and farmers of Kansas and Nebraska to dispose of most of their cattle, and with a bumper crop this year there is sure to be a good market in those states for feeders.

Mr. McMemore will visit Denver, Kansas City and Omaha to look over the field before contracting cattle in the south.

Last season McMemore handled 23,000 head of cattle, some of which were shipped to Klamath county.

After sizing up the conditions in the Middle West he says that he expects to do even a larger business this year than last.

United Press Service
SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., July 23.—Representatives of the Santa Fe trainmen in Chicago have sent the following message to railroad men in this city:

"Prospects for a settlement are unfavorable, and we may leave any day. The mediators suggest mediation, which we have declined."

The railroad men here believe the message foreshadows a strike.

Mrs. Astor Too Much of An American to Like W. W. Astor

Mrs. Waldorf Astor, daughter-in-law of William Waldorf Astor, who many years ago moved over to London, worth about $80,000,000 left by his fathers and grandfathers, has become so outspoken in her dislike for him that a far reaching family row has resulted.

Mrs. Astor was one of the Langhorne sisters of Virginia, and she believed in the United States like most Virginians. When she came back several months ago she made that very plain. She said she was going to bring up her young son as an American.

It was evident that she could not be fully reconciled to her father-in-law, who did not want his son to wed her at all. But having social charm and many friends, she had a position in English society apart from that of the expatriated Astor family.

Recently she made a remark about the elder Astor's money bags, a remark so sharp that it hurt the millionaire. The son, her husband, is said to have sided with her, and as a consequence Astor offered for sale two London newspapers which he purchased to boost his son's political ambition.

WOULD HAVE BOTH JUDGE WORDEN AND HANKS WITHDRAW FROM RACE IN FAVOR OF NON-FACTIONAL MAN

Conference to Arrange Transfer
United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 23.—The administration is seeking a confirmation of the report that the Mexican factions had agreed to an armistice. The Brazilian minister is unable to confirm the report but he believes that if an armistice has been declared that it indicates that Carranza has made certain promises to Carbajal. The latter insists that he guarantee the lives of the federals.

Jose Castellot, who is representing Carbajal, announces that a conference will open at Tampico Monday to arrange for the transfer of authority to the constitutionalists. He is of the opinion that an armistice can be arranged. Both Carranza and Sillman are at Tampico.

D. ELLIS YOUNG ALSO OFFERED AS A COMPROMISE CANDIDATE

As Election Time Approaches, It Looks as if an Effort Would Be Made by the People to Settle Long Standing Fight and Create Harmony by an Attempt to Persuade Both Candidates to Resign

There is increasing talk of efforts to be made to compromise the county judge fight and put and end to all of the bitter strife that has existed in the county for the past five years. Two of the compromise candidates that have been prominently mentioned are C. C. Hogue, disbursing officer of the reclamation service, and D. Ellis Young, a well known and successful farmer living south of Klamath Falls.

It is not believed that Mr. Hogue would consent to become a candidate for the office, unless both Worden and Hanks should withdraw from the race and the field was left open. He could not accept the office without a financial sacrifice as his present salary is much greater than that allowed the county judge. He stands very high with the reclamation service and is considered one of the best qualified financiers in the city. It is argued that he would be the best man that could be found to inaugurate a system in county affairs and put the county on a strictly business basis. The suggestion of Mr. Young as a candidate seems to come from members of the republican party. It has been stated, whether with the knowledge of Mr. Worden or not is not known, that Worden only entered the race for re-election on account of the fight that was made against him, and that he could be persuaded to withdraw, if a strictly non-factional man could be secured for the office.

While it is some time before the November election, the county judge question is already causing a great deal of discussion, and it looks as though the people of the county, as a body, will take a hand in the long standing fight that has given the county such a black eye. The people are beginning to believe that a little harmony would be a most refreshing change.

Thought It Safer
United Press Service
LONDON, July 23.—At the Old Bailey a prisoner who said he was unable to hire a lawyer asked the court to appoint one to represent his case.

"Just make your own choice," said the recorder, pointing to a score of barristers present. The prisoner carefully scanned the countenances of the three rows of lawyers, then announced: "Never mind; I'll defend myself."

Building Concrete Flume

Cut-Off on Main Drain Will Save 1000 Feet

The work by the reclamation service on the cutoff on the first unit main near the Wilson bridge is progressing very satisfactorily, according to Engineer Hayden. The cutoff straightens out a crook on the main drain and saves about a thousand feet. In addition it will lower the drain at the southern end about six feet. This is distributed along the entire length of the drain, lowering the upper end about two feet. One-half of the cutoff has been drained and dredge No. 2, which is doing the excavation work, has been moved across the diversion channel and is now working on this end.

Work has also commenced on the culvert which will run under the diversion channel connecting the drain. The old culvert now being used is constructed of wood, but the one being built in the cutoff will be made double and each culvert will be four feet square. It will be about 160 feet long and will be of concrete construction.
