PROHIBITION BIG ISSUE IN DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES

DALLAS, Texas, July 25.—Prohibition was the big issue in today's state-wide democratic primaries for the nomination of governor, members of the legislature and other state officers.

The fight was even carried to the contests for nomination to the legislature, because it will be up to the legislature in 1915 to decide whether the people shall have another chance to vote for or against statewide prohibition.

At the very top of the ballots in the primaries today the voter was given an opportunity to vote for or against "the submission of a constitutional amendment prohibiting within this state the manufacture, sale, exchange and intrastate shipment of intoxicating liquors, except for medicinal and sacramental purposes."

Even if the dyes nominate Bell the wets have hopes of defeating submission by controlling the next legislature. The referendum on the submission question taken today was intended only as a guide to the democratic leaders who will draft a state platform on August 11th.

The nomination of a democratic candidate for governor is equivalent to election in Texas. The bitter personalities marked the campaign between Bell and Ferguson.

Besides the prohibition issue, the promises of the candidates have dealt with land rents, educational appropriations, prison reforms, and agricultural problems.

A congressman-at-large was to be nominated today from among eleven candidates.

YOUNG STENOGRAPHER BREAKS ALL RECORDS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—In a speed trial held before Judge Sturtevant, presiding over the superior court of San Francisco, Lasher B. Gallagher, 20 years old, who has studied stenography only two years, wrote 284 words a minute, which was as fast as anybody in the room could read to him, but apparently not as fast as he could write, for he was not flurried in the least.

In the national shorthand speed contests, 280 words a minute is the highest speed, and in the last contest the winner got 272 words correct.

Young Gallagher read his notes back correctly, and comparison with the original, which was a legal transcript totally unfamiliar to him, showed that he had not made an error.

"GIVE US YOUR COMBINGS," SAYS FRESH AIR COMMITTEE

LONDON, July 25.—"Give us your combings," says an ingenious appeal issued to the women of England by the promoters of the London Fresh Air Fund.

Estimating that an average of more than two ounces of hair is shed annually by every woman in the United Kingdom, they figure that $750,000, which might be used to furnish country vacations for the poor children of the metropolis, is thus thrown away. For every pound of hair received by the fund—value, 18 cents—one child will be given a day's outing, with plenty to eat.

The fund last year sent more than a quarter of a million children to the country for outings of from one day to two weeks.

A Klamath avenue lady remarked this morning that while she didn't mind so much seeing two policemen knock a drunken man down and one of them sit on him while the other beat him over the head, still she thought they might do it in a more gentlemanly way, and not use such profane and obscene language in the operation.

Poincare in Stockholm

STOCKHOLM, July 25.—President Poincare of France was to arrive here today from St. Petersburg, where he was the guest of the czar. He will visit Christiania July 27th.

MUTUAL MILLING COMPANY LOSES

The jury Thursday evening returned verdict in favor of Robert May for $1250 damages against the Mutual Milling company. The first ballot stood six to six. It then switched to nine to six in favor of a $1250 verdict. As it was a civil suit, it took only nine men to bring in a verdict.

May sued for a total of $4,683.95 damages for alleged violation of contract. He claimed that he entered into a contract to cut 10,000,000 feet of timber, and that after a little over 600,000 feet had been cut and delivered, the milling company forced him to quit work.

The milling company claimed that they were forced to stop placing logs in the Williamson river by a ruling of the interior department, and that a complete and satisfactory settlement was made with May at that time.

OAKLAND TO BUY HOME OF POET

(Herald Special Service) OAKLAND, Cal., July 25.—"For the purchase of 'The Heights,' the former home of Joaquin Miller, $40,000."

This item will appear in the budget this year for the city of Oakland, and in a short time the beautiful home of the dead poet will belong to Oakland and will be the mecca of thousands who loved his work while he was alive and revere his memory now that he is dead.

The final step in the move to have Oakland acquire the poet's former home in the hills back of the city was taken when a large delegation of women called on Mayor Frank K. Mott and urged that the plan, which emanated from the women of Oakland, be carried out at once, so that "The Heights" could become city property before the opening of the 1915 fair. Mayor Mott promised the women that he would see that the item appeared in the budget.

"The Heights" will, after the city gets title to it, become a part of the Wildwood chain of parks, a series of beauty spots that are unique in American cities. The chain consists in all of a little more than 300 acres, and the Joaquin Miller place is one of the links.

"It is not merely a sentimental feeling that prompts the Oakland women to urge the purchase by the city," said the leader of the delegation. "The place is really historic, and it can be bought now for much less than will be the case later.

"The stamp of Joaquin Miller's personality has been placed on this home, where he lived for more than a quarter of a century. Some of those who live in Oakland may not realize how highly the poet was esteemed by the people of the East and of Europe. We were too near him, possibly, to obtain the proper perspective. We are beginning to see that his old home will be the mecca of many a tourist, and that will be one of the big talking points of Oakland and of California at large.

PERRY O. DeLAP ELECTED BASEBALL MANAGER

At a meeting of directors of Klamath Falls Baseball Club Saturday, Leslie Rogers was elected president of the organization to succeed Harry Ruiz, whose position as a director was taken by Will Hurn at a stockholders' meeting Friday night.

Perry O. DeLap was chosen as manager of the team and will be the only man authorized to make contracts for games and purchase supplies for the club. All contracts recommended by the manager will first be approved by the directors.

The officers and directors of the club are: Leslie Rogers, president; Will H. Bennett, secretary and treasurer; J. S. Kent, A. Y. Tindall and Wm. C. Hurn, directors; Perry O. DeLap, manager.

SOME FEW KISSES AND SOME DUELS

United Press Service PARIS, July 25.—Mme. Caillaux fainted during the course of her trial today when letters alleged to have been written to her by her present husband while she was still the wife of another were read in court. One of the letters ended with the endearing phrase: "A thousand thousand kisses on your beloved body." And then the lady fainted.

Another issue of the trial was the challenge to a duel extended to First Associate Judge Louis Dagoury by Judge Albanel. The challenge was the outcome of a remark made by Dagoury during the trial yesterday, when he leaned over to Albanel and whispered: "Sir, you are dishonoring us."

Judge Albanel flushed, but made no comment at the time. Today, however, he sent his seconds to wait upon Judge Dagoury.

Society

A very delightful party was given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Melhase. Five hundred was played and beautiful prizes offered for the highest score. Refreshments were served to the following guests: Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mrs. Fred Schallock, Mrs. Claude Daggett, Mrs. G. K. Van Riper, Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mrs. Withrow and Mrs. Van Bellen.

Thursday evening a party of young people enjoyed a trip to the pines on the Upper Klamath Lake. The affair was given in honor of Walter Perkins, who leaves soon for Walla Walla, Washington. All report having a good time until a panther broke up the party and threw them into a panic by its screaming. Those who enjoyed the trip were: Miss Laura Bice, Miss Rachael Applegate, Miss Jennie Applegate, Miss Beatrice Glendenning, Miss Bess Mulkey, Miss Mabel Sanderson, and Miss Ruth Talley; Messrs. Walter Perkins, Herbert Weber, William Thomas, Gilbert Arnold, Thomas Waters and D. C. Morris.

Tuesday afternoon the Bridge Club met with Mrs. A. M. Worden. Among those present were: Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. Fred Melhase, Mrs. S. E. Martin, Mrs. Chas. Martin, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. A. M. Worden, Mrs. C. C. Hogue and Mrs. G. K. Van Riper.

A jolly party of young ladies started a trip on the Upper Lake Friday by launch. They will visit Odessa and tator manner. No summer girls should be without one.

Another Romany-like head dress for the evening gypsy queen, rather than the Gitana of daytime sports, is a band of ever-twinkly and vibrating jewels suspended from tiny chains that dangle low over the forehead.

Hair is still done high and the simple coiffure is the most approved, but as a sop to the eternal feminine fancy for ornateness is given the concession of many quaint trimmings for the evening head.

Feathers particularly are much flaunted and an effect weird enough to be hailed as a chef d'oeuvre of smartness is obtained by wearing a black velvet band low on the forehead, over which strands of paradise dangle down well over the eyes. Wide, plain bands of vivid hued velvets are also much affected, worn down almost over one eye in a decidedly disconcerting manner.

Among other new and amazing fad accessories of the evening toilette is a ruche of much-fluted tulle flaring about the ears from a tiny black velvet neck band. These, worn with the extreme decolette corsage of the moment seem a reversion to modesty at the wrong point.

That there is the penchant for the wearing of a single artificial blossom, high on the left shoulder fastened to a bit of illusion or lace which poses as both shoulder strap and sleeve, and the wearing of a long loosely-wrinkling suede gloves of cafe au lait to the utter exclusion of the erstwhile approved white lace ones.

Postpone Rate Hearing WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—Because of the summer vacation season, the interstate commerce commission today planned further postponement of hearings upon railroad applications for increase in rates on fruit from California to Missouri river points.

The rate is now $2.00 a hundred-weight and the railroads want it increased 33 cents a hundred.

Saloon Must Stop Cashing Pay Checks LOS ANGELES, July 25.—Saloons here may not be permitted hereafter to cash laborers' pay checks.

The police commission has ordered the city prosecutor to prepare a resolution for the council declaring the cashing of pay checks to be improper business for saloons.

When Huerta decamped he took $5,000,000 with him. The city itself was too heavy to carry.

CITIES MAY MAKE OWN PRIMARY LAWS

SALEM, Ore., July 25.—Attorney General Crawford today gave an opinion to the effect that under the home rule amendment of the constitution, section 2, article 11, passed in 1910, a municipality or city of over 2,000 inhabitants is not bound to make direct primary nominations, but can provide its own methods by ordinance.

However, he held that where a city had not made provision for election by other methods, the direct primary would apply.

The clause of the constitution referred to by the attorney general says that the voters of a city or municipality of over 2,000 shall have the power to enact and amend the municipal charter, subject to the constitutional and criminal laws of the state.

HALL BACK FROM DENVER SESSION

"I only visited one city on my trip where business appeared to be good," said E. B. Hall, who has returned from attending the Grand Lodge, B. P. O. E., Elks at Denver. "That was Salt Lake City. Business houses there seemed to be prosperous, but everywhere else things were very quiet. Business conditions in Denver are as bad as has been reported and this condition exists throughout all of Colorado, and even in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Sacramento and other cities I stopped at."

Mr. Hall reports a very interesting meeting of the grand lodge. The attendance of delegates was very large but everyone at the meeting was there strictly for business and the session was well attended and full of life. The outside interest was not so evident as at other grand lodge sessions nor was the attendance from surrounding territory as great.

Having formerly lived in Colorado, Mr. Hall took occasion to visit many of the towns where he was acquainted. The strikes and trouble at the mines has been a hard blow to business, but the crops this year in the northern part of the state are good and the people are looking for good times when the crops are harvested.

As a result of the change in the tariff on sugar, the factories have cut the price on sugar beets 25 cents a ton, which will probably result in a decrease in acreage next year, although there is a heavy crop this year.

"Give me Klamath Falls," continued Mr. Hall, "in preference to any place I have seen. I used to think Colorado was a pretty good place, but either conditions there have changed or else I never before realized what a really good country we have here. Klamath county has a combination of all of the attractive features of all of the other places I visited, and none of their drawbacks. Klamath Falls for me."

TROUBLE GROWS IN SAN DOMINGO

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 25.—According to advices just received by the White House, two employes of the American Sugar company were killed on the estate of the company near San Pedro, in the province of Demacaris, on the island of San Domingo, last night by followers of the revolution forces.

The murdered men were not Americans but were employed by an American corporation. To prevent further outrages, the gunboat Marietta has been ordered to proceed to that point at once.

It is considered that this move is but a forerunner to intervention on the part of America.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 25.—The pick of Western golfers and a smattering of Eastern talent was represented here today when play for the Olympic cup, preliminary to the Western amateur championships, started on the Kent Country Club course.

Teams of four opened the competition in the Olympic trophy event. The competition is at thirty-six holes medal play, total scores counting.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—The capital newspapers today published the announcement of the engagement of Miss Lucy Burleson, aged 21, the daughter of Albert Sidney Burleson, postmaster general, and James Clark McReynolds, aged 50, attorney general of the United States.

Ever watch the patience and perseverance of a spider catching a fly? Follow its example and you will become rich.

London suffers have horsewhipped another public official, and the whip will be saved as a souvenir.

HOPE SEEN FOR SETTLEMENT

TENTATIVE CONTRACT IS APPROVED BY KING

City Now Knows What the Government Can and Is Willing to Do in Settlement of the Ankeny Canal Nuisance; People Will Probably Be Asked to Authorize Council to Enter Into Contract With Reclamation Service

The reclamation service received a wire today from Will R. King, chief counsel of the service, approving the tentative contract and agreement between the city of Klamath Falls and the government for the settlement of the Ankeny canal nuisance.

The city officials have been working on the matter some time with the government and finally a tentative agreement was reached, which now has been approved by the chief counsel for the reclamation service. It is probable that it will be necessary to have the people vote on authorizing the council to enter into the contract.

The proposition, as far as agreed to now, is that eventually an agreement is to be entered into between the reclamation service and the city that, in consideration of the Ankeny ditch being abandoned, the city agrees to furnish water to the present users of the ditch, as far as claims are not waived by users, the city furnishing the same quantity, during the same period, and subject to the same conditions as the reclamation service did heretofore.

The legal department of the reclamation service not being satisfied that the charter as now gives the council authority to enter into such a contract, a draft is to be submitted by the department of an amendment to be submitted to popular vote, giving to the council power to enter into such a contract.

The expectation is that with few exceptions the water users will relinquish their claims to the city, leaving a few to be provided with water during four months in the year, at the usual rates of the water company for such service, the same to be paid by the city, and the water users to pay to the city the same charge as heretofore to the government, i. e., $1.50 per annum per inch of water.

It is believed that the electors of the city will not hesitate to grant power to enter into such a contract. Should it not meet with popular approval, it would appear that further negotiations will be useless.

Rains Bring Relief

CHICAGO, July 25.—A thunderstorm in Northern Illinois has brought relief from the heat wave.

The temperature fell 10 degrees within an hour. Heavy rains are reported in Iowa and Nebraska.

A New Invention

An exchange says that a new attachment for automobiles is announced. It is a music box, and whenever the car is driven twenty miles an hour or less it plays "Home, Sweet Home," but whenever it is sent faster than that the tune is "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Next to the music of a tree frog, the wail of a disappointed office seeker is about the loneliest sound on earth.

In the absence of anything more exciting in our burg, we might amuse ourselves by sprinkling salt on the tail of a mosquito.

BE NO ELECTION OF POSTMASTERS

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 25.—Postmaster General Burleson has refused to recognize the Richards primary law passed by the legislature of South Dakota, which is designed to let the people choose their own postmasters, instead of having them appointed through political pull.

The postmaster general says that he considers the law merely an experiment.
