FOOD PRICES ARE SOARING

Klamath Falls people heartily agree with General Sherman's celebrated definition of war, even though this city is several thousand miles removed from the scene of carnage, and there is no danger of a call to arms for local men.

This aversion to the boom and clang of battle is due not only to a desire for brotherly peace among all nations, but also for the effect that Billie Hohenzollern's little fuss is having on the supply of foodstuffs.

Take sugar, for instance. Thursday sugar was selling at $5.75 the sack. Today it is selling at $6.75.

"The price of sugar to the retailers has advanced a dollar a sack in the last forty-eight hours," said A. D. Miller, a well known commission man today. "The dealers are paying $6.62 today, and there is every reason to expect eight dollar sugar within a short time."

The many armed fleets that are patrolling all waters eager to prey upon the commercial ships of their antagonists are a constant menace to all the maritime trade. As a result, all insurance on vessels has been cancelled, and many vessels have been ordered docked until after the war is ended.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—As a result of the difficulties of shipping, the prices of foodstuffs are soaring here. This is especially true of meat and fish.

LOCAL MEAT CO.

CHANGES HANDS

The Crisler & Stilts meat markets passed into the ownership of D. J. Desmond, recently of San Francisco, when a deal was closed through the W. P. Johnson company. The new owner is now taking an inventory. Crisler & Stilts retain their property interests, disposing only of the business of the Hales and Palace markets.

BROADVIEW FARM IS SOLD TO NURSERYMAN

F. L. Evans, field representative of the Oregon Nursery company, at Orasco, Ore., has purchased the place known as "Broadview," three miles east of this city, from F. O. Meloy.

Mr. Evans is an experienced horticulturist, representing one of the oldest and best equipped nurseries on the coast, and it is his intention to put about sixty acres of his new place in fruit, mostly commercial apples of the winter varieties.

On the place at present there are about 500 apple trees just coming into bearing. Mr. Evans will take immediate possession, and his many friends are wishing him all kinds of success in his new venture.

ONE INDUSTRY HELPED BY WAR

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 7.—A local firm has received orders from Austria and from Serbia for quantities of the quality of steel used in the manufacture of bayonets and scabbards.

It is reported that the Crucible Steel company has been asked by Austria for 100,000 pounds of flexible steel.

Steel orders are coming into Pittsburgh plants in volume sufficient to begin full operation of many mills.

ST. CLOUD WILL HAVE THE OPERA

Grand opera (in this case uproar) is soon to invade Klamath.

Announcement has just been made that this form of pleasure or punishment, the capacity for standing which constitutes the difference between the real highbrow and the common roughneck, is to be sprung soon. The company figures on remaining, too, unless driven out.

In this case it is "Commodore Noller Presents," for the Sage of St. Cloud has come forward with the news of the Wagnerian visitation. St. Cloud is to be raised from the level of a ball room.

"The troupe will soon be in commission," said the commodore, as he paused for the moment in his work of directing the Upper Lake fleet for the better defense of this section in case of invasion. "There are sixteen in the company, all built of the prettiest pine slabs you have ever seen. "They all stand up, bow, scrape and holler—and that is the principal requisite of grand opera."

WAR DELAYS HIS MOTHER ABROAD

The European war is being forcibly brought home to J. A. Goldsmith, a local tailor, by the receipt of tidings to the effect that his mother, who left Austria on her way to Klamath Falls some time ago, is being detained in Europe.

Frau Goldsmith, according to her son, had reached the mouth of the Elbe and was ready to embark, when the German fleet took a position outside the harbor and is keeping all commercial ships inside, at least until after the German army mobilization is completed.

Goldsmith says his mother is advanced in years, and he is also fearful lest she run out of funds while detained in this way among strangers in a strange land.

RICH AND POOR SEND MESSAGES

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7.—Late this afternoon the White House announced that the Wilson funeral will be a private affair Monday afternoon. After the service here, the remains will leave on a special train for Georgia to be interred there the following day.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7.—Hundreds of telegrams of sympathy, including many messages from humble homes, and flowers and condolences from the dwellers in the slums who were helped by Mrs. Wilson, are pouring into the White House today.

All over the nation flags are at half mast. Wilson and his daughters are bearing up bravely. Relatives of the family are arriving, and the White House gates are closed to all but them.

Tentative plans are being made to hold the funeral Monday. It is probable that the remains will be interred at Rome, Georgia.

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—The bitter legal battle, long threatened, to compel New Haven directors to restore to the stockholders $306,000,000 alleged to be due through their default of the judiciary trust was finally joined in the supreme judicial court here today.

First rumored last winter, then revived by the interstate commerce commission suit, and finally filed the day after the interstate commerce commission's scathing condemnation of the road and its directors, the suit seeks the appointment of a receiver for the road and the issue of an injunction restraining sale or transfer of any stock of the defendant directors.

It has been brought by the law firm of Whipple, Sears & Ogden in the nature of an equity suit for Ralph Bartlett, trustee for the estate of Olea Bull Vaughan, owner of fifty shares.

The bill of complaint declares that the defendants, through the illegal acquisition of the Boston and Maine trolley and steamship properties, are bound to pay the New Haven's treasury $162,000,000 withdrawn for illegal and ultra vires purposes. Losses from these acquisitions are said to total $162,000,000, recovery to threefold that figure being allowed under the anti-trust act.

Preliminary to the main question as to the actual guilt and liability of the directors, the defense, led by Counsel Moorfield Storey, will probably make contest on two points.

First, it is claimed that under the federal anti-trust laws, action should only be taken in the federal courts.

Secondly, it is maintained that one stockholder having only fifty shares out of 80,000 has no right to tie up all the property represented by the stock of the defendants.

If these two points are decided against the defense, it is thought plea will be made for continuance until the outcome of the federal suit in New York is available.

Great interest attaches to the suit here, and when the case was called today many of the best known lawyers in Boston were within the rail.

Mrs. Bob Sloan and son have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Hill at Parker station. They were away two weeks.

GERMAN SAILORS SAIL TO GRAVE

ITALY ORDERS SHIPS FROM HARBOURS

Instead of Disarming Two German Ships Sail Toward Where English Fleet is Stationed. Conflicting Reports of the North Sea Battle. Canadian Cruiser Puts Into Port at San Francisco

Rome, Aug. 7.—In pursuance with her stand for neutrality, Italy today ordered all German warships from Italian ports.

MESSINA, Aug. 7.—With their gunners ready, their decks cleared for action, their flags flying, and their bands playing "Die Wacht am Rhine," the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau steamed out of the harbor today, although the British Mediterranean fleet is known to be waiting just outside.

The Germans were given the choice of remaining here disarmed, throughout the war, or go to sea.

They chose the latter.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—Many sources report that German and British ships clashed in the North Sea. Some claim it was a glorious English victory, but these reports are not confirmed.

Reports say that German ships, varying from seven to nineteen, were sunk and the others surrendered.

Churchill, of the admiralty, today denied that an engagement had occurred.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—The Canadian auxiliary cruiser Rainbow arrived today without food and very low on fuel. The commander asked permission to secure a supply of both.

The collector of the port made it plain that unless the vessel is en route home, permission will be denied.

The vessel may be interned here until after the war, in accordance with the neutrality law.

EUROPE HAS NOTHING ON SHIPPING THESE DAYS

(Herald Special Service)

SHIPPINGTON, Aug. 7.—This war in Europe is not the only big noise. The Kaiser is by no means the only feather on the chicken. Why, there are things doing at Shippington that would make ye sit up and look around. Just listen:

Captain Parker has built a big addition to his laundry building. The captain says he is now ready to wash everything in sight. Cleanliness takes second place only to Godliness, you know.

Winter Knight, the cartoonist, is hard at work getting out some grotesque ads for local merchants, and his pen work for cleverness, etc., compares well with that of Davenport—which, to say the least, is going some. The other day he made a drawing of your correspondent that to the scribe resembled a sow—but some mean-minded people of course insisted that the drawing was true to life.

Mrs. John Totten, who has been here on an extended trip, will return to her home near Ball's Bay in a few days. The Tottens have a fine homestead in that section, on which they will shortly prove up. After that we hope to get them to come to Buena Vista to live, for they are among our best people.

B. V. Finnell's spacious new residence is nearing completion. Jim says his house is next, and durned if we don't think so, for it looks that way so strong that we have several old cans and cowbells ready.

The Klamath Falls-Shippington road is getting fearfully dusty, and as we are still without a sidewalk, it is very disagreeable for women and children to walk over this route.

CARPENTIER TO TAKE ON "HOPE"

LONDON, Aug. 7.—Young Ahearn, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Georges Carpentier, who assumed the white heavyweight title of the world by defeating Gunboat Smith on a foul, meet here tonight for a purse of $30,000.

Most of this will go to the Frenchman, win, lose or draw.

Ahearn is thought to have small chance for victory.

Experts picked Carpentier to land a sleep wallop in an early round. The fight is scheduled to go twenty rounds.

NEW YORK—The cruiser Tennessee left today for Europe with sixteen tons of gold packed in ninety kegs. This is to relieve American abroad.

FIERCE ATTACK BY GERMANS ON LIEGE

THOUSANDS OF WOUNDED MEN LYING BETWEEN THE OPPOSING LINES

Kaiser's Troops Suffer Appalling Losses in Storming the City Over the Belgian Line. Detonating of Mine Last Night Put a Bloody End to the Germans' Night Attack on the Fortifications

ROTTERDAM, Aug. 7.—It was officially confirmed today that the German crown prince has reached Versailles on his way to assume command of the German army at Liege.

BERLIN, Aug. 7.—"Our adversaries are all jealous of our development, but we will fight to the end, even against a world full of enemies," said a proclamation issued today by Kaiser Wilhelm.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 7.—After three days of fighting, and a heavy loss upon the Kaiser's side, the German artillery is today shelling Liege itself with long range guns.

Many fires have broken out as a result, and the palace of justice and the cathedral of St. Paul have been damaged.

A dispatch from Paris states that at least three large army corps have been dispatched from France to aid the Belgians at Liege. They are expected to be in line tomorrow.

The war office today stated that the Germans at Liege admit their loss is 25,000 killed and wounded.

It was officially announced that Germany has asked for a twenty-four hour armistice at Liege. It is believed that this is to allow the wounded to be cared for and the dead buried.

In charges today, three regiments of Uhlans were destroyed by the terrific Belgian fire. Thousands of wounded are lying, writhing in agony in the open space between the German guns and the Belgian forts. It is impossible to minister to their needs on account of the firing, and this is the reason the Germans give for asking the armistice.

King Albert is reported to be hesitating regarding the armistice. It is said that he fears the Germans might take advantage of this time to bring up reinforcements or to change position.

Three vain attacks were made upon Liege last night and today by the German forces. The following dispatch was sent out by the Liege Gazette:

"Ten German army corps, with cavalry reinforcements, started across a mined zone in an attack on the forts last night. The mines were detonated, and a whole battalion of Germans were killed. Twelve hundred wounded were picked up."

This morning another large German force was slaughtered, through a Belgian maneuver.

The defenders simulated the evacuation of the outer fortifications, and when the invading forces rushed in they were trapped in a circle of fortifications. Between the artillery and the infantry fire, the Germans were almost annihilated.

The Belgians captured twenty-seven field pieces.

NEW HAVEN SUIT IS IN THE COURTS

BOSTON, Aug. 6.—The crack English team was expected to return the victor in the final round of the preliminary competition for the coveted Davis challenge tennis cup, which started today on the courts of the Longwood Club.

The English team defeated Belgium's team and the Frenchmen.

The Australians, who are meeting the Britons, recently defeated the Canadian team.

The two singles matches were to be played today, the doubles matches tomorrow, and the third and fourth singles matches Friday.

The winners of the series which started today will meet the champion United States team at the West Side Tennis Club, Forest Hills, Long Island, on August 13th, 14th and 15th.

Chefs Close Convention

BOSTON, Aug. 6.—Six hundred of the classic chefs of the country, some of who "can cook in four languages," who have been attending the convention of the International Convention of the Stewards' Association, which opened a three-day meeting here Tuesday, today attended the closing business sessions.

Home From Spring Creek

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. White, son Kirk and daughters Mrs. Claude Coseboom and Miss Hattie White have returned from a sojourn on Spring Creek.

Is the Klatawa Club a matrimonial agency or an organization of well known young fellows whose dancing parties at the White Pelican are among the big affairs of the year?

This question is being asked by many, on account of the serious inroads D. Cupid and the girls are making in the club's membership. The tremendous slaughter of Germans in front of the Belgian fortifications are small in proportion to the percentage of loss suffered by the Klatawas, for out of the fifteen exponents of single blessedness who composed the club last winter, four have already made the vows and bestowed the wedding rings.

Nor is this the end of it. Wednesday, the jingling of wedding bells will have lured away on-thrill the heart-free bachelors of last fall, for "on the best day of all" at Medford, Harry Goeller and Miss Maude Rippey, two young people who are popular in Klamath Falls social circles will be united. After an auto trip of several weeks through the state, the couple will return to Klamath Falls to reside. Mr. Goeller is associated with his father in the firm of J. P. Goeller & Son, and has proven to be a business man of ability. The bride-to-be has taught in the Klamath Falls public schools for three years past, during which time she has made a wide circle of friends.

That the Klatawa will suffer a still further loss is all too apparent. Though they try to sing "No Wedding Bells for Me" in a half hearted way, and rail at the matrimonial life when they are in the presence of some of their unmarried brethren, there are four Klatawas at least who are asking their married friends regarding the cost of housekeeping, rents, and too vehemently denying any intention of walking the plank hand in hand with some fair Klamath damsel.

Seated under a table fairly groaning with good things to eat, which was spread on the splendid lawn, a few friends of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. White were guests at a highly enjoyable dinner party at the White home on Pine street Monday night. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Coseboom, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund M. Gowen Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Phillip J. Sinnott, Mrs. Don Dale, Miss Kathryn Sinnott, Miss Hazel Fitch, Dr. Warren Hunt, Garrett Van Ripper and Russell and Elbert White. The lawn

GRAIN RIPENING FAST JUST NOW

MT. LAKE, Aug. 8.—Grain is ripening fast and several of the farmers have commenced harvesting. A number of the farmers are cutting their second crop of hay, which is proving to be much better than the first. They expect a good third crop.

On last Wednesday Floyd McComb, the ten year old son of J. A. McComb, of Mt. Lake, was accidentally kicked by a horse and received very painful cuts around the right eye. The lad was immediately taken to Dr. Wright, who found it necessary to take eleven stitches in dressing the wound. The injury is healing rapidly and there is little danger of the sight being affected.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson and family started Thursday on a camping trip. They expect to join the party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and family, Mrs. Schriener and family and Mrs. John Manning and daughter. They will visit the berry patch before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester, Mrs. Murphy, Wray Murphy, Mrs. Eggarth and Mr. Avery returned Thursday from their camping trip. They visited Crater Lake and report a fine time.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—A record gallery was out today to watch the finals in the open metropolitan golf championship being played on the links of the Seaside Golf and Country Club. The next big golf event is the national open championship on the Midlothian links.

Although the war is rushing food prices up now, the wheat crop to be harvested in this section should prevent a flour scarcity here, according to Frank Graybael, a well known Merrill farmer, who is here attending to business matters. He says the crops are all promising looking.

was illuminated in a pretty manner, and if laughter and jollity is conducive to good digestion, none of the party had cause to worry about the assimilation of the repast. After the dinner, a musical program was rendered until late in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Humphrey and children left Thursday in their car for a tour of Northern Oregon. They will visit Portland, Seaside and other points, and will be gone about six weeks.

Friends of Miss Ruth Avery, Miss Elsie Orem and Miss Maysel Sanderson spent a highly enjoyable evening as their guests at an informal party given at the Avery home on Tenth street Wednesday night. The evening was spent in playing cards and in dancing, the ball room being the spacious lawn illuminated with tastefully arranged Japanese lanterns. Late in the evening, a dainty collation was served. The guests were: Misses Lillian and Josephine Van Ripper, Miss Betty Bell, Miss Dorothy Weeks, Miss Pearl Bolvin, Miss Marjorie Weeks, Miss Marjorie McClure, Miss Nina Noel, Miss Mary Schubert, Miss Greta McMillan, Miss Vera Houston, Mrs. F. M. Sanderson, Mrs. H. Orem, Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Coon, Fred Dunbar, Vernon Moteschenbacher, Cecil Weeks, Clarence Moteschenbacher, Andrew M. Collier, Lawrence Mehaffey, Harold Kinner, W. P. Johnson, W. M. Duncan, Mr. Weber, Thomas Rathbone and Harry Anglin.

In honor of Mrs. H. H. Johnson, mother of William P. Johnson, Mrs. Robert A. Emmitt was hostess to a number of ladies Thursday afternoon at her home on Walnut street. The afternoon was spent in needle work and social chat, and a dainty luncheon was served. In attendance were Mesdames Will Weedon, K. D. North, W. H. North, John H. Hamilton, Guy Walters, Will Wilson, Bob Taylor, John M. Johnson, Wm. P. Johnson, Ralph J. Sheets, Elizabeth Bee, L. O. Mills, W. F. Arant, Nate Otterbein, Chas. Martin, Ida M. Fink, S. E. Seeds, S. T. Sommers, George Biehn.

Mrs. Nate Otterbein and Mrs. J. Fred Goeller left Sunday morning for Medford to attend the Goeller-Rippey nuptials there Wednesday. Mrs. Otterbein is an aunt of the bride and Mrs. Goeller is the groom's mother.

The Leisure Hour Club has declared a vacation, and the meetings will no more be resumed until September.

FIRST SWISS ACCUSED OF BEING A TRAITOR

GENEVA, Aug. 8.—For the first time in history a native Swiss has been accused of being a spy in his own land on behalf of another country, and it so happens that the man attaining this unenviable distinction is a member of the national council.

The government has suppressed his name and most of the facts in the case, for which the Swiss newspapers are loudly clamoring.

It is stated, however, that the man, who was arrested in Zurich, had been suspected for some time past, and that a search of his house disclosed convincing proofs of his guilt.

He had been particularly active in getting and disposing of information concerning the Swiss defenses on the Italian frontier, say the authorities.

COAST MONEY MARKET IS SOUND

The following article in the San Francisco Bulletin, under the signature of Hebert Fleishhaecker, president of the Anglo and Latin Paris National Bank, may be taken as authoritative:

There is not the slightest basis for worry over the financial situation here. Despite the fact that all Europe is at war, conditions on this side of the Atlantic have returned to normal with remarkable promptitude.

For a day or two after the outbreak of war there was a slight tendency to hysteria in the East. This was promptly checked by the combined activity of the New York financiers and the United States treasury department. Today the entire nation is resting on an even keel.

Financial conditions today on the coast are normal in every respect.

Shipping is hesitating temporarily for lack of bottoms; but the moment that England guarantees the carrying of our products this condition will be relieved and will return to normal. The banks of this city were never more sound. There has been no sudden withdrawal from either the savings or commercial deposits. There is a greater quantity of gold and currency here now than ever before in the history of the city.

The tremendous balances which the San Francisco banks are carrying in Chicago are also available. Currency can be transmitted with absolute promptitude either through the sub-treasury or through the usual channels.

Immediately after the first sudden outbreak of war, tension was high at New York because of the attempt which Europe made to unload her securities on New York and secure American gold. Then came the prompt action of the New York stock exchange in closing, and immediately afterward that of the New York clearing house in refusing all shipments of gold to Europe.

As a further great relief to the situation came $200,000,000 of the Aldrich-Vreeland money from the national treasury to New York. Today conditions in New York are bordering upon the normal.

The government has a billion dollars available for the banks to aid the nation in the movement of crops. This sum will become available as soon as the federal reserve association is established. It is my expectation and belief, based on latest advices from New York, that Warburg and Delano will be confirmed not later than today or tomorrow, and that by the end of the week the board will be completely organized; and this will end all lingering uneasiness and place the entire nation in an absolutely sound condition.

THREE THOUSAND WIRES RECEIVED

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 8.—Three thousand telegrams have been received by President Woodrow Wilson, condoling him for the loss of his wife. The king of Sweden is the latest European monarch to cable.

In addition to these, there are thousands of sympathizing letters, mostly sent from the homes of the poor.
