La Vogue Garments are featured here. They represent quality, style and service at moderate cost.

Royal Worcester and Bon Ton Corsets

Another shipment of new Corsets were received Saturday. We doubt if there is another store on the Pacific Coast in a town the size of Klamath Falls that sells as many corsets as this store does.

There must be a reason for this, and there is.

For fifty years and more the manufacturers of the corsets sold at this store have been the leaders of this industry in America.

The price ranges from $1.00 to $5.00 with an extra special this week at 98c.

BLOODY FIGHT CONTINUES IN YPRES REGION

PARIS, Nov. 10.—Undoubtedly the fighting of the past fortnight near Ypres has been the bloodiest of the war. Both sides lost heavily.

The Germans continue their mass attacks. The British ships are reported supporting the allies left flank.

The allies are holding the German attack in the vicinity of the Ypres, but the war office says the enemy is bringing tremendous pressure there in a supreme effort to penetrate. Ypres is burning.

The Germans are continuously using their artillery from a cover which the infantry have repeatedly assaulted in vain.

The latest communique says the Germans were repulsed in the vicinity of Bixhote and Armentieres. This says the violent fighting was unabated, both armies endeavoring to maintain the offensive.

At other points along the front there is no change apparent.

CITY VALUATION GAINS A MILLION

According to figures submitted to the city of Klamath Falls by the county officials, the assessed valuation of property within the city is now $3,353,803. This is an increase of over a million dollars over the valuation for last year.

This was talked at Monday night's meeting of the council when the question of the next tax levy was raised. It was pointed out that the levy would be lower than last year, despite the fact that for a part of the coming year there will be no saloon license fees paid into the city's treasury.

THIS MAN BUYS A WHOLE TOWN

United Press Service
THE DALLES, Nov. 10.—A. K. Detweiler, a banker of Toledo, Ohio, has purchased an entire town for $45,000. The town is Grand Dalles, just across the Columbia River from The Dalles. It comprises 300 acres, a water plant and a few buildings. Detweiler says he intends to build up a manufacturing town with people from Ohio and California who prefer a northern climate.

Grand Dalles was originally laid off for a manufacturing city, and large buildings were put up for shoe factories, tanneries and other industries. Excursion trains were run from the East, and many lots sold on the highly colored statements of a Baptist minister and promoter of the early seventies.

OPPOSE GOMPERS IN CONVENTION

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—For the first time in years, the rule of Samuel Gompers in the American Federation of Labor is seriously threatened. The delegates of the mine workers, carpenters and other unions inclined to radicalism, openly assert that the present control of the Federation is too conservative.

It is expected, however, that Gompers will be able to retain his power.

The Stanley-Smith Lumber company has twenty-five men at work in its new mill at Green Point, Hood River county.

TO RODEO OR NOT TO RODEO

O. W. Robertson is the new president of the Rodeo Amusement Association, who will have charge of the 1915 show if it should be decided to pull one off next year.

Whether or not there will be a Rodeo in 1915 is still very doubtful, as many of those who handled the bulk of the work the past three years are not at all enthusiastic over the opportunity of having to neglect their private business in order to make the show a success. The new officers have decided to place the matter before the business men of the city, and it will be up to them to decide whether they want another show next year or not. Unless the local merchants are willing to provide entertainment for the visitors in the morning and evenings, there will be no show.

The annual meeting of the association was held Monday night, and the following officers were elected: O. W. Robertson president; J. E. Bodge vice president; H. M. Ackley secretary; C. H. Daggett treasurer; C. H. Underwood, W. C. Dalton, F. P. Grohs, L. C. Sisemore and J. M. Holman directors.

BARBER SHOPS CLOSE EARLIER

Instead of "shaves at all hours," as has been the case in the past, the Klamath Falls barber shops are all to close at the same time. After November 16th, all of the shops will be open from 8 a. m. to 7:30 p. m., except Saturday nights, when they will close at 11 o'clock.

There has been some war among the barber shops for the past two years, and as a result the shops have been kept open all hours of the night, greatly inconveniencing the hair-cutters.

QUARANTINE IS MORE EXTENDED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—The Department of Agriculture has decided to quarantine Canada, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Kentucky and Delaware in its work of eradicating the foot and mouth disease. Shipments of cattle into the United States is thus prevented.

FIGHT TO DEATH ACROSS MOJAVE

BARSTOW, Calif., Nov. 10.—A desperate duel was fought in a dimly lighted Pullman coach swinging across the Mojave desert early this morning when Pullman Conductor J. B. Fincher shot and killed Samuel Wilson, a dining car porter. Wilson was armed with a meat cleaver.

According to Fincher, who surrendered to the police at Mojave, he and Wilson quarreled over a tip given to Wilson. The latter rushed to the dining galley and returned with a meat cleaver, attacking Fincher.

RUSSIANS AND GERMANS HAVE MANY BATTLES

PETROGRAD, Nov. 10.—The war office says the Germans have been driven out of all Russian territory, and the Russians are in Posen and East Prussia.

Heavy snows are falling in the north, but the Russians are using their motor sledges and making good time. Cossacks are reported to have pierced the German left flank at Konin.

It is officially announced that 600,000 Russian infantry, cavalry and light artillery are continuing their advance against the Turks.

BERLIN, (via Amsterdam), Nov. 10.—Official announcement is made that the Russian troops endeavoring to cross the border south of Wilballen were repelled across the frontier with heavy loss.

FOOT AND MOUTH ATTACKS HUMANS

AKRON, Ohio, Nov. 10.—The first suspected case of foot and mouth disease among humans was discovered today at the Bowen school in this city.

The city medical examiner, in his regular inspection, this morning discovered a girl 10 years old who is suffering with all of the symptoms displayed by animals afflicted with this malady.

The cause of the case cannot be learned. One theory is that the girl has been infected through eating the meat of a diseased animal. It is more possible that in this case the whole family would be diseased, and they have been isolated and will be carefully watched.

ANKENY DITCH MATTER NEXT

In addition to opening bids on street improvements, the council, at its meeting Thursday night will consider the election soon to be held, when the question of empowering the council to enter into an agreement with the government for the transfer or abatement of the Ankeny canal will be submitted to the people in the form of a ballot amendment.

At this same meeting the council will also consider some changes in the charter. These are a few of the provisions which would be more beneficial or practical in another form, and any alterations suggested are the result of two years' operation under the charter.

KLAMATH HIGH LOSES AGAIN

The Klamath County High School football team returned Tuesday from their Rogue River Valley tour with a percentage of .000. Following the 71 to 0 defeat at Ashland Saturday, the team Monday lost to Medford High 53 to 0.

Telephone advices from the boys say that the team in Ashland suits was a far bigger and a faster one than played here recently. The locals were badly outweighed, and had an uphill fight all the time.

BUILDING PERMIT IS TURNED DOWN

Council Monday night rejected an application from L. Jacobs to erect a corrugated iron warehouse, with a wood frame, in the rear of the Ashland Fruit Store. The council held that under the charter this could not be called a fireproof structure.

The matter was up at the meeting November 24, and was investigated during the week by the street committee.

GIVE LECTURES IN THE CHURCH

A series of lectures on religious, educational, economical and sociological matters is to be given during the winter at the Christian church by Elder S. D. Harlan and others. These will be illustrated by stereopticon slides. Elder Harlan has ordered a projecting lantern to throw these pictures on the screen, and he will also arrange to receive sets of illustrations for various lectures.

He's "Pounding Away."
