MONDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1914

THE SEMI-WEEKLY HERALD, KLAMATH FALLS, ORE.

PAGE THREE

At the Stills apartments, Miss Lil- show,

A most unique and enjoyable affair ert E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Addie E. are attempting again to cross the GLASGOW, (By mail to New York) was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. , Walker, Miss Helen Paxson, Miss Yser, attended by Professor and Mrs. R. H. highly enjoyable and well prepared Dunbar, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue Thanksglving dinner.

Miss Ethel Gross, Miss Mary Stewart. Captain and Mrs. Ivan D. Applegate Miss Winnifred Koyes, Miss Nellio of Dry Lake Ranch were guests of McAndrews, Miss Pearl Talley, Miss their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. Helen Paxon, Miss Erma Cole, Miss and Mrs. Wesley O. Smith at Thanks-Alica Blackford, Miss Margaret Bar- giving dinner. Mrs. Emil Piet, who is gain the bridges across the Yser, for A heard they speak Flemish." ized in English training camps. ciay, Miss Goorgin Porter, Miss Goldio also a daughter of Captain Applegate Whitenack, Miss Augusta Parker, and wife, was here from Ashland, and Miss Claud's O'Loughlin, Miss Rachel in attendance at the little reunion. Magneman, Miss Bersie Applegate, There were twenty plates spread at Miss Harel North, Mils Lottie Milan, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mias Ruth Engerman, Mias Alice Martin Thanksgiving, the list of those Fool, Miss Long Stoecher, Miss Ger- present including Mr. and Mrs. S. Edtrude Seeley. Miss Ada Soult, Miss ward Martin and children, Mr. and Sidna Wells. Miss Hortense Hogue, Mrs. Henry Auderson and children. Miss Clara Simer, Miss Dalay Cole, D. Mr. and Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby and

C. Morriss, E. C. Chandler, Harry children, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ramsby Ackley, A. M. Thomas, Rollo C. Groen-Ceell Low and John Martin. beck, Albrecht Ochler, Hugo H. 4 0 0

Joe Brett, William P. Johnson, Chan, at the Christian church Friday night Ste. Mihiel were repulsed. L. Roberts, Arlie Worrell, Dr. Warren, were well repaid, for the affair proved wearing clothing in a manner suggest- also had an attractive booth, where Rumors of a spy or submarine be- and five cigars. ing the title. Much more interest was they sold useful articles, and this ing responsible are in circulation shown when the guests were required booth was well pstronized all evening. to guess the titles represented. In this Miss Sceley was the most successful. NEW MEN WILL and she was awarded a handsome prize. Consolation prize went to Mr. Worrell. Solos by Mr. Mehaffey and Klamath Lodge No. 137, L O. O. F., "For the moment, we can neither borough board of Guardians, spying a

3

... Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Conner have returned from Ashland, where they went to visit their daughter, Mrs. Wilson, and Miss. Helen Conner. Miss Helon is attending the high school in of Mrs. Wilson at a birthday dinner term. for a birthday present.

PARIS, Nov. 27 .- Heavy cannonading and intermittent infantry at-J. Walton and Mr. and Mrs. Phil J. tacks continue everywhere along the Sinnott were also dinner guests at the White Fellean

Germans Attack

The Germans are very active at the Leach entertained Mr. and Mrs. Rob-been destroyed in this way. The communique today says: ened everywhere today. Two infantry the wee Belgians." attacks were made by the Germans to "They widna understun' French, to return to the front, are being util- girls these days. Naturally then it is year old.

south of Dix Mude, but these were re-or in the Champaigne districts. The lish than they dae in England." trenches lost three days ago in the Argonne region were retaken today tral countries visited the city."

Loewe, Albrecht H. Loewe, Thad G. The forty or more who braved the MeHattan, Vernon T. Motschenbacher, elements and attended the hox social "French attacks in the feld, H. C. Lincoln, Phil Stilts, Har- similar sessions will be held frequent- been started. Experts are unable to flask of brandy, and he wanted to "try old Kinnear and Lawrence Kinnear. 1y. Several funny games were in- explain the destruction on the theory his luck," too.

GUIDE I. O. O. F. described the financial breakdown as the result of the war as follows:

present circumstances we cannot do burned it. business."

PETROGRAD, Nov. 27 .- It is de- riving in England at the rate of 1,000

At the first meeting in January were the certain fates confronting the band of Boy Scouts.

birthday. Only a few friends and the the Degree of Truth was conferred on is estimated that there are now 50,- oxide of manganese.

Yser Bridges LITTLE STORIES FROM THE FRONT THAT ARE COMING IN THROUGH THE CAPITALS OF THE NATIONS NOW FIGHTING EACH OTHER-SOME ARE TRIVIAL, BUT ALL ARE INTEREST-ING AT THIS TIME.

> serve must enlist in the usual way. -Passing a building where some of LONDON-The Optimist National Aviators have succeeded in bomb- the Belgian refugees were housed, Corps, a body of 200 business men oc-Robert E. Wattenburg and Miss Lula Laja Wattenburg, Mr. Progmore of Ing several German positions. Quan- two girls were overheard arguing cupying managerial or executive po-Wattenburg Friday night, which was San Francisco and Philip Stilts at a ing several German positions. Quantities of munitions and supplies have about the language of the guests, sitions, unable to join the army, are skirts up to their shoe tops and their waisted side beited models prevail helping to obtain recruits. thus:

"A wish we'd been gettin' French "The enemy's artillery fire slack- this year; we'd be able tae speak tae LONDON-Slightly wounded offi- old-all the big girls seem to be steal- black velvet trimmed in tailless erm-

"Well, A heard they dae in France LONDON—By the irony of circum-better French than they dae in France LONDON—By the irony of circum-that on the field dressed indeed since they become welves with a band of fur to match that on the coat or a curling os-There is little fighting in the Aisne Just the same's we speak better Eng- stances, nine-tenths of the field grown-ups.

> PETROGRAD, Nov. 8 .- (By mail many. to New York)-The way in which the western front and in Argonne, we prise one of the German scouting pa-"French attacks in the vicinity of ed that his effort had been successful, spread all over fondon to catch silk bordered the neck and sleeves feet. A tiny resette finished the very his officer asked why he had volun- bombs dropped by German air craft. which were elbow length and also top of the crown where the ribbon teered such risky work. The cor- This is one of the stories circulated in was carried out down the front of the ends converge.

"Rhiems was violently bombarded Russian soldiers will risk their lives LONDON-A carrier pigeon was those for the older members of the velvet with just a nosegay of tiny while the war correspondents of neu- for comparatively small luxuries is shot on the roof of the barracks in American Beauty family. evidenced by the following story. Dur- Dorchester, where some German pris-BERLIN, Nov. 27 .-- "In the eastern ing the fighting in East Prussia a cor- oners are confined. Tied to its leg theater, the battles are indecisive," poral asked permission to take a was a letter addressed to an officer of old rose velvet was cut in one piece how! shaped variety has a brim of says the official statement. "In the couple of his comrades and try to sur- the German general staff.

Hunt, H. Roland Olaisyer, Albert Ar- to be highly enjoyable, and owing to LONDON, Nov. 27.-A secret in- poral replied that the previous night Berlin, according to English women dress in a panel effect. nold, Louis Blee, Harold Merryman, the splaudid cardiality brought out quiry into the cause of the destruc- a friend had relieved a German officer who have just returned from the Ger-Lawrence Muhaffey, Dr. Fred Weater- through II, it has been decided that tion of the dreadnaught Bulwalk has of a good supply of chocolate and a man capital.

out, some in costume and some by tention. The ladies of the church unlikely in the light of frequent tests. heart failure.

LONDON-A member of the Gains- use of refugees. Miss Parker, and a reading by Miss at the regular meeting Friday night, buy nor sell, though the whole world German flag among the decorations of LONDON - "Dead-head" tickets Our int 'one-

LONDON-Belgian refugees are ar- door."

LONDON-Among the latest com- slaughter near Przemyl:

Trains still continue to enter War. modifies barred from export during "The fury of the Russian attack given in honor of Miss Helen's 18th Following the election of officers, saw with wounded and prisoners. It the war are harness, saddlery and per- was shown by examination of the bat-and Mrs. Counor presented Miss they were received into full member- Russians are clamoring for an offi-Helen with a handsome diamond ring ship. After the meeting closed the clat confirmation and full account of Chum Association" of Worksop has It was a terrible sight. I was one of members assembled in the banquet the grett victory the Russians gained sent 20,000 cigarettes to the British a squad accompanying the examining officer. It was too sickening to repeat. Those masses of dead and dy-

BY MARGARET MASON (Written for the United Press)

A cunning frock Dad got for Dot, sterably in velvet or corduroy. Like He got a suit for little Bill Then got a big bill for it.

With other dots strewn o'er it--- the grown-ups and whether they took it from the grown-ups or vice versa is a question. Sand and putty velvet or corduroy is very popular and pretty frocks hanging loose and waistless above all others for the favored coats. from their shoulders like a six year Brown is another popular shade and cers who are not sufficiently recovered ing their fashion ideas from the little ine is very chic indeed for Miss Six-up to the little girls to be very well Little averted bowl shaped hats of glasses now being sold by the thous- At the recent Fashion fefe models wastly becoming to small heads. One ands in London, were made in Ger- for an American made maid of Fifth Avenue shop is abowing adortender years were as important a able little skuttle shapped bonnets of feature in the exhibit as were any of pale blue, pale pink or white chiffon pink rosebuds and forget-me-nots on One lovely little model of softest one sido. A Paris creation of the and hung straight from the little low chinchilla fur and the round crown round neck to the knees. Hand em- is of the palest blue inch ribbon trols. When he returned and report- LONDON-Wire neeting has been broidery in different shades of rose overlapping in longitudinal tucked ef-

Little brother Isn't to be put down The other little dress of knife either anymore with hand me downs pleated white chiffon hung from the or suits de lux evolved from fathers round baby neck in a long blouse cast off trousers. David Copperfield LONDON-On learning of the bom- effect to the hips where it was girded and Oliver Twiht effects still continue Each guest represented a book title, duiged is during the evening, and the of an accident, unless caused by deand these were all cleverly carried selling of the baxes also attracted at-teriorated ammunitions, but this is officer. The corporal grinned and Musin, a French music teacher of with bright hued corduroy trousers Embroidered net over flech colored and white china slik waists. Some silk makes a party frock to bring of these have little separate coats LONDON-Young Indian students LONDON-The Duke of Devon- delight to the heart of any little of bright plaid wool with gold but-LONDON, Nov. 27.-Lloyd George, in England spend 50 minutes daily shire's beautiful Yorkshire home, Bol- woman. Let three tiny raffles of tons and three quarter length trouspeaking for the house of commons, praying for the success of the allies. ton Abbey, hts-been turned over to the Belgian relief committee for the elboy sleeves, and five the short full like "when Grandpa was a boy." skirt, and her cup of joy will brim Long trousered sailor mits in either over with joy, even as her frock fluffs white flannel or blue serge are always smart. Top coats of gray or Wells were greatly enjoyed. Late in cleated the following officers to lead owes us money. America owes us the town hall, piled up a pyramid of given out by London theaters now the evening a luncheon was served. the local branch of the order for the about $5,000,000,000,000, but under the chairs, hacked the flag down and bear this inscription: "Complimentary on condition that you contribute embroidered in bright reds, greens model with Raghin sleeves of Engto the Prince of Wales fund at the and blues on the little turn over lish mixture is an exact copy of collar, turn back cuffs and low wide Father's 1914 model top coat us to belt, which holds in the box pleats of make a small boy fairly whoop with clared that destruction or surrender a week. Each batch is escorted by a TRIESTE-An eye witness, a sol- the fronk are very charming. Little glee as a proud possessor.

dier who took part in that fearful white dresses hanging full from the slege, describes his impressions of the yokes smocked in pink or blue are al- An outfit for a finy tot, so artistic and picturesque. Now shows a grown-up what is what; Childhood is coated this year pre- And also coats 'em quite a lot.

tlefield. The bodies of fallen Rus- Platinum has advanced in price so for this year would be 281, as comslans in the zone of our obstacles rapidly in recent years that gold is pared with 269 for 1913.

Killing Is Increasing Through the efforts of Health Com-Steadily the increase in the number missioner George B. Young and mem-'s City Club, Chi-

Free Laundry for Poor

* nest term:

Noble Grand-M. R. Doty. Vice Grand-Carl Adams. Socretary-George Humphrey. Treasurer-P. L. Fountain.

Ashland, While there Mr. and Mrs. these officers will be installed, and Germans who surrendered in the pres-Conner were entertained at the home the appointive officers chosen for the ent campaign.

immediate family were present. Mr. C. B. Browne and Ralph Dalle, and 000 German prisoners there.

Thanksgiving was the occasion for appent in onjoying the good things of Each detail as given out increases

