'A Sweet Affaire' brings sweet treats and more

Seaside's "A Sweet Affaire" has transformed from a chocolate and wine venue associated with Valentine's Day to an increasing representation of appetizers, desserts or auction items from Iron Chef Goes Coastal winner's and participants, and Coast Weekend Favorite Restaurants of 2015.

Past participants are returning Sunday, March 6, from 2 to 4:30 p.m. to serve their signature small bites, tempting treats, wines, local brew, and non-alcoholic beverages. Local chefs, restaurateurs, vintners, and brewers who have prepared and donated the afternoon's appetizers, desserts, and beverages will be on hand at the Seaside Convention and Civic Center.

Pianist Lynn Archibald, pianist, will provide music for the event. The silent and live auctions include activities within and outside the area, donated by merchants and individuals.

"A Sweet Affaire" is jointly sponsored by the Sunset Park and Recreation Foundation and the Seaside Rotary Foundation. The event proceeds provide scholarships to children, youth, and adults to enable them to participate in the array of positive lifestyle activities provided by the Sunset Empire Park and Recreation District. Rotary proceeds fund many school and community projects.

Tickets for "A Sweet Affaire" are $35 and may be purchased at US Bank, Sunset Pool, the Bob Chisholm Community Center or at www.sunsetempire.com. Auction items may be previewed at www.Facebook.com/asweetaffaire, or at www.sunsetempire.com.
