GULLS SWEEP CLATSOP SMASH

Seaside tops Astoria

Seaside Signal

After splitting their two matches with Astoria last season, the Seaside Gulls got the jump on the Lady Fishermen in the first Clatsop Smash volleyball match of 2016.

Taking advantage of their home court, the Gulls held serve and scored a three-game sweep over Astoria, 25-22, 25-16, 25-21.

"The girls came out ready to play tonight, which is what we're going to have to do every night in league play," said Seaside coach Angie Huntsman.

Seaside's Maddi Utti pounded out 20 kills with a .415 hitting percentage, and teammate Alyssia Gonzales added seven kills for the Gulls.

Utti also came up with 14 digs, and Jetta Ideue had 12 digs in the Sept. 15 battle.

"Our setters Annaka Garhofer and Anna Huddleston are making good decisions at key times," Huntsman said. "Huddleston, Ideue and Sequoia Shand were all 100 percent from the service line tonight and Lucy Bodner served five aces."

In addition, "Tori Tomlin had a couple big blocks at crucial times, which are huge when it comes to momentum."

Games 1 and 3 were back and forth, said Astoria coach Jessie Todd, following her first Clatsop Clash.

"Maddi Utti was tough for them, but Jacqueline (Jarrett) also had some great stuff blocks on her," Todd said. "We battled and we played hard, which was good to see."

Jarrett had six kills for the Lady Fishermen, as did Darian Hageman and Kes Sandstrom.

Jarrett also had seven blocks ("she owned the net tonight," Todd said).

"And Chelsea Christensen had some awesome digs. She's been a very solid defensive presence for us."

Meanwhile, the Gulls improve to 5-3 overall and 1-1 in league play, equaling their win total in league all of last season.

The Fishermen drop to 0-2 in league, and return to action Saturday in the Vernonia Tournament.

Seaside's Maddi Utti had 20 kills, leading the Gulls to a three-game sweep over Astoria, despite the blocking efforts of Jacqueline Jarrett, left.

Valley Catholic over Seaside

Fourth-ranked Valley Catholic defeated Seaside in three games at the Gulls' Nest, 25-12, 26-24, 25-20, in a Cowapa League volleyball match Sept. 20.

Valley's Regan Dean went on a seven-point serving run to close out the first set.

Seaside came back strong in Game 2 and led 23-19. A sideout by the Valiants, followed by a Seaside hitting error, a Valley ace and another Seaside hitting error, tied the game at 23-23.

Both teams battled hard in a long rally, ending in a kill by Seaside's Maddi Utti to put Seaside up, 24-23.

But a kill by Dean on the outside tied it at 24-24, and the Valiants scored the next two points on a Seaside hitting error and another kill from Dean.

Utti led the Gulls with 14 kills, while Alyssia Gonzales had five. Jetta Ideue finished with 13 digs and was 100 percent from the service line for Seaside.

KIRSTIN LENT

Senior

A member of the Seaside Rotary Youth Exchange, Lent missed last year's soccer season after attending school in Turkey.

She is now the starting goalkeeper for the Gulls, and in last week's Clatsop Clash against Astoria, Lent denied the Lady Fishermen a goal in a scoreless tie.

JACKSON JANUIK

Senior

A four-sport letterman (cross country, soccer, basketball, track), Januik has won awards and received recognition in all sports.

Last week, he finished fifth out of 441 runners in his race in the Sept. 17 3-Course Challenge. A few days later, he scored unassisted with just over 20 minutes left to give Seaside a 2-1 win over Astoria in the Clatsop Clash. He assisted on the other goal.

CROSS COUNTRY

Gulls ninth among big schools at Nike

EO Media Group

PORTLAND — In search of the best competition they can find, the Astoria and Seaside cross country teams both took part in the Nike Portland XC meet, held Saturday at the Portland Meadows Race Track.

Seaside took part in the 5,000-meter Division 1 race, and — facing many schools over twice their size — finished ninth out of 22 schools in the team standings.

Gulls' senior Bradley Rzewnicki finished 10th out of 117 runners, covering the course in 16 minutes, 23 seconds. Teammate Rafi Sibony was 25th in 16:39, and Jackson Januik placed 37th (16:54).

The Astoria boys placed 22nd out of 27 schools in the team standings of the 5,000-meter Division 3 race, highlighted by a fourth-place finish from senior Lucas Caruana, out of 188 runners. Caruana covered the course in a personal best 16 minutes, 59 seconds.

For the Astoria girls, McKenzie Burnett crossed the line in 21:41 to place 17th out of 128 runners in the 5,000 Division 3 race.
