

Friends of the Seaside Library presents...

The life and times of Woody Guthrie

The Friends of the Seaside Library welcomes folksinger, storyteller, and autoharp virtuoso, Adam Miller, on Thursday, Jan. 26, at 7 p.m. The musical program tells the story of the life and times of Woody Guthrie.

Guthrie wrote more than 1,000 songs in his lifetime and his musical legacy includes political, traditional, and children's songs, along with ballads and improvised works. Miller will tell Guthrie's story through song and the spoken word and the audience is encouraged to sing-along to some American classics.

One of the premier autoharpists in the world, Adam

Miller is a renowned American folksinger and storyteller. An accomplished folklorist, historian, musicologist, and song collector, he has amassed a repertoire of over 5,000 songs. Miller accompanies his baritone voice with lively finger-picking acoustic guitar and autoharp melodies. His time-honored traditional folk songs and ballads interweave stories that evoke a by-gone time when entertainment was homemade.

Miller has performed at the Walnut Valley Bluegrass Festival, the Tumbleweed Music Festival, and the Kentucky Music Weekend.

The Seaside Public Library

Adam Miller

is located at 1131 Broadway. The concert takes place in the Community Room. For more information call 503-738-6742 or visit www.seasidelibrary.org.

History and Hops to host 'Graveyard of the Pacific'

The next History and Hops local history lecture will take place at 6 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 26, at Seaside Brewing Co., located at 851 Broadway. The event is free.

"Graveyard of the Pacific" is a nickname for the stretch of Pacific Northwest coastal ocean ranging from Tillamook Bay northward to Cape Scott Provincial Park on Vancouver Island. It is estimated that more than 2,000 vessels and 700 lives have been lost near the Columbia River bar alone.

Maritime archaeologist Chris Dewey will discuss some of the greater and lesser-known shipwrecks located in our north Oregon coast area and recount efforts to locate and document the wreck sites. He will cover the tools, techniques, and strategies archaeologists use to discover and investigate shipwrecks.

A retired naval officer, Dewey is anthropology and archaeology adjunct instructor at Clatsop Community College.

History and Hops is a series of local history discussions hosted by the Seaside Museum on the last Thursday of each month at Seaside Brewing Co.
