Trail's End Art Walk returns

Trail's End Gallery Art Walk resumes Saturday, March 4, from 2 to 5 p.m. Look for the little red schoolhouse in Gearhart at 656 A St. Visit www.trailsendart.org to learn about gallery programs, classes and studio times or call 503-717-9458.

Therapy dogs showcased at 'Friend-Raiser'

Dog lovers are invited to the Angel on a Leash Friend-Raiser Thursday, March 16, from 5:30 to 8 p.m. at the Astoria Golf and Country Club, 33445 Sunset Beach Lane, Warrenton. The event provides an opportunity to learn about the Providence Seaside Hospital therapy dog program, how they might support the program by registering to become a therapy dog handler, and to meet-and-greet David and Cheryl Frei and their dogs, Angel and Grace.

Providence Seaside Hospital recently introduced four-legged volunteers to its campus and they're gaining popularity with each visit. Therapy dogs emphasize care of the whole person by acknowledging and affirming one's emotional, physical and spiritual connection to animals and its interconnectedness to health and healing.

Cheryl Frei is the director of mission integration and spiritual care and David Frei was the first volunteer handler to bring a therapy dog to the patients in Seaside. The event is free and "Angel on a Leash" books will be available for signing.

History comes alive at library with actress Hutchens

The Friends of the Seaside Library will host a dramatic presentation of "Georgiana Pittock: Her Last 10 Years," with historical actress Mary Hutchens. The event will take place in the Community Room on Thursday, March 16, at 7 p.m.

Hutchens, portraying Mrs. Pittock, and Mike Hutchens, portraying her chauffeur, will tell the account of Georgiana and Henry Pittock as they came west on the Oregon Trail, and their settlement in Portland. The Pittock family played a major role in the history of Portland and the growth of our largest city. They will also tell the story of the Pittock's last 10 years between 1908-1918, with the building of the

Mary Hutchens

Pittock Mansion, the evolution of women's voting rights in Oregon, World War I, and dealing with the effects of a stroke. The Pittock family visited Seaside on many occasions and the presentation will touch on their experiences on the Oregon Coast.

Hutchens has been portraying Georgiana Pittock since 2007 and has told her story to school children, residents of elder living facilities, museums, libraries, civic, and philanthropic organizations. She will be in full period costume for the presentation.

The Seaside Public Library is located at 1131 Broadway. For more information call 503-738-6742 or visit www.seasidelibrary.org
