GARY HENLEY/SEASIDE SIGNAL

Will Garvin has cleared a lot of hurdles in his prep career, and is a defending league champion heading into his senior season.

from the 100 to the 1,500 meters last year with the Tigers, in addition to competing in the high jump, the long jump and the triple jump.

The Seaside girls will have their own list of challengers at both the league and state levels.

Elizabeth Barnes is a talented sprinter and jumper who can score big points; Gretchen Hoekstre has lots of potential in the throws; and Josie Smith and Katie Zagata hope to have big seasons in the middle distances.
