Dundee's receives OLCC sanction

Seaside Signal

Dundee's Bar & Grill received a violation notice from the Oregon Liquor Control Commission after an employee worked for almost a year without a valid service permit.

The Broadway restaurant will have the option of a nine-day suspension or a $1,485 fine after reaching a settlement.

According to Christie

Scott, an alcohol program spokeswoman with the commission, permitting an employee to sell or serve alcohol or supervise those who do without a valid alcohol service permit is "one of the more common violations."

Scott said it is also one of the easier ones to avoid by making sure all employees take an alcohol server education course and apply for an alcohol server permit.

Three-hour parking during daytime

Seaside Police issued a reminder that downtown area has a three-hour time limit per space for parking on the city streets during the daytime hours of 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. This restriction includes Roosevelt Avenue (Highway 101) to the Promenade and 1st Avenue to Avenue A.

In order to help observe the three hour time limit this summer, a work experience college student will be monitoring parking, providing informational assistance to visitors, and generally patrolling on foot the Seaside downtown area.

Parking fines for most parking offenses are $25, including exceeding time limits in a parking space. Fines for parking illegally in a handicapped parking space or in a fire lane have fines of $360 for each violation.
