Shipley scores a first

EO Media Group

TILLAMOOK — Seaside's Josh Shipley placed first in the 200-yard individual medley (2:18.60), and also won the 100-yard freestyle in 53.75, almost four seconds ahead of Astoria's Ryder Dopp at the Tillamook Invitational.

The Astoria boys swim team finished first among Cowapa League teams and second overall Saturday, Dec. 9.

Newport took first in the team standings with 397 points, followed by Astoria (226) and Taft (215), in an eight-team field that included Scappoose, Valley Catholic, Seaside (seventh) and Tillamook.

The Astoria girls placed third behind Tillamook and Newport.

The Astoria boys highlighted their meet by taking second in the 200-yard freestyle relay, as Cole Beeson, Thayne Covert, Elias Simmons and Ryder Dopp teamed up to finish in 1 minute, 41.74 seconds, behind Newport.

Elsewhere, Davis Wingard placed third in the 100-yard breaststroke, ahead of teammate Aleks Matthews.

On the girls' side, Astoria's Jazzy King, a transfer from Roseburg, had the highest individual finish for the Lady Fishermen, placing second in the 50-yard freestyle (28.0) out of 66 entries.

In the relays, the Astoria girls (freshmen Tori Smith and Grace Peeler, and seniors Megan Schacher and King) took second in 200-yard freestyle (1:57.51) and third in 200-yard medley.

Smith added third-place finishes in the individual medley and 100-yard butterfly; and Peeler was third in the breaststroke.

Astoria will host its annual Andrew Nygaard Invitational Saturday at the Astoria Aquatic Center.

LADY GULLS EXTEND WINNING STREAK

Seaside Signal

Playing their first game of the post-Maddi Utti era, the Seaside girls basketball team did not miss a beat Friday night at the Gulls' Nest, where the Lady Gulls extended their unbeaten streak to 16 games with a 48-25 win over Gladstone.

Undefeated at home last year, Seaside has not lost a game on its home court since Jan. 26, 2016.

And in their first contest without Utti (now playing at Fresno State) in four years, the Gulls scored by committee.

Emy Kiser led Seaside with 12 points, followed by Annaka Garhofer with nine. Bryre Babbitt and Jetta Ideue chipped in eight apiece. Anesha Smart added six, as seven Gulls made the scoring column.

"Well, if a positive vision can become reality, this game was about as close as I could imagine," said Seaside coach Mike Hawes. "We played hard, kept the turnovers in control, and ran and gunned fairly well."

The season-opening win was a "good first outing, with contributions from everyone," he said. "Great floor games by Jetta and Bryre. Emy did solid, Annaka hit some threes and Anesha played her best varsity game."

Defensively, the Gulls had nine steals and held the Gladstone to just 10 total points through three quarters.

Seaside was hot from the field, hitting 19-of-56 field goal attempts, including 7-of-24 from the 3-point line.

Babbitt added 10 rebounds, four assists and four steals.

Seaside opens with a win

Seaside Signal

The defending state champion Seaside Seagulls picked up right where they left off last year, with a 68-60 win at Gladstone to start the 2017-18 season Friday night, in nonleague boys basketball action.

It was a state tournament rematch on the Gladstone's home floor, where Chase

Januik poured in a game-high 31 points for Seaside, and teammate Ryan Hague added 19.

Seaside defeated Gladstone 46-43 in a quarterfinal game of last season's state tournament in Forest Grove. The Gulls also opened the 2016-17 season with a 71-55 victory over the Gladstone. Gladstone was still within one point (29-28) at halftime of the Friday, Dec. 1, game, before the Gulls went on a 22-16 run in the third quarter.

The Gladstone also couldn't keep up with Seaside at the free throw line, where the Gulls made 27-of-32 attempts. Jackson Simmons scored 25 points for Gladstone.

St. Stephens shoots down Jewell boys in Beaverton matchup

Seaside Signal

BEAVERTON — St. Stephens spoiled Jewell's season opener Tuesday night in a Class 1A boys basketball game in Beaverton, as the Archers shot down the Blue Jays 45-32.

Matt Reynolds scored 17 points and Joel Radigan added 15 for St. Stephens, while Ryan Kane led Jewell with 16 points, followed by Nathan Kane with seven points and seven rebounds.

Jewell Lady Jays fly past St. Stephens, 46-28

Seaside Signal

BEAVERTON — Gabi Morales, Lilly Kaczinski and Emma Guillen combined for 39 points Tuesday night, helping the Jewell girls basketball team to a 46-28 win over St. Stephens in a nonleague contest at Lake Oswego. Jewell trailed St. Stephens 5-4 after one quarter, but then outscored the Archers 34-13 over the next two periods to take a commanding lead.

Morales led the Lady Jays with 14 points, followed by Kaczinski with 13 points to go with seven rebounds and five steals, and Guillen scored 12. Ashley Wammack pulled down seven boards for Jewell.
