Tice won the championship at 145 pounds and Ramirez was the champion at 170 pounds in Seaside's annual Pac Rim wrestling tournament, Jan. 11-12. The two wrestlers were both 4-0, helping the Gulls to a sixth-place finish.

SEASIDE SCORES A WIN OVER ASTORIA

By GARY HENLEY
The Daily Astorian

The Astoria boys basketball team was facing long odds Tuesday night at Seaside.

Over their previous 32 home games, the Gulls had a 31-1 record on their home court. And the two-time defending state champions weren't planning on opening the new league season with a loss.

Seaside had things locked up after one quarter with the Fishermen, leading 23-6 on its way to an easy 83-43 win.

A flurry of 3-pointers from Brayden Johnson, Beau Johnson and Chase Januik helped the Gulls extend their lead to 31-6, before Astoria closed the first half with 3-point shots from Ian Hunt and Marcus Soderstrom.

But any hopes of an upset the Fishermen had at halftime quickly disappeared in the opening minutes of the third quarter, as Seaside opened the second half on a 20-4 run.

The Gulls finished with five players in double figures, led by Januik with 21 and Brayden Johnson, who had 19 points off the bench. Ryan Hague added 12, followed by Duncan Thompson and Payton Westerholm with 10 apiece.

Hunt and Soderstrom had 13 points each for Astoria, which was missing Josh Olson from the lineup.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

North Marion clips Seaside; Gulls defeat Gladstone, Estacada

Seaside Signal

The Seaside Lady Gulls gave No. 4-ranked North Marion a scare, but the Huskies managed to squeak out a nonleague girls basketball win Jan. 11 on their home floor with a low-scoring 31-24 victory over Seaside.

North Marion's 31 points tied their lowest offensive output of the season. The Huskies were coming off a 50-31 loss to Banks six days earlier.

Meanwhile, Seaside had to rally from a 20-9 third quarter deficit, with Morgan Blodgett and Annaka Garhofer leading a comeback that brought the Gulls to within 22-20 early in the fourth period.

Following a 3-pointer by North Marion's Mya Hammack, Garhofer drained another trey that had Seaside within 27-24 with 1:43 left.

Katie Ensign answered with a 3-pointer for the Huskies, and North Marion held on for the win.

Garhofer led the Gulls with 10 points, while Taylor had 10 rebounds.

Seaside coach Mike Hawes called it "a pretty solid effort against a good team. We have kind of figured out who we are, which is nice for league. Hopefully it will be enough to surprise some people."

"We'll see if we're ready for league, 'cause here it comes."

Gulls 34, Gladstone 29

It was a tale of two halves Jan. 8 in Gladstone, where the Gladiators held an 18-11 lead after one half, but Seaside owned the second half on its way to a 34-29 non-league victory.

"Well, we survived," said Seaside coach Mike Hawes, "and now I know why they call them the Gladiators. We should have worn chain mail and body armor."

It was a physical game, said the coach.

"Both ways," Hawes said. "We managed to play hard the whole way, but didn't make one-footers or take care of the ball. Just pleased that we dug deep and finally took the lead with about three minutes to play."

Gulls 64, Estacada 25

Seaside's Lilli Taylor and Emy Kiser combined for 31 points Jan. 4 — more than enough to beat Estacada by themselves, as the Gulls powered their way to a 64-25 win over the Rangers in a nonleague girls basketball game.

Taylor scored 16 points (8-for-11 from the field), and also had seven assists and six steals.

The Gulls (8-5 overall) were taking the ball away with ease against the Rangers (1-9), as Seaside finished with 18 steals.
