

OBITUARIES

Edmund Ross Cade Gearhart

Dec. 15, 1930 — Jan. 22, 2019

Edmund Ross Cade, of Gearhart, Oregon, passed away Jan. 22, 2019. He was born Dec. 15, 1930, in Billings, Montana, the son of Millard and Elizabeth (Verhelst) Cade. He grew up in rural, central Montana, and moved to Portland during the early part of World War II, when Elizabeth found work as a welder in the shipyards. Afterwards they lived in Portland until Ed married and started a family. He graduated from Central Catholic High School in 1948, and from the University of Portland in 1952. Ed married Bernice E. Meyer in 1950 in Portland, Oregon, and together they built a life that grew to having eight children and their families.

In 1955, Ed started working for the Campbell's Soup Company. He worked for Campbell's as the district manager of the Seattle area until 1975, when he became a partner with the Kelley Clark Company, a retail food brokerage, in Seattle. He worked with Kelley Clark until his retirement in 1995. He enjoyed working in the food industry so much that after retiring, he worked at Safeway in Seaside until 2008. In 1961 Ed and Bernice moved to Southern California, where they were members of St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church in Altadena. In 1968 they moved to Bellevue, Washington, and then to Redmond, Washington.

When he retired in 1995, they moved to Gearhart, Oregon, where they became active members of Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church in Seaside. While living in Washington, Ed took up the game of golf and enjoyed every day he got to play. No matter what the weather was like, Ed just felt it was a great day for golf. He enjoyed his children and grandchildren immensely, and almost could not have a better time than having a large family gathering. He loved to tell stories and to laugh. He enjoyed taking walks on the beach, playing cards (especially "slide gin"), and helping others whenever he could.

He spent much of his time volunteering at Our Lady of Victory. For many years he was in charge of the "Sunday Supper" program, which provides a meal to over 130 families. He acted as a server at Mass on weekdays, and sometimes on weekends. He also delivered meals to numerous people who could not provide for themselves. He also helped lead the drive to fund the 2011 church renovation. If there was a job to do, more than likely Ed was willing to do it.

Ed's mother, Elizabeth, passed away in 2003 and his sister, Cecelia (Sister Renilde, O.P., who was a Dominican Sister), passed away in 2008. Ed is survived by his wife of 67 years, Bernice E. (Meyer) Cade; his sister and brother-in-law, Thelma and Corwin Albrecht; his sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Mary Ann and Ron Orlikowski; and his sister-in-law, Myrna Meyer. He is also survived by his eight children, Damian (Janie), Joseph (Sharon), Matthew (Carol), Susan (Jim), Amy (Bill), Thomas (Susan), Jennifer (John) and Michael (Sonja); 18 grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren (so far). Funeral arrangements in the care of Hughes-Ransom Mortuaries & Crematory of Astoria/Seaside. Visit the online memorial tribute to sign the guest book, share a favorite memory or upload a photo(s) at hughes-ransom.com and fb.me/hughesransommortuary.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to: Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church Sunday Supper.

Edmund Cade

Joyce Marie (Loretta) Beery Springfield

July 4, 1946 — Dec. 16, 2018

Joyce Beery, 72, died Dec. 16, 2018, of Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD). A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Feb. 2, at Major Family Funeral Home in Springfield.

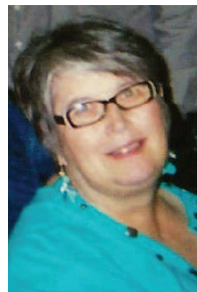

Joyce Marie Loretta was born July 4, 1946, in Fort Sill, Oklahoma, to Frankie and Julia (Watson) Loretta. Her family moved to Seaside, Oregon, at age 5, where she graduated from Union High School in 1964. She graduated from beauty college in Astoria and worked as a hairdresser in the Eugene/Springfield area until her retirement in the early 2000s. She married Michael L. Beery on Aug. 16, 1969. They have one son, Craig, and two grandsons, Ashton and Cameron Beery. Joyce loved lighthouses and the ocean, her career, knitting, sewing and dressing her son for Halloween. She liked to entertain and go camping.

She enjoyed sharing her famous homemade bread. Joyce also liked bold fashion and big earrings. She made Christmas cookies with her nieces, nephews and grandsons every year.

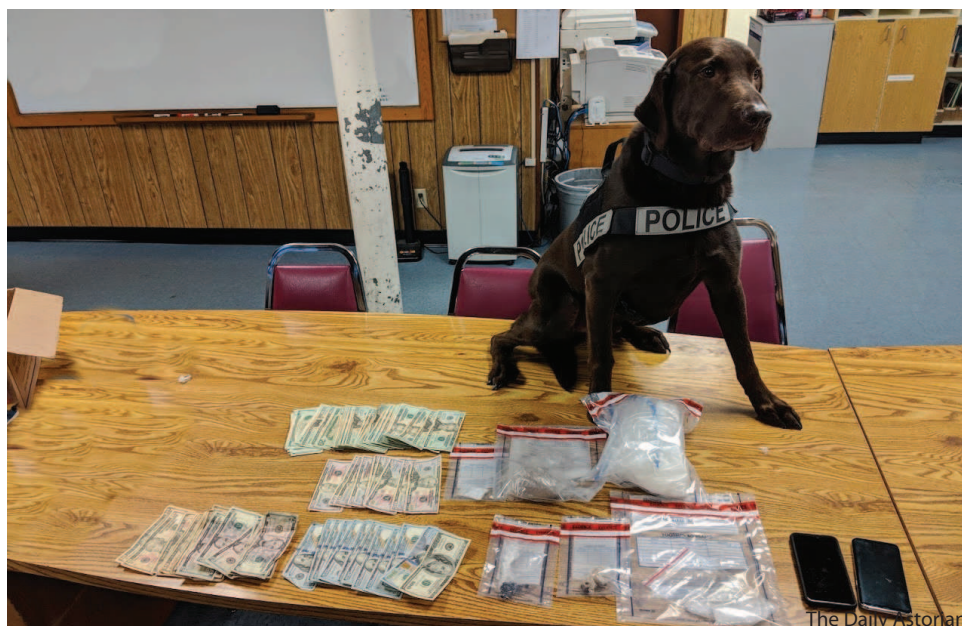

Survivors include Michael, her husband of nearly 50 years; her son and his wife, Craig and Michelle, and grandsons Ashton and Cameron, of Springfield; a brother, Joe (Emily) Loretta of Pendleton; two sisters, Barbara (Ron) Parr of Gresham and Christine Beery of Cornelius; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Contributions may be given to the Grace Community Fellowship Building Program, 989 Country Club Road, Eugene, OR 97401 or Signature Hospice, 2620 River Road No. 300, Eugene, OR 97404.

Visit majorfamilyfuneralhome.com to sign the online guest book.

Joyce Beery

Gunner, the K9 officer of Cannon Beach, helped officers seize heroin and methamphetamine Sunday.

Tip leads to drug bust in Seaside

The Daily Astorian

Seaside police seized more than a pound of methamphetamine, 4¼ ounces of heroin and $3,150 in cash in a coordinated, multi-agency traffic stop Sunday afternoon.

At about 3 p.m., police received a tip that a vehicle carrying a large amount of drugs was making its way into Seaside. Officers stopped the vehicle and searched the occupants and the vehicle after getting a positive alert from a drug detection dog.

The driver, 50-year-old Ronald J. Yaakola, of Astoria, was arrested for four felony counts of delivery of a controlled substance and six felony counts of possession of a controlled substance.

Danielle E. Jacobs, 24, a passenger in the vehicle, was charged with possession of methamphetamine. Jacobs was cited and released.

Seaside woman arraigned on 145 theft-related charges

By BRENNIA VISSER
Seaside Signal

A Seaside woman was arraigned on Wednesday, Jan. 23, on 145 charges related to stealing people's identities.

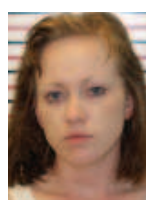

Desirai Skye Schehl, 27, was charged with multiple felony counts of identity theft and mail theft.

Schehl was also charged with one count of racketeering, as well as three counts of forgery, one count of burglary and one count of theft. The crimes were allegedly carried out from September 2017 to June and involved more than 100 people and businesses, according to court documents.

Schehl was indicted on similar charges stemming from an incident last year. On Wednesday, she pleaded no contest to one felony count of identity theft and one felony count of computer crime.

Judge Paula Brownhill found Schehl guilty on both counts, but postponed sentencing until a resolution is reached on the new charges.

Desirai Skye Schehl

Schehl decided to waive her right to a grand jury investigation. In exchange, the state is offering to recommend no more than 10 years in prison.

"Almost every count is a repeat property offense. My client's exposure would be her natural life in prison," said James von Boeckmann, Schehl's defense attorney.

Schehl is being held on $100,000 bail. Her next court appearance is scheduled for March.

SEASIDE POLICE LOG

Jan. 11

10:54 a.m., Avenue U: Police assisted husband with his elderly wife, who has dementia. He said she has been hiding his belongings, including an ID card. A search of the home turned up nothing; the wife denied taking or hiding the card.

9:23 p.m., Pocket Park: A person was arrested and charged with furnishing alcohol to a minor; there were additional charges regarding a minor using marijuana and a minor possessing alcohol.

Jan. 12

1:46 a.m., 900 block Avenue H: A person was charged with violating a curfew.

11:51 a.m., 300 block Avenue K: A person reported stealing cans was first trespassed from a residence and then arrested on a parole board warrant.

12:58 p.m., 2200 block N. Fork Road: A person was arrested and charged with sexual abuse in the first degree.

Jan. 13

12:57 a.m., 2400 block Highway 101: A person was charged with assault.

9:28 p.m., Eighth Avenue: A person pulled over on a traffic complaint was later arrested and charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants.

9:35 p.m., Fifth and Necanicum: A subject was arrested and charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants and possession of heroin.

Jan. 14

5:15 a.m., 300 block Avenue A: A subject wanted on a Clatsop County warrant was arrested; they were also charged with resisting arrest.

Jan. 15

11:13 a.m., Avenue A and Beach: A man reported behaving in an aggressive manner was cooperative with police; he was advised of complaints. Police determined he was not a danger to himself or others.

3:05 p.m., S. Holladay: People known to be living in a storage facility are requested by the fire marshal to cease. The manager of the units expected resistance, but all parties agreed to comply.

Jan. 16

11:16 a.m., 400 block S. Roosevelt: Police respond to a request for a welfare check on a subject who told their spouse they were thinking of self-harming. The subject was located in a park; police ascertained there was no self-harm intended and drove the subject to an AA meeting.

Jan. 17

7:30 p.m., Avenue E and Irvine Place: A subject reported as suspicious fled away on foot when police attempted to communicate with them. Officer gave chase but lost sight of the subject.

Jan. 18

9:41 a.m., 900 block Avenue S: Police assist Clatsop County Deputy attempting to locate wanted subjects.

1:39 p.m., 800 block S. Holladay: Police respond to a report of a person or persons moving televisions out of hotel rooms. Police are unable to locate.

Jan. 19

2:49 a.m., Beach: A fire dancer reported to be doing his thing in dune grass is advised by the police for reckless burning. The subject quit fire dancing and put the fire out.

1:44 p.m., Broadway Park: A baby briefly left unattended was reported by a caller; prior to police arrival, the caller said they located the parent.

6:24 p.m., 1700 block 12th Avenue: A person is arrested and charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants following a motor vehicle accident; the person is also charged with criminal mischief in the second degree.

6:59 p.m., Mill Creek Lane/Highway 101: Seaside police assist Gearhart police with a youth refusing to get in a vehicle with his mother. Situation turned over to the Gearhart police.

Jan. 20

1:09 p.m., Avenue G Bridge: Police respond to a man reported passed out on bridge. Subject tells police he is fine and is searching for his phone.

Jan. 21

12:19 a.m., First Avenue: A subject is transported to detox.

Jan. 21

6:26 p.m., 400 block Avenue A: Police respond to a report of a disturbance; subjects were separated and one party left the scene prior to police arrival.

Jan. 22

12:09 a.m., 500 block Broadway: Responding to a report of people fighting in the street, police encounter a number of intoxicated subjects but no evidence of fighting. Subjects quieted down and went on their way.

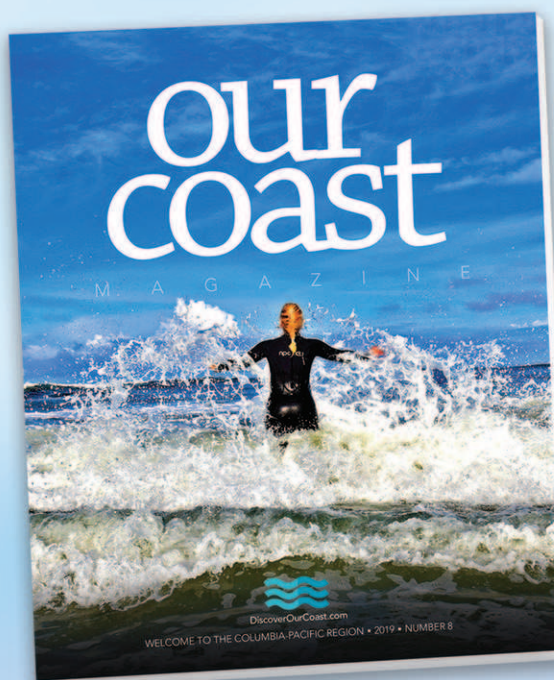

Jan. 23

8:26 a.m., 1100 block Avenue A: Caller said someone has been in their yard, stealing cans. Complainant asked subject be trespassed if located.

COMING

Spring Break 2019

The only magazine focused on just the Columbia-Pacific Region

Call your advertising representative by the February 6 deadline to be included in the 2019 issue

503-325-3211

Would you like to be a distributor for Our Coast Magazine? Call Circulation at 971-704-1526

DiscoverOurCoast.com