and nephews. Brian attended and graduated from high school in Kelso, Washington, and went on to complete his degree in mechanics at Lower Columbia College. He was a member of the local Laborers Union.

He enjoyed riding his Harley, practicing tai chi, playing with his wolf dogs, listening to music, and tinkering in his shop, working on various projects. He was always there for his friends, and stood up for what he believed in.

Most of all he had a great love for his children and spending time with his loved ones. He had a crazy sense of humor, and great sense of wit and wisdom.

A celebration of life will be held at 1 p.m. on April 13, 2019, at the Naselle Grange Hall, located at 292 Knappton Road in Naselle, Washington. Food, drink, music and fellowship to follow. All who knew and loved him are welcome to come and share in this celebration of his life.
