Citizens police academy graduates its 12th class

Seaside Signal

There was more than one graduation in Seaside Monday, June 10.

Along with graduating seniors from Seaside High School at the convention, the Clatsop County Citizen's Police Academy celebrated its 12th by adding state police to the mix, along with Cannon Beach, Seaside and other jurisdictions who work with citizens to teach them what goes on behind the scenes in law enforcement, especially locally.

"It's certainly different than what you hear and see," Cannon Beach

Police Chief Jason Schermerhorn said.

Among graduates, Regina Jones enjoyed it so much she took the class a second time, Schermerhorn said.

Seaside City Councilor Steve Wright was also a graduate of the citizens academy, which met every Tuesday evening from April to June.

On June 14 at 2:02 p.m., police responded to an injury crash involving multiple motorcycles on Highway 101 near Milepost 35. Police say the operator of Motorcycle 2 was leading a group of four riders when he misread his navigation device and attempted a last minute turn on to the "ramp" leading to Highway 26. As Unit 2 moved towards the exit ramp, the rear of his motorcycle clipped the front of Unit 1, which was slightly behind him. Both riders were on Harley Davidson bikes and are from Washington. No further information was available regarding injuries.

Seaside woman charged with DUII

On June 16 at 8:06 p.m., on Highway 101 and Rippet Lane, Jeana F. Okeson, 51 of Seaside, was arrested and charged with driving while under the influence of intoxicants, reckless driving, and reckless endangerment of a Person. Police say while working in the construction zone of U.S. Highway 101 at Milepost 24, they observed a Honda Accord traveling southbound nose into southbound traffic while partially in the northbound lane. Another motorist flagged police down to report this same vehicle passing motorists in a no passing area. Initiating a traffic stop, it was observed the driver showed signs of impairment. She consented to the field sobriety test and was found to be noticeably impaired. Okeson was arrested and charged with DUII and her vehicle was towed from the scene. At the Clatsop County jail she submitted to the chemical test and provided a breath sample of .09 blood alcohol content one hour after arrest. She was released to jail staff and was issued violation citations for no operators license and passing in a no passing zone with construction zone enhancements.
