Cheri Jeanine Folk

Gearhart
Dec. 31, 1944 — June 26, 2019

Cheri Jeanine Folk died peacefully at home in Gearhart, Oregon on June 26, 2019.

Cheri was born on Dec. 31, 1944, in Wendell, Idaho, to Kenneth and Emily Smith. She grew up near Sun Valley, Idaho. She graduated from Seaside High School, and attended Linfield college.

Her brother, Jan, preceded her in death, along with four half-brothers, and a half-sister. She is survived by her sister, Charline Smith of Wendell, Idaho.

She also leaves behind her husband of 29 years, Del Folk; her two daughters, Debbie Doughty and son-in-law Jeff, and Jennifer Waldrup and son-in-law Dave; stepdaughter Marci Utti and son-in-law Mark; stepson James Folk; 11 grandchildren, Jeffrey (Jamie) Doughty, Alyssa Doughty, Stephanie (Mike) Moore, Courtney Doughty, Katie (Todd) Coleman, Benjamin Waldrup, Max Waldrup and Emma, McKenzie, Allie and Maddie Utti; two great-granddaughters, Olivia Doughty and Mayven Townsend; and stepsons Eric and Brian Savage and stepdaughter Rindy Shultz and their families.

After 37 years in banking, in 2009 Cheri retired as the president and CEO of the Bank of Astoria and member of the board of directors. Cheri was the first female bank CEO in Oregon. She also served on the Oregon Bankers Association tion Board.

Since retiring, Cheri served diligently with the American Association of University Women, on the board of Liberty Restoration Inc., Astoria High School Scholarships Inc., the Lewis and Clark National Historical Park Association and the Astoria Golf and Country Club Ladies Golf Club. She previously served on the board of the Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific, the Clatsop County Historical Society and is director emeritus of the Columbia River Maritime Museum.

Cheri served faithfully in her membership in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in various volunteer leadership positions. She found great comfort in her faith and testimony of God and his son, Jesus Christ.

At her request, donations in her honor can be made to the American Association of University Women or Liberty Restoration Inc.

Services will be held July 6, 2019, at 1 p.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 350 Niagara Ave. Astoria, Oregon.

Dedication of the gravesite will be directly after the service at Ocean View Cemetery in Warrenton, Oregon.

Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. Please sign our online guest book at caldwellsmortuary.com

Roadwork continues south of Seaside

Seaside Signal

Construction work in Seaside continues on U.S. Highway 101 south of Seaside, from mileposts 22.52 to 24.95.

This project includes soft spot repairs; asphalt grinding and inlay; installing centerline rumble strips north of Beerman Creek; and new permanent striping.

The traveling public can expect single lane closures at night to allow the contractor to perform work. The lane closures will be Sunday night through Friday morning, 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. During July and August the lane closures will be Sunday night through Friday morning, 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. A pedestrian transport vehicle will be available during working hours to accommodate pedestrian and bicycle traffic.

The new pavement and centerline rumble strips are part of a larger project on U.S. 101 between Dooley Bridge to the junction of U.S. 26 and U.S. 101.

The project started in May with deep repairs of the asphalt and concrete along U.S. 101 that have been in poor condition.

New owners of Big Kahuna Pub and Grill receive liquor permit

Seaside Signal

With new owners, Cliff and Debbie Duncan, the Big Kahuna Pub and Grill in Seaside came before the City Council on June 24, seeking a full on-premises sale license, to allow the sale of distilled spirits, malt beverages, wine and cider.

A background check of the couple, who recently relocated to Seaside from Missoula, Montana, showed "no disqualifying factors," according to Detective Corporal William Barnes in his memorandum to the council. The new owners plan on being owner/operator and will be managing the establishment themselves.

The council unanimously voted to grant the permit as requested.

Oregon State Police Report

Portland woman charged with DUI and reckless driving

On June 30 at 8:53 p.m., a reporting party observed the operator of a silver Honda Fit driving erratically on Highway 26 near milepost 24 traveling west. The reporting party began video recording the vehicle and observed the driver continuously failing to maintain their lane. Oregon State Police pulled the vehicle over at the Baker's General Store where the reporting party contacted the driver and said they seemed to be under the influence of intoxicants. The driver stated to police she had taken various medications, including Oxycodone and was borderline diabetic. She was transported by Medix to Seaside Providence Hospital for medical evaluation. The driver, Chris Annette Boslar, 71 of Portland, was later discharged and arrested for DUI and transported to the Seaside police headquarters where she provided breath samples registering .15 blood alcohol content three hours after being initially contacted. She was additionally charged with reckless driving.

Seaside man pulled over for defective lighting

On June 30 at 9:39 p.m., a 36-year-old man from Seaside driving a silver Honda Civic was pulled over for defective lighting. A check through DMV showed the driver has a suspended license. Other occupants of the vehicle did not have valid driving privileges. The vehicle was impounded.
